Invocation

Expand your consciousness and know I am all there is. Then go on and on expanding it, and see the all-inclusiveness of the I am. Feel yourself growing, breaking all bonds which have held you and have stifled your growth and expansion. Just as a tiny seed planted in the earth breaks its outer skin and begins to expand and develop into that which it really is, so let your real self grow and expand until you become what you really are, and behold the wonder of it all. As you do so, know that you are one with all life, now and forever, that never again can you be separated from it, and that I am in you and you are in the I am. You will be able to do all things and know that absolutely nothing is impossible, for it is the I am who is working in and through you. When I am recognized and accepted, anything is possible. Amen.

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The development to acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

FOUR WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1st Is it the TRUTH?
- 2nd Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3rd Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4th Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity of service;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to the society;
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

Rotary Information...

A hurricane force in every phase of Rotary life
This Bahamian Rotarian has been a whirlwind of energy since he began volunteering in high school.

by Anne Stein

Growing up in Nassau, Bahamas, Roosevelt Rolle Jr. remembers how his parents extended a hand to neighbors who needed food or to friends who were without a place to stay. In high school, Rolle joined Interact, and after college, the Rotaract Club of Freeport. "My love for Rotary grew another notch," he says, "because we had so much fun and we did a lot of volunteer work in the community."

After three years in Rotaract, Rolle took a year and a half off from Rotary. "I wanted to be a little more professional and make sure I was mature enough," he recalls. Christine van der Linde, his boss and a longtime member of the Rotary Club of Lucaya, had a suggestion: She and several other Rotarians were forming a new club and thought Rolle would be a great fit. "It was a match made in heaven," he says. On 24 June 2019, the Rotary Club of Grand Bahama chartered with 20 members, including Rolle, then age 29.

The club was barely two months old when, on 1 September 2019, Hurricane Dorian made landfall in the Bahamas, causing billions of dollars in damage. "We had a bunch of new Rotarians and we were so excited to get involved in projects," recounts Rolle. "Dorian became our project."

Rolle and his fellow Rotarians gathered on Saturdays to sort and distribute food. The Rotary Club of Grand Bahama remained involved in the relief work until January.

With the arrival of the COVID-19 pandemic, Rolle and his club turned to projects such as providing meals for hospital workers. He's taking the lessons he learned from his parents and making service central to his life.

The President's Corner

Bertel Ingmar Bertelsen

Club President

My fellow Rotarians,

I am calling out for your help. I saw that our meeting last week was very lively. That was not just because of the game but also of the wonderful performance of the eagle. My question to you is, do you also know speakers like this? Maybe you know a child with a gift likes playing chess well that we can interview. You can think out of the box for this. Its more that it makes our meeting more lively. Rest assured, we will still have professional speakers but having somebody different will break our covid zoom rut maybe a bit.
