OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The development to acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

FOUR WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1st Is it the TRUTH?
- 2nd Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3rd Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4th Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity of service;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to the society;
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

Invocation

Almighty and Loving Father, it is with very great pleasure that we invite You to join our club in welcoming and honoring the mother of District 3860, Governor Lilu Aliño and her team. Your divine presence during this official Governor's Visit will certainly be an added honor.

We beseech You to continue giving your protection and great care to Governor Lilu and her team. Please always bestow upon them good health and great stamina especially after those extremely hectic inaugural meetings and inductions. And now, without glitter and glamour of the induction night, they face a second round of backbreaking business meetings and serious discussions.

For this reason, we also entreat You to bestow upon all the members of our club the spirit of generous hospitality, warm fellowship and active cooperation so that the Governor's Visit will be more pleasant, fruitful, rewarding and truly memorable.

Finally, we sincerely thank You, Loving Father, for this opportunity to break bread with our beloved Governor, hear the good news from her, and receive her valuable counsel which, we are sure, will give all of us greater internal strength and greater resolve to pursue our service objectives this Rotary Year. So be it. Amen..

ROTARY HYMN

*I want to be a Rotarian for the world
Make the Rotary flag as the flag of peace unfurled
I shall serve my community
Help achieve universal unity.*

*Through Rotary I shall dedicate my all
World understanding shall be my cherished goal
With the 4-Way Test, I'll pursue my quest
And if I, in a way, help obtain peace in the world
I shall not have lived in vain*

*I observe service above self
Lend a hand to all who need my help
I'll get my spouse to involve in Rotary
And in Rotary ways I will train my family*

*With the 4-Way Test, we'll pursue our quest
And if we, in a way, help obtain peace in the world
We shall not have lived in vain*

*Build a bridge for tomorrow's youth
Strengthened by nothing but the truth
Let's join our hands, there's no reason we'll divide
We shall all understand why the good Lord is our guide*

*With the 4-Way Test we'll pursue our quest
And if I, in a way help obtain
Peace in the world*

We shall not have lived in vain

Peace be achieved we shall not have lived in vain.

Building peace in a fractured land

by Orly Halpern

During a meeting of about 50 teenagers in Israel's western Galilee region, students were grouped in pairs and asked to identify how they were similar and different. Although half of them were Jewish and half were Arab, none of them mentioned that seemingly obvious distinction. When asked why, they told a moderator, "We are all human."

The meeting, involving students from four schools in Jerusalem and the western Galilee, was part of a peace education program designed and led by Arik Gutler Ofir, a former Rotary Peace Fellow. It was supported by a 2016 Rotary Foundation global grant and implemented by the Rotary Club of Jerusalem, just one of the club's many peacebuilding initiatives.

The students stayed at each other's homes and learned about each other's food, music, and cultures. The project was so successful that when the grant money ran out, a local education board integrated the initiative — which had been co-sponsored by the Rotary Club of Mönchengladbach, Germany, and supported by Rotary clubs and districts in Australia, Germany, and the United States — into the civics curriculum.

"When you bring children from both sides to get to know each other, you create a situation where the other is not an enemy," says Dan Shanit, a former medical clinician, researcher, and program developer who has served as the Jerusalem club's president twice, most recently in 2021-22. "Enemies are anonymous. They don't have a face. What you want is to know the face."

Since its beginning, the Rotary Club of Jerusalem has focused on peace. The club was chartered in 1929 during a period when the region, including the future state of Israel and what would become the occupied Palestinian territories in Gaza and the West Bank, was under British colonial rule. Most of the charter members were from the city's British elite. Today, the club continues to hold meetings in English.

For decades, its members have met at the Jerusalem International YMCA. With its elegant arches, domes, and tower, the building is a city landmark and a place for finding common ground. Arab and Jewish members were quick to join and within five years, the club had its first non-British president, D.G. Salameh, an Arab who had been vice mayor of Jerusalem. The following year Leon Roth, a Jewish professor of philosophy, became president.

The club's ability to serve as a place where people of all faiths, ethnicities, and political views could find common ground was tested during the war that surrounded the withdrawal of the British and the creation of the state of Israel in 1948. The fighting split the city between Israeli and Arab control, with Arabs to the east and Jews to the west and barriers between them. The YMCA was on the Israeli side of the city.

"When the war ended, Jerusalem was divided," Shanit says. "Most of the Arab members had lived in the wealthy neighborhoods in the west side of the city and were expelled or fled." As a result, the club lost its Arab members.

