Invocation

Dear GOD of infinite wisdom, in Your mysterious and inscrutable ways, You have bestowed upon us a very fundamental power called freedom.

We humbly beseech You to grant unto us true understanding of freedom; that it is not only a privilege but also a responsibility. Make us realize that freedom is something divine within us, so that it impels us to seek the truth, to aim at perfection, and to arrive at perfect union with You, our God.

We know that freedom is also about rights. We can only exercise rights in relation to others. Freedom therefore entails respect for others. Teach us then to reach out to others in charity and in the spirit of fellowship, with good will and transparency.

Freedom leads to diversity and a deep respect for what makes us different from one another. Dear Father, grant unto us this unity in diversity which is what freedom brings, a unity that will set us free. Amen.

Rotary Information...

Rotary Institutes

Each year, past, present, and incoming district and senior leaders attend Rotary institutes to share information, build connections, and exchange ideas about Rotary International and The Rotary Foundation. The institutes usually meet for three to five days, and the program includes:

- An update on The Rotary Foundation and its programs
- A report on our polio eradication efforts
- A five-year forecast presented by a director or other Board representative
- An open forum where participants can make recommendations to the Board
- Local and international speakers sharing information on relevant topics
- A chance to network, reconnect with friends, and find inspiration for continuing your service and leadership in your community
- Entertainment and social outings

During Council on Legislation years, Rotary institutes also include a session for Council representatives and alternates and a general session for discussing Council proposals.

Organizing the institute

An institute may assemble leaders from one zone, part of a zone, or several zones. The RI president designates one or more conveners to organize each institute and serve as his or her representative there. Past Rotary officers often participate as speakers, panelists, discussion leaders, and institute committee members.

Who can attend

Past, present, and future district governors, RI presidents, directors, trustees, and regional leaders attend Rotary institutes.

The President's Corner

Emmanuel "Noel" Villa-Abrille
Club President

I would like to share an article that I read from rotary.org by Maria Sol Cases which is part of the thrust of our District Governor to focus more on millennial members.

"Rotaractors mark a milestone at International Assembly".

By Maria Sol Cases, Rotaract Club Rosario, Santa Fe, Argentina.

For a week in January, 60 Rotaractors from all over the world actively participated in the International Assembly, Rotary's annual training event for incoming leaders, and it was, without any doubt, a life-changing experience for me. I sincerely believe that week marked a milestone.

I arrived in San Diego, California, USA, with a feeling of uncertainty about the role we would have and the purpose of our visit. Representing roughly 170,000 Rotaractors is not easy. I returned home more committed to Rotary than I was, full of responsibility toward the continuity of the organization and as an ambassador of the present.

Exchanging ideas

The opportunity to exchange views with past and present RI presidents, directors, Rotary International's staff, the 525 governors-elect and the other 59 Rotaractors has completely changed my point of view and my perspective. We debated how to best promote Rotary, expand membership, implement the change we desire, and execute the new strategic plan. We also talked about how to develop action plans and bring back every little thing we worked on at the Assembly to our countries and districts. Moreover, we had an opportunity to share with the governors Rotaract's potential and the way in which they would benefit by working together with these young leaders.

Our presence was announced and talked about during speeches, general sessions, training room and even during conversations in the hotel lobby, at lunchtime, dinner and in the elevator. Rotarians asked for our opinions and ideas. They listened to us with great interest.

During the entire event, we exchanged ideas on flexibility, innovation, new models of membership, and adaptability. We discussed ways to increase our impact, manage meaningful transitions from Rotaract to Rotary, expand our reach and better engage our members.

Just the beginning

This is my fifteenth year in the Rotarian family and I have never felt as enthusiastic as I feel today in relation of the initiatives implemented by Rotary International to guarantee the sustainability of the organization for the years to come.

What happened during the Assembly is just the beginning. We feel more connected and inspired than ever before, and have been sharing the topics developed at the Assembly with our members. We have so much to do and much more is yet to come.
