RI PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

Shoki Wafula did not know what to expect when he was forced to leave his birth country of Uganda for South Africa. What he found was a Rotary community that welcomed him with warmth and friendship. That experience inspired him to help create a Rotaract e-club where young leaders from around the world could connect, develop their skills, and serve together.

Today, that community includes members across multiple continents who collaborate on leadership development, peacebuilding, and service initiatives. For Wafula, the experience reinforced the lesson that meaningful service begins with people who feel connected, valued, and empowered to lead.

His story reminds us why Youth Service Month is so important. Through Rotaract and programs like Rotary Youth Exchange, young people build leadership skills, develop global understanding, and discover the impact they can make through service.

Rotary's Action Plan calls on us to enhance participant engagement. At its heart, that goal asks a simple question: How can we ensure that participation in Rotary is meaningful and fulfilling for everyone? Youth programs and Rotaract provide a powerful answer.

When clubs mentor Rotaractors, host exchange students, or support youth leadership initiatives, they create opportunities for members to share their experience in ways that feel personal and rewarding. These connections deepen members' sense of purpose and strengthen the bonds within our Rotary family.

They also create lasting pathways into Rotary. Thousands of young people complete Rotary programs each year, and they carry those experiences with them throughout their lives. Many remain eager to stay connected.

Organizations such as Rotex International, an association of former Youth Exchange students, help Rotary program alumni continue serving as mentors, leaders, and advocates for our youth programs. As Rotex co-founder Hans Lee wrote in a recent reflection on Youth Exchange alumni, "exchange doesn't end when you return home."

When we welcome these young leaders into our clubs and activities, we strengthen the continuity of Rotary across generations. During Youth Service Month, I hope every Rotary club reflects on how youth programs can enhance engagement for new and longtime members. Collaborate on service projects and invite youth voices into your planning and decision making.

Rotary's message to the world is that we can Unite for Good. Youth programs show us how that happens in practice — when generations come together, share ideas, and work side by side in service. When we invest in young people, we are not only shaping future leaders. We are building a stronger, more connected Rotary today.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International President

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

The Rotary Club of San Juanico Tacloban concludes the month of May with a series of significant developments and commemorations that reflect both its continued growth and strengthened presence in the community.

A key milestone this month was the formal induction of the Satellite Club of San Juanico Heartland, marking an important expansion of the Club's reach and membership base. This development signifies a strategic step toward extending Rotary's impact by engaging more individuals in structured service and leadership opportunities under the Rotary framework.

In addition, the Club unveiled a newly installed marker outside the clubhouse, serving as a permanent symbol of its identity, presence, and commitment to service in the community. This installation reinforces the Club's physical and institutional presence while standing as a reminder of its ongoing mission and legacy.

Complementing these milestones were public-facing initiatives such as the installation of a billboard and mural, both of which helped strengthen visibility and awareness of Rotary's role in community service and engagement.

The Club also participated in district-level activities, including DISCON, where members engaged with fellow Rotarians, shared experiences, and reaffirmed their commitment to Rotary's ideals of fellowship and service.

Collectively, these activities define May as a month of expansion, visibility, and reinforcement of identity for the Rotary Club of San Juanico Tacloban. As the Club moves forward, it continues to build on these milestones with a sustained commitment to purposeful action and community impact under the guiding principle of Service Above Self.

WINSTON U. YAO CABIGON

MAKING SERVICE VISIBLE: FROM DIGITAL SPACES TO PUBLIC LANDMARKS

The Rotary Club of San Juanico Tacloban advanced its Public Image Campaign this month through a coordinated effort across digital platforms and on-site installations, strengthening Rotary's visibility in both online and physical spaces.

Digitally, the Club sustained consistent content sharing that highlighted its values, projects, and service initiatives, ensuring continued engagement and awareness beyond the immediate community.

On the ground, visibility was further reinforced through key installations, including a billboard, a mural, and a newly installed marker outside the clubhouse—each serving as a tangible expression of Rotary's identity and commitment to service within the community.

Together, these efforts created a unified campaign that bridges digital storytelling with public space presence, reinforcing the Club's mission of making Rotary more visible, accessible, and embedded in everyday community life.
