Invocation

Pioneers are always needed, those souls who have the strength and courage to forge ahead into the new. They are the ones who have vision and who hold that vision ever before them and see it unfold. But everyone is an individual and therefore cannot be placed in a mould. You must be free to grow and develop and be inspired by those deep inner promptings which stir and move your very being. Live by the Spirit; act by the promptings of the Spirit no matter how foolish those promptings may appear to be. It is far more comfortable to sit back and wait for someone else to make the first move, to take that leap into the unknown. It takes faith and courage to be able to do it; and if you have not the faith and courage to do it, do not try to hold back or stop those pioneers who have. But be eternally grateful, for without them my new heaven and new earth could never be established. Amen.

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The development to acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

FOUR WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1st Is it the TRUTH?
- 2nd Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3rd Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4th Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity of service;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to the society;
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

The President's Corner

Bertel Ingmar Bertelsen
Club President

Hello fellow Rotarians,

Who will it be, who will it be. The mystery is uncovered today. That mystery is who our next president elect will be. I know it already and soon you will also know.

With our Christmas party in the planning, and our line up of speakers we will have a bit more of normalcy coming our way. I think we can all count our blessings and be happy that we are still here and are all doing well despite the turmoil. This is a time of change, just hold on to the love and the best is yet to come. A beautiful dream life is awaiting us if we can learn the lesson that this covid challenge has presented itself on us.

Our beloved pp Norma is also doing well. She is pushing ahead and transporting container vans to the batcave which will be placed over there to serve as an artificial place for the bats to live.

Maayong adlaw!

Our Guest of Honor & Speaker...
