Invocation

You cannot play a game of tennis just by standing there with a racquet and ball in your hand. You have to raise the racquet and hit the ball over the net. You have to take action. So with faith. You have to do something to prove to yourself that it does work when you live by it. The more you try it and realize that it works, the more confident you become until you are willing to take any step in faith without hesitation because you know we are taking it together, and anything is possible when you are willing to do so. You have to have faith in your ability to swim before you jump into deep water with complete confidence, otherwise you will drown. You have to have faith in the ability to live by faith before you can do it. Faith begets faith. How can you tell whether you can trust me unless you try it and see if it is so?

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The development to acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

FOUR WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1st Is it the TRUTH?
- 2nd Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3rd Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4th Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity of service;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to the society;
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

Rotary Information...

New look, new name for Rotary magazine

In September, you will see some exciting changes to Rotary's flagship magazine. After nearly 110 years, The Rotarian is now called Rotary, a name that recognizes the breadth of the organization's membership — especially the Rotaractors who represent Rotary's future. In addition, the name change supports the organization's strategic goal of growing awareness of Rotary and strengthening our global brand. And as Rotary, the organization's flagship publication better aligns with the 33 regional magazines published around the world.

Our redesign didn't stop at the cover. Inside, we've rethought everything with the goal of better reflecting Rotary's energy and diversity. We worked hard to incorporate the old and new elements into an overall design that enlivens the reading experience and engages as it informs. You will notice more call-outs and more numbers; more charts, graphs, and infographics.

Last fall, when The Rotarian talked with Holger Knaack, we wondered what Rotary might anticipate from his presidency. "Expect something different," he replied. In the months and years ahead, expect exactly that from Rotary: something different — and yet, in the quality of the writing, in our focus on the great achievements of Rotarians and their clubs, and in our celebration of the values that have sustained Rotary since 1905, something entirely the same.

Tell us what you think at yourletters@rotary.org.

The President's Corner

Bertel Ingmar Bertelsen

Club President

My fellow Rotarians,

Lets do a project together. There is a joint tree planting coming up at the end of this month with all the clubs from Davao and it is in Marahan. So we can keep ample distance over there. And meanwhile we can enjoy the fact that we are up in the mountains and out of the city for the first time in a year. So please join us. The trees will be planted a couple of meters apart so that will not be a problem. and the nature will fill us with nice energy which will also release the cobwebs from our minds.

Last Saturday Jane and me had a very enjoyable district training via zoom. It was good to meet other clubs and to hear that we are all affected in the same way by covid. Still we found some pointers that might help us make the meetings more enjoyable.

Maayong adlaw!

Our Guest of Honor & Speaker...

Ms. Chelby Therese Poticano

Chelby Poticano is a Communication Arts graduate from DLSU. Her professional experiences have been with Sales, Marketing, and PR. Now she works as a Sales Development Specialist for Share Treats Innovation Corporation. Share Treats is a young and budding E-Commerce company that was founded in June of 2017. They offer a robust suite of platforms that are designed to digitize traditional gifting and rewarding. In the span of its first two years, Share Treats grew to be the hallmark brand for O2O gifting in the Philippines and continues to develop themselves as the pioneers for this industry.
