OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The development to acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

FOUR WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1st Is it the TRUTH?
- 2nd Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3rd Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4th Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity of service;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to the society;
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

Invocation

Father, thank You for every seat that has been filled here, today. For each mind and heart that fills the presence of this room, we thank You. Only You truly know what we are setting out to accomplish today. We have an idea, a vision, hints, and daily instructions. We have talents, abilities, and time to work. However, only You can see in perfect detail the end of every beginning. Every project, every season, every life. Nothing is ever in vain, for even mistakes and missteps are used for good.

Your righteousness transcends all our efforts and understanding. Forgive us for our pride. The pride that puffs us up and the pride that threatens to unqualify us. Strengthen our confidence in who You have made us to be. Set us free from comparison in order to work together efficiently.

Amen..

ROTARY HYMN

*I want to be a Rotarian for the world
Make the Rotary flag as a flag of peace unfurled
I shall serve my community
Help achieve universal unity*

*Through Rotary I shall dedicate my all
World understanding shall be my cherished goal
With the four-way test, I'll pursue my quest
And if I in a way help obtain peace in the world
I shall not have lived in vain*

*I observe service above self
Lend a hand to all who need my help
I'll get my spouse to involve in Rotary
And in Rotary ways I will bring my family*

*With the four way test, I'll pursue my quest
And if I in a way help obtain peace in the world
We shall not have lived in vain*

*Build a bridge for tomorrow's youth
Strengthen by nothing but the truth
Let's join our hands there's no reason to will divide
We shall all understand why the good Lord is our guide*

*With the four way test I'll pursue my quest
And if I in a way help obtain
Peace in the world*

*We shall not have lived in vain
Peace be achieved we shall not have live in vain*

Rotary Information...

Conference highlights Rotary's commitment to Peacebuilding

Peacebuilders from around the world came together before the 2022 Rotary International Convention not only to reflect on Rotary's extraordinary response to conflict this year, but to strongly reinforce our commitment to creating environments where peace can flourish.

The Rotary Presidential Conference Houston: Serve to Bring Peace, 3-4 June, began with recognition of Rotary's support for peace in Ukraine and emphasized the effect that Rotary's vast network has had in providing rapid humanitarian relief in the country and to millions of people who have fled their homes.

Rotary General Secretary and CEO John Hewko, whose parents were born in Ukraine, spoke during the opening session about Rotary's Disaster Response Fund and how donors swiftly contributed more than $15 million to provide Ukrainians with water, food, shelter, medicine, and clothing.

"In the midst of this terror, destruction, and loss of life, we see extraordinary acts of kindness, humanity, and dedication," Hewko said. "And this gives me, and I hope each one of you, great optimism for our great organization and for our future."

Hewko's parents emigrated to the U.S. state of Michigan after World War II. His father, Lubomyr "Lu" Hewko, joined the Rotary Club of Clarkston, where he organized several projects to help Ukrainians. After Ukraine declared its independence in 1991, Lu Hewko helped charter the first Rotary club in the capital, Kyiv. John Hewko, a charter member of that club, lived in Ukraine in the 1990s and helped draft the country's new constitution.

Following Hewko's remarks, Myroslav Gavryliv, a member of the Rotary Club of Lviv, Ukraine, spoke about how clubs in the country have mobilized to coordinate incoming relief supplies and how members are assisting their neighbors. He was among several Ukrainian members taking part in the convention.

This was the capstone of six presidential conferences around the world and gave participants a chance to network with other peacebuilders and hear from people who are engaged in peacebuilding in many different ways.

ShelterBox CEO Sanj Srikanthan discussed how Rotary and ShelterBox, which are partners in providing disaster relief, work together in responding to crises of all kinds.

Azim Khamisa, an author and activist, spoke about founding the Tariq Khamisa Foundation after his son was killed by a gang member in 1995 while delivering pizzas. The foundation is driven by the principles of restorative and social justice to help people choose forgiveness and compassion rather than revenge and bitterness.

Other speakers included Dr. Gary Slutkin, the founder of Cure Violence Global; Julia Roig, the founder of The Horizons Project; and Kiran Singh Sirah, a past Rotary Peace Fellow and president of the International Storytelling Center.

The Rotary Peace Fellowships allow up to 130 dedicated leaders a year to train to become effective catalysts for peace. The Rotary Positive Peace Academy, created in partnership with the Institute for Economics and Peace, introduces people to the framework of peace being more than just the absence of violence.

Peace is a cornerstone of Rotary's mission and is inherent in all the work that our organization does, said Celia Cruz de Giay, chair of the presidential conference in Houston and a past Rotary International vice president.

At the closing session of the peace conference, Rotary International President-elect Jennifer Jones joined the chief executive of UNICEF USA, Michael Nyenhuis, in announcing a partnership to empower girls. The issue has been one of RI President Shekhar Mehta's presidential initiatives and will remain a focus for Jones.
