Invocation

Dear Father, we know that You are present with us at this very moment in this room. Allow us to converse with You as children do with parents. You must have observed how wonderful it is for Rotarians to meet every week in an atmosphere of friendship and joy, sharing and learning about all things that matter most to their lives – their family, their work, and the welfare of their community and their country. You must have noticed ,too, everybody putting his best foot forward, wishing each other well, and extending a helping hand to the needy and the poor. Father, You are most powerful and infinitely persuasive of all – can You not make this spirit and atmosphere prevail amongst our national leaders? That is our fervent prayer. Amen.

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The development to acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

FOUR WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1st Is it the TRUTH?
- 2nd Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3rd Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4th Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity of service;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to the society;
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

Club President

My Fellow Rotarians,

I have a good feeling we can do this in person meeting more often. I know that a lot of members missed seeing each other face to face and I am one of them. I have been reading from reliable news sources that first of all once you had covid you cannot get it again for a long time. They found this out through testing on monkeys but also because of some real life situations involving a fishing boat. I think everything regarding a medicine and a vaccine moves so fast cause of all the joint forces. And that is what we also did regarding polio. We joint together with other strong forces and almost eradicated this disease. Hopefully covid 19 will soon follow this path.

Rotary Information...

Chesley R. Perry: Rotary's first general secretary

Chesley Reynolds Perry, a Spanish-American War veteran and former Chicago Public Library employee, served as Rotary's first secretary and is known as "the builder of Rotary International."

While Rotary's president changes every year, only 12 people have served as general secretary, a role that's equivalent to a chief executive — and at 32 years, Perry served the longest.

In August 1910, the newly formed National Association of Rotary Clubs (now Rotary International) unanimously selected Perry for the role then known as secretary. He accepted the part-time position at $100 per month, with an agreement that the amount of time he'd devote would remain unspecified. By 1912, the job had evolved into a full-time executive role, and Perry's pay was increased.

Perry's own office on LaSalle Street in Chicago, Illinois, USA, served as the first headquarters of the association. By 1911, Rotary had established an office in the First National Bank Building at the intersection of Dearborn and Monroe in Chicago.

Perry concurrently served as editor and business manager of The Rotarian from 1911 to 1928, and he opened Rotary's first international office, in Zurich, Switzerland, in February 1925. He oversaw the expansion of Rotary as it grew during his tenure from 16 clubs in the United States to more than 5,000 worldwide. His title was officially changed to general secretary in 1941-42, his final year in office.

Perry had announced his plans to retire in 1940, but agreed to remain in his post while the organization trained his successor, Philip C. Lovejoy. A number of clubs sought to nominate Perry for RI president in 1942-43, but he declined, saying, "I am gratefully conscious of the high compliment thereby being paid to me."

After retiring, Perry remained a member of the Rotary Club of Chicago, which he'd joined in 1908. But he wasn't done being a leader, and served as club president in 1944-45. In 1954, Rotary offered him the title "secretary emeritus" to honor his years of service, but he again declined, preferring the role of ordinary Rotarian.

Perry died on 21 February 1960 at the age of 87.

Pres Ingmar Bertelsen
RC South Davao

Dear Pres. Inggy:

After having served the club as TRF chair for so many years, I have realized that I do not possess the energy anymore that I used to have in the past. I am very pleased that PP Arthur C. Uy has expressed his willingness to work with me as TRF Committee Co-Chair.

I'm no longer effective as before and because of my age, I'm slowing down in my involvement in TRF seminar/ workshop, like what I missed on Saturday PM. In this light, PP Art & I will share the tasks.

I will continue in the solicitation of Paul Harris Fellow donors while PP Art will be responsible in the handling of other TRF activities and events that would require his presence like on August 15 at the Fundraising & Grants Management Seminar for Rotary clubs.

I know you will understand & grant my earnest request by making both of us co-chairs. Thank you for your kind consideration.
