Invocation

As you follow my laws and obey them, your life becomes rich and mightily blessed. Disobey these laws, and sooner or later you will find yourself slipping downhill, until you realize where you have gone wrong and are determined to rectify those wrongs. This is when you have to start putting first things first and when you have to turn away from your waywardness and seek Me and My kingdom. It is not easy to do when you have reached rock-bottom and feel there is no purpose in life. Yet it is what you will have to do. Put your feet on the bottom rung of the ladder and start climbing, no matter how difficult it may appear at the time. As you pull yourself up to the next rung and gradually work your way out of the despair you have sunk into, life will begin to change for you and you will find a real purpose in your life and living. Amen.

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The development to acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

FOUR WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1st Is it the TRUTH?
- 2nd Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3rd Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4th Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity of service;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to the society;
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

Rotary Information...

Take a virtual tour of Room 711

By Rotary Heritage Communications staff

Room 711 on the 1st floor of Rotary headquarters in Evanston, Illinois, USA.

Each year, thousands of visitors to Rotary headquarters experience Room 711, a recreation of the office where, on 23 February 1905, Paul Harris met with three acquaintances to start a club based on "mutual cooperation and informal friendship."

The original office was located in the former Unity Building on Dearborn Street in downtown Chicago. In 1980, local Rotary members rented it and gathered period furnishings and fixtures to re-create the look and feel of an early 20th century office. Later, they organized the Paul Harris 711

Club to continue supporting the room and the story it tells. When the Unity Building was set to be demolished in 1989, they dismantled the room and arranged to rebuild it later at Rotary world headquarters.

The room was initially recreated on the 16th floor of One Rotary Center. We relocated it to the first floor as part of a remodeling in 2014, improving access for visitors who come to Evanston.

We wanted to give our members around the world an opportunity to experience the room without traveling to Evanston so we created a virtual tour.

Virtual visitors can guide themselves through the room and click on select items to learn about them and about Chicago during the era when Paul Harris moved to Chicago and started Rotary. The interactive tour isn't just for people who can't come to Evanston. It offers elements not available onsite, such as audio recordings of Paul Harris (hint: click on the phone). Armchair travel is encouraged!

This year, 23 February, marks the 114th anniversary of Rotary. Read more about Room 711 and take the virtual tour.

This is one of several spaces at Rotary headquarters that visitors can walk through to learn more about Rotary.

The President's Corner

Bertel Ingmar Bertelsen
Club President

Hello fellow Rotarians,

We had a very successful project in Maco. My kids even gave a lot of their toys that they did not use, proving that they will be future Rotarians. It was interesting to see the house and school of the incoming president's wife. We also had a good talk with the DepEd over there and we decided that our secretary Jane will go with them into the mountains to assess what the other needs are regarding the students.

I am talking with our speaker of last week about strengthening the relationship. Many hands make light work. They have people on the ground and we can bring other things to the table.