War returned in 1967 when Israel attacked neighboring Arab states and conquered East Jerusalem, along with the Arab territories of the West Bank, the Gaza Strip, and the Golan Heights, and put Palestinians under military occupation. Jerusalem was whole again, and people could travel freely. But the Rotary club that had formed in East Jerusalem soon dissolved, and the Palestinians there did not want to join the Rotary Club of Jerusalem, located on the Israeli west side of the city.

Rizek Abusharr, 86, who first learned of Rotary while working at the YMCA as a youth director in the 1950s, says he was one of the few Arab members of the Jerusalem club when he joined it about 40 years ago. He felt welcomed and became both president of the club (in 1987-88) and the director general of the YMCA, an oasis amid the conflict between Israel and the Palestinians. "Outside there was anger and inside there was peace," he recalls. "We kept the YMCA and the Rotary club above politics, so that Jews, Christians, and Muslims could all stand on equal footing. That's what Rotary is about." But it wasn't easy.

"The hardest job of the club was being the program director," says Abusharr, who remained a member until moving to California and joining the Rotary Club of Claremont in 2007. "You had to find a speaker who didn't speak about something divisive. We were living Rotary's Four-Way Test as much as humanly possible."

For many years the YMCA has been home to what it calls a "peace kindergarten," where it teaches Israeli and Palestinian children about each other's holidays in both Hebrew and Arabic. The Jerusalem club became a key supporter of the school, providing scholarships to the children's families and building a playground on the roof.

Amid the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, the club currently has no Palestinians among its 22 members, but it remains international, reflecting the presence of nongovernmental organizations and other global institutions in the region to address conflict. In addition to native-born Israelis, the club has American, Dutch, German, and Nigerian members. One member joins meetings online from her home in Hawaii.

And the club's focus remains peace. In recent years, it has implemented its peace education initiative for Jewish and Arab youth as well as a project that provided medical assistance to Palestinians. With the help of a global grant, the club arranged for Palestinian children with congenital heart problems to receive heart surgery at a hospital in Jerusalem.

This year, the club participated in a project that provides training in advanced trauma life support to Palestinian and Israeli surgeons at Israeli hospitals. The initiative, which is supported by a global grant, is a partnership with Project Rozana, which helps ill Palestinian children and trains Palestinian health care professionals. The grant is sponsored by the Rotary Club of Holon, Israel, and the Rotary E-Club of District 7610, Virginia, and is supported by other clubs in Israel, Australia, Canada, and the United States.

The latest Jerusalem club initiative is a traveling theater show by five Jewish and five Arab actors who perform at schools and in the street, in both languages. A sister club, Wiesbaden-Kochbrunnen in Germany, supported the effort by raising money. "Theater is the perfect platform through which you can convey a message about how to deal with the conflict," says Shanit.

The President's Corner

Virgie Albaera

Club President

On behalf of the members of Rotary Club of South Davao, I take this honour to welcome you District Governor Lilo Aliño to this fellowship on your official visit to our club.

We were very honoured that you made time to visit our club Gov. inspite of your hectic schedule. You have demonstrated to us what a Rotary leader should be. Putting the clubs and the Rotarians first.

In Rotary, no member is ever more important than any other member. Some of us have greater responsibility, but no one has greater value. Each club member is equally a part of Rotary and equally a part of Rotary's future.

We Rotary Club of South Davao, are working our usual hard way to ensure we respond and contribute to the attainment in the key target areas of supporting the Rotary Foundation, Membership growth and in building the Rotary brand by showcasing the good deeds of Rotarians.

Let us demonstrate leadership by tolerance and understanding, by unselfishness and integrity, and by our motto of "Service Above Self". Let us focus our service initiatives on literacy which is the escape hatch from poverty.

This is the reason why Rotary Club of South Davao intensified our support to 6 public elementary and secondary schools. The just concluded nationwide Brigada Eskwela 2022 .With the theme "Tugon sa Hamon ng Ligtas na Balik-Aral" our club responded to DEPED's call of support in creating a safe learning environment for the learners, teaching and non-teaching personnel, and community to achieve safety while ensuring the delivery of quality education.

But, we still have many things that needs to be done. I believe the world is capable of so much love and compassion. And it starts with helping one another. It starts with service. It starts with Rotary.

In closing, thank you for giving me this opportunity. Rotary Club of South Davao stand by to serve as we Imagine Rotary 2022-23.
