OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The development to acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

FOUR WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1st Is it the TRUTH?
- 2nd Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3rd Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4th Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity of service;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to the society;
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

Invocation

Dear Lord and Father,

Thank You that You promise us that where two or three gathered You are there in the midst.

Lord we welcome You amongst us today and celebrate the gift of life that You have lavished upon each of us.

We ask that You would open our ears so that we may hear your voice. Open our minds so that we may receive Your eternal wisdom. Open our spirits so that we may know Your leading and guidance. And open our hearts so that we may receive Your wonderful love.

We ask all this in the glorious name of Jesus.

Amen.

Make the Rotary flag as the flag of peace unfurled
I shall serve my community
Help achieve universal unity.*

World understanding shall be my cherished goal

Lend a hand to all who need my help
I'll get my spouse to involve in Rotary
And in Rotary ways I will train my family*

Rotary Information...

Rotary Brazil has a rich history of taking action

By Susan Hanf

Rotary's presence in South America expanded to Brazil with the chartering of the Rotary Club of Rio de Janeiro on 28 February 1923.

Herbert P. Coates, who earlier had stewarded the creation of Rotary's first club on the continent, was also instrumental in establishing new clubs in the large Portuguese-speaking country. Coates was assisted by several people with knowledge of Rotary and connections to Rio de Janeiro, which was then the capital of Brazil.

Early and unofficial efforts by Richard P. Momsen, former United States Consul-General in Rio de Janeiro, identified enough interested businessmen in the city to start a club in early 1921. His work was put on hold because most potential members were Americans. Rotary leaders felt a new club would be more successful with a greater number of Brazilian members. Additionally, the task of overseeing the creation of the club had been entrusted to Coates.

The following year, American Henry H. Lichtwardt, Executive Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA) of Rio de Janeiro, visited Rotary headquarters during a trip to Chicago. He'd moved to Brazil around 1920 and was interested in seeing a Rotary Club formed there. Headquarters provided Lichtwardt with information about Rotary and encouraged him to assist Coates. After meeting in New York, Lichtwardt and Coates returned, separately, to South America and began making plans.

Under their direction, local businessmen held an informational gathering in December 1922 and appointed Brazilian Herbert P. Moses to chair the organizational efforts. Unlike previously, more than half of the club's 18 charter members were Brazilian. The remainder identified as American (including Lichtwardt), British, Canadian, and Venezuelan. Momsen was not among them but would join within the first year.

Coates and the Brazilian members soon set their sights on São Paulo, 300 miles (483 kilometers) away by train. Coates delegated the responsibility of organizing Brazil's second club to Roberto J. Shalders, who was assisted by fellow member Ismael de Oliveria Maia. On 24 March 1925, Rotary officially chartered the 16-member Rotary Club of São Paulo.

Hosting Rotary

In 1931, the young club in Rio de Janeiro proposed holding the 1933 Rotary International convention there, but wasn't successful. The club's bid for the 1948 convention was accepted, bringing Rotary's annual event to the southern hemisphere for the first time. Oswaldo Aranha, a Brazilian diplomat and past president of the General Assembly of the United Nations, spoke of Rotary as a "denominator of peace." He emphasized that Rotary should use its experience to bring people together and prevent conflict.

São Paulo had the honor of hosting the 1981 convention. Highlights included an appearance by 1979 Nobel Peace Prize recipient Mother Teresa and soccer star Edson Arantes do Nascimento, better known as Pelé. The convention returned in São Paulo in 2015, attracting more than 14,800 participants.

Representing Rotary

Members of Brazilian clubs have served as Rotary International Presidents three times. Armando de Arruda Pereira, of the Rotary Club of São Paulo, was first in 1940-41. In his speech to the 1941 convention, Pereira reflected on war and peace: the closure of clubs in war-torn areas, Rotary's tradition of improving friendship all over the world, and the continued importance of promoting understanding and goodwill among people and nations.

Ernesto Imbassahy de Mello, a member of the Rotary Club of Niteroi, held Rotary's highest volunteer position in 1975-76. He was among the Rotarians who welcomed Rotary founder Paul Harris to Rio de Janeiro during Harris' 1936 visit.

The 1990-91 RI President, Paulo V. C. Costa, was a member of the Rotary Club of Santos, São Paulo. Costa made the environment one of his primary causes, creating a Preserve Planet Earth program to encourage Rotary members to undertake environmental initiatives.

