Invocation

All that I have is yours. Think of the wonder of those words, and then let your consciousness expand so that you can accept them and know the true meaning of them. See them become reality in your life, and never again accept any limitations, for all my promises will come about; they are not vain promises. Simply hold on in faith, and never at any time let your faith waver. Everything comes to those souls who wait upon me and put their whole faith and trust in me. Behold wonder upon wonder unfold before you. Recognize the wonder in the little things in life as well as the big ones. Open your eyes so that you miss nothing; open your heart and keep the love flowing. Love attracts love. Every soul longs to be loved, so why not give love, and as you give so shall you receive. But learn to give freely without any strings attached, and enjoy life to the full.

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The development to acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

FOUR WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1st Is it the TRUTH?
- 2nd Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3rd Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4th Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity of service;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to the society;
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

The President's Corner

Bertel Ingmar Bertelsen
Club President

My Fellow Rotarians,

I have talked with a couple of members regarding our weekly meeting and I think its good in this time of change to look at where we will eat at our weekly meetings. Do we really need to have a place with status for our weekly meeting? isn't our reputation as a rotary club enough? We see that with other clubs in Davao surrounding us who have stepped down from the big name hotels and only use them for a special occasion like an induction or a special event. Next to that I think it is also good for attracting younger members that the price of the weekly meal will not be that high and restricted in always a three course meal. I have seen that a lot of younger members do not eat that much and that one plate is enough for them.

Rotary Information...

Supporting the environment becomes a new area of focus

The Rotary Foundation Trustees and Rotary International Board of Directors have added a new area of focus: supporting the environment.

More than $18 million in Foundation global grant funding has been allocated to environment-related projects over the past five years. Creating a distinct area of focus to support the environment will give Rotary members even more ways to bring about positive change in the world and increase our impact.

Supporting the environment becomes Rotary's seventh area of focus, which are categories of service activities supported by global grants. It joins peacebuilding and conflict prevention; disease prevention and treatment; water, sanitation, and hygiene; maternal and child health; basic education and literacy; and community economic development.

Grant applications for projects will be accepted beginning on 1 July 2021. Gifts and commitments from Rotarians and others will be sought to provide global grant support for the new area of focus. More information about this new area of focus will be announced soon.
