Invocation

Dependability is the heart of responsibility. It means you are always at the right place at the right time doing what you know has to be done. You never put off until tomorrow what you know you must do today. When you put your hand to something, you will see it through, no matter what opposition you come up against. You are never discouraged by obstacles, but see them as stepping stones and as challenges to be overcome. You are as steady as a rock because your security and stability are within, and you are not affected by outer conditions and chaos and confusion all around you. Whatever happens, you are not up one day and down the next. That is what it means to be absolutely reliable and dependable, that is being strong and of good courage. As you shoulder more and more responsibilities dependably, you will become stronger and stronger, until nothing is too much for you. Amen.

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The development to acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

FOUR WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1st Is it the TRUTH?
- 2nd Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3rd Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4th Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity of service;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to the society;
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

The President's Corner

Bertel Ingmar Bertelsen

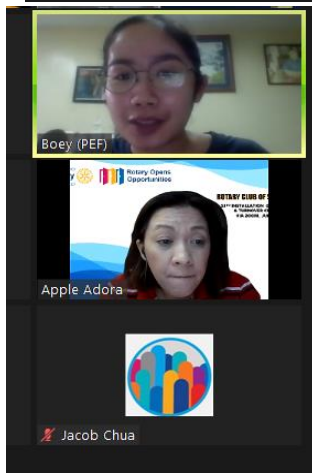

Club President

My fellow Rotarians,

I am calling out for your help. I saw that our meeting last week was very lively. That was not just because of the game but also of the wonderful performance of the eagle. My question to you is, do you also know speakers like this? Maybe you know a child with a gift likes playing chess well that we can interview. You can think out of the box for this. Its more that it makes our meeting more lively. Rest assured, we will still have professional speakers but having somebody different will break our covid zoom rut maybe a bit.
