OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The development to acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

FOUR WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1st Is it the TRUTH?
- 2nd Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3rd Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4th Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity of service;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to the society;
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

Invocation

Almighty God, Thank You for the beauty and majesty we see in Your creation. Thank You for the opportunity to care for the world you have made. We ask that your blessing would rest on this team, that you would give us great vision and enthusiasm for our work. Please bless the efforts of our hands, the bonds between us and the influence of our work in this location and beyond. Lord, as we plan and share together now, may you guide us by your Holy Spirit and lead us into all truth. In Jesus name, Amen.

ROTARY HYMN

*I want to be a Rotarian for the world
Make the Rotary flag as the flag of peace unfurled
I shall serve my community
Help achieve universal unity.*

*Through Rotary I shall dedicate my all
World understanding shall be my cherished goal
With the 4-Way Test, I'll pursue my quest
And if I, in a way, help obtain peace in the world
I shall not have lived in vain*

*I observe service above self
Lend a hand to all who need my help
I'll get my spouse to involve in Rotary
And in Rotary ways I will train my family*

*With the 4-Way Test, we'll pursue our quest
And if we, in a way, help obtain peace in the world
We shall not have lived in vain*

*Build a bridge for tomorrow's youth
Strengthened by nothing but the truth
Let's join our hands, there's no reason we'll divide
We shall all understand why the good Lord is our guide*

*With the 4-Way Test we'll pursue our quest
And if I, in a way help obtain
Peace in the world*

We shall not have lived in vain

Peace be achieved we shall not have lived in vain.

Leveraging expertise: Mediators Beyond Borders International

Addressing conflict through a grassroots process that puts people at the center and involves the whole community is a way to create lasting change — and the approach that's the basis of the partnership between Rotary and Mediators Beyond Borders International.

MBBI collaborates with Rotary clubs and districts around the world on peacebuilding efforts. The group brings its expertise in a mediation process defined by community collaboration and empowerment, and Rotary lends its credibility, trust, and deeply rooted local knowledge.

In partnership, the organizations create opportunities for difficult dialogues and train local facilitators, with a special focus on increasing women leadership in mediation and peacebuilding.

"It's a multiplier effect," says Scott Martin, a founding member of MBBI and Rotary Peace Fellow. "Together, we ask, 'Who else needs to be included,' help affected parties connect to the humanity in each other and themselves and facilitate conversations that can be lifesaving."

MBBI also works regularly with clubs to focus inwards, a program called 'Peace Conversation Facilitation' (PCF) that helps members discuss challenging topics, and builds consensus around issues that affect their respective communities.

"We can each hear about a problem and each have a different understanding of it," Martin says. MBBI can help clubs move beyond talking about an issue to creating the kinds of engagement that are healthy and productive for everyone involved.

Conflict is "an essential part of the human experience," Martin says. The key, however, is to not ignore or sidestep it, but to address it, keep it from escalating into violence, and learn from it. This can transform the energy that drives conflict into more inclusive, constructive interactions, and ultimately safer, more connected, and more prosperous communities.

Martin says Rotary's focus on working alongside affected people, business leaders, and coalescing with communities as a whole is very much in keeping with this ethos. "The new vision for Rotary is inspiring," he says. "It's bringing about change among ourselves and in the community, and measuring that impact."
