GUIDING PRINCIPLES

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all Concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to service society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service

RI PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

In a garage outside Salinas, California, young people who are learning to restore classic cars are doing more than developing a skill — they are reclaiming their futures. This training program provides mentorship and, for some, a path away from gang involvement toward meaningful employment. Graduates leave with certifications, practical experience, and hope.

This is what Rotary's Vocational Service Month celebrates each January — the power of bringing together people with unique skills to do good in the world. It reminds us that integrity isn't just about our actions matching our words. Integrity is in everything we do.

The California automotive program has been such a success because it was built on integrity. Members of the Rotary Club of Carmel-by-the-Sea didn't assume they knew what the community needed. They listened. They learned there was a shortage of skilled mechanics as well as a large number of young people lacking job training. They recognized that technical skills alone wouldn't be enough, so they partnered with Rancho Cielo, a nonprofit offering counseling and support services alongside vocational training.

That is The Four-Way Test in action. Those four simple questions help us not judge others but guide us toward genuine, effective service. Consider our commitment to ending polio. For nearly 40 years, we have promised the world's children we will eliminate this disease. Despite obstacles, we persist, and today we are closer to defeating the virus. Keeping this promise is the very definition of integrity.

The same integrity must drive our vocational service. With 1.2 billion young people in emerging economies reaching working age in the next decade and only 420 million jobs projected, we face a critical gap. Communities long excluded from economic opportunities need our support. But support doesn't mean imposing our will. It means listening to local needs, building partnerships, and designing projects that communities can sustain themselves. You have knowledge that can transform lives. Whatever your profession, your expertise combined with Rotary's values creates lasting change. The question isn't whether you have something to offer, it's how you'll use your skills to serve.

This January, I encourage you to ask how your club can address vocational needs in your community. What skills do your members have that could change someone's life? How can your networks open doors for young people? What partnerships can create sustainable jobs?

Let integrity guide you. Let The Four-Way Test light your path. And let the young people in California and the multitudes worldwide who need job skills remind you why vocational service matters. Let us celebrate putting our professional skills to work for humanity with integrity at the heart of everything we do.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International President

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

Empowering our youth with life-saving knowledge is one of the most meaningful forms of service we can offer. The First Aid and CPR Training Seminar held at Leyte Progressive High School reflects the Rotary Club of San Juanico's commitment to building not only educated students, but prepared and responsible individuals.

When 170 young learners gained the skills to respond to emergencies, they gained more than technical knowledge—they gained confidence, awareness, and the ability to potentially save lives. That is a powerful investment in our community's future.

I extend my sincere gratitude to the Tacloban Chamber Volunteer Fire Brigade Association Inc., EMT Trainer Sir Rey Glenn Veruen, and School Principal Ma'am Gestia Lynn Amor S. Paa for their collaboration and dedication. Through partnerships like these, we strengthen community preparedness and promote a culture of safety and responsibility.

At RCSJ, we believe that service is not only about meeting needs—it is about empowering people. By equipping our youth with essential skills, we help build a safer, more resilient society. Together, let us continue to serve, educate, and uplift.

WINSTON U. YAO CABIGON

President, RY 2025-2026

JANUARY HIGHLIGHTS

RCSJ LEADS FIRST AID AND CPR TRAINING FOR 170 STUDENTS AT LEYTE PROGRESSIVE HIGH SCHOOL

On January 29, 2025, the Rotary Club of San Juanico (RCSJ), in partnership with the Tacloban Chamber Volunteer Fire Brigade Association Inc., held a First Aid and CPR Training Seminar at Leyte Progressive High School, attended by 170 students.

The program aimed to strengthen health awareness, youth empowerment, and community preparedness, equipping students with vital life-saving skills. Led by EMT Trainer Sir Rey Glenn Veruen, the seminar featured hands-on demonstrations and simulations covering CPR, choking response, wound management, and first aid techniques.

RCSJ expressed gratitude to School Principal Ma'am Gestia Lynn Amor S. Paa for her support, which ensured the seminar's success and highlighted the school's commitment to holistic education and student safety.

By uniting civic groups, emergency responders, and educators, the initiative showcased the power of partnership in building resilient communities. True to its mission of service above self, RCSJ continues to empower youth with the confidence and readiness to act—because in emergencies, knowledge saves lives.
