Invocation

Loving Father, You made men and women to be social beings, to live and work together, to relate with one another, for “no man is an island.”

We ask You, in Your loving kindness, to bless this group of people who have joined together by a common bond to promote the common welfare of all its members. You said: “Where two or three are gathered in My name, There I am also in their midst.”

Teach us, dear Father, to learn the simple truths that many heads are better than one; that the greatest benefit of the cooperative is the educational value. It is a practical training in democratic living where everyone has a voice and equal voting power; that it is primarily a service and not for profit only; that it builds character, encourages thrift and productive living. AMEN.

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The development to acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

FOUR WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1st Is it the TRUTH?
- 2nd Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3rd Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4th Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity of service;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to the society;
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

The President's Corner

Bertel Ingmar Bertelsen
Club President

To my fellow Rotarians,

We received a request of Mary Jane of the Quirino school for a photo copier machine since the street children do not have a computer. Hopefully we have found one but we will discuss this later. I hope that if we can get one that club members will step up and maybe donate some paper or some money for the ink of this magazine. I write this on tuesday and today I met with the committee regarding the corporate membership. we came after two hours of talk up with the following.

1 primary member
2 alternate
17500 price
everybody needs to be vetted

If the alternate wants voting rights they need to pay RI dues and governors fund.

All need to attend 3 meetings, primary and alternate.
Votes and quorum and holding office only for primary member.
Alternate can attend regular meetings, socials and if they want to join discon or distas that is as a guest.
Advance payment per year.

Maybe later we can bring this to a vote,

Maayong adlaw!

GUIDE TO CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

Do you know a local professional who wants to be part of Rotary, but is worried about having enough time? Do you want to establish a connection or partnership with an area business or corporation? If the answer is yes, corporate memberships might be an option for your club.

WHAT IS A CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP?
 A corporate membership allows Rotary clubs to involve a corporation — or any business, nonprofit, or government entity — in Rotary by offering an alternative membership package to some of its employees. Having corporate members increases the club's membership while expanding its network and visibility in the Offering corporate memberships is not a quick fix to gain more members.