People of Action

Brazilian Rotary members have a long history of practicing Rotary's motto, Service Above Self. In 1930, the Brazilian Director of Public Health recognized the Rio de Janeiro club for its work in combating yellow fever. In the 1940s, the Rotary Club of Santos provided orthopedic equipment for more than 20 children and the Belem club contributed $500 towards the completion of a hospital. In the 1980s, members throughout Brazil raised nearly US$4 million for Rotary's ambitious $120 million PolioPlus campaign.

In 2023, 100 years after the Rotary Club of Rio de Janeiro was founded, more than 56,000 Rotary members in Brazil continue working to create lasting change in their communities and around the world. Follow Rotary Brasil on Facebook to see their stories of impact.

Greetings RCSD members!

March is Water, Sanitation and Hygiene Month.

Our project in Barangay Mapula Paquibato the "Weaving School of Living Traditions" project that aside from it is a livelihood program, we will be installing rainwater harvesting systems, is very timely.

Clean water and sanitation is a human right. When people, especially children, have access to clean water, sanitation, and hygiene, they lead healthier and more successful lives. We don't just provide Water Tank as Rain Water catchment and walk away. Rotary members integrate water, sanitation, and hygiene into education projects. When students of the Weaving School learn about disease transmission and practice good hygiene, they miss less school. And they can take those lessons home to their families, expanding our impact.

Clean water is a basic need for human beings. When people, especially children, have access to clean water, they live healthier and more productive lives. However, at least 3,000 children die each day from diseases caused by unsafe water, which is what motivates us to install rainwater harvesting systems, and teach community members how to maintain new infrastructure.

While very few people die of thirst, millions die from preventable waterborne diseases.

We need to work hand in hand with Davao City Water District of their Water, Access, Sanitation and Hygiene (WASH) proram, to have a bigger impact with the lives of our underprivileged IPs brothers and sisters.

God will bless the works of our hands.

Thank you!

Greetings of peace! Every year, a District-initiated program known as World Rotaract Week commemorates the founding of the first Rotaract club in 1968. World Rotaract Week brings Rotarians and Rotaractors from all over the world together to celebrate the accomplishments and significance of the Rotaract program. This program is also an excellent opportunity to inform members of your community about the amazing work of Rotaract clubs and to give them the opportunity to get involved. This year, Rotary International District 3780 will celebrate it from March 12 to March 19, 2023.

In line with the celebration, the Rotaract Club of Batasan Hills created a foundation service project entitled "Project Purple Pinkie: Linking Lives 1$ at a Time" in partnership with the RID 3780. An online movement inspired by other Purple Pinkie Projects conducted overseas with a goal of spreading awareness about polio and its eradication. This project requires rotaractors and rotarians to donate $1, which is equivalent to the cost of a single immunization, and the rest is encouraged to pay the same amount. Instead of dyeing their pinkies purple the same way with those who have received vaccines, everyone is encouraged to put purple ribbon on their pinkies as a mark of contribution to the End Polio campaign. They would also have to take pictures of their pinkies and post them in their social media accounts while tagging their friends, families, and favorite celebrities to promote and inspire more people to do the same.

This online movement would also involve different social media challenges for rotaractors and non-rotaractors to engage in. This project will last for 5 years from its implementation and the challenges will be held annually. The entries which have been submitted for this project would be judged by the Host Club, District Officers and Past District Rotaract Representatives and the chosen winners of these challenges would be awarded on March 14, 2023 for the regionalized campaign, alongside a seminar about the continuous effort of Rotary Foundation against this disease.

We are, however, unable to orchestrate this event without your assistance. Would you consider joining us in this endeavor and be one of our sponsors? With your support, Project Purple Pinkie will surely be a fruitful success. Kindly see our packages for your perusal.

The organizing committee is very committed to make this project to link and save lives one at a time. Your financial capability will help us achieve our goal through the following:

1. Offer any amount, in cash or kind (please see the Sponsorship Primer attached) that you could sponsor for the rotaractors.
2. Share your experiences about the End Polio Advocacy

We are also open for deals. Kindly send the payment via GCASH 09274341367 to our ISP Mark Justine Babatio.

To signify your support and other queries, you may contact ISP MARK JUSTINE BABATIO at 09274341367 or email markjustinebabatio@gmail.com or our club email rofbatasanhills@gmail.com

Your support is an investment in Rotary and our nation's future – the youth.

Sincerely,

Prepared in behalf of the board of directors:
