Invocation

Almighty Father, at the start of this Rotary Year, we, the members of this club, sincerely pledge our great faith and unwavering allegiance to You, and humbly beg for Your abundant blessings.

Father, we promise loyalty to You that will not waver. As we go forward, we will seek You there. As we look backward, we will remember Your constant love and care. If You put us to the test, we will come forth as gold. We will be steadfast in following Your way and not turn aside. We will treasure in our bosoms the commandments of Your lips and the words of Your mouth.

With You ever on our side, we are sure this will be a good and fruitful year. Amen.

FOUR WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1st Is it the TRUTH?
- 2nd Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3rd Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4th Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The development to acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian engaged in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity of service;
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and to the moral standards of community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation;
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship;
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to the society;
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Adhere to honesty in advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession;
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

Scotsman will take office as president of Rotary International on 1 July

Second Scot to lead the membership service organization will focus on mental health

EVANSTON, III., USA (30 June 2023) — Gordon McNally, member of the Rotary Club of South Queensferry, Lothian, Scotland, will begin his one-year term as president of Rotary International on 1 July 2023.

During his term, McNally will focus on steering the global membership service organization with an emphasis on mental health, recognizing its critical role in community well-being worldwide. McNally aims to create a culture that understands and supports mental health, while working to reduce stigma, increase awareness, and improve access to mental health services. With 1.4 million members in 200 countries and regions, Rotary will continue to actively address mental health as part of its ongoing efforts to tackle the world's most pressing challenges.

"Mental health has often been a less talked-about aspect of wellness. However, in a world grappling with various challenges, it is imperative that we bring mental health to the forefront. Rotary, with its widespread network, has the capacity to foster dialogue and support," said McNally. "By emphasizing mental health, we can make a considerable difference in communities around the world. This is about nurturing humanity for a better tomorrow."

Rotary members—including those in nearly 200 Rotary clubs in Scotland as well as throughout the world—develop and implement sustainable, community-driven projects that fight disease, promote peace, provide clean water, support education, save mothers and children, grow local economies and protect the environment. More than US$5.5 billion has been awarded through The Rotary Foundation—Rotary's charitable arm that helps clubs work together to perform meaningful, impactful service—to support these initiatives over the last 100 years.

As head of Rotary's global network of 46,000 clubs, McNally will also oversee Rotary's top goal of eradicating polio. Alongside its Global Polio Eradication Initiative partners, Rotary has achieved a 99.9% reduction in polio cases, and contributed more than US$2.6 billion and countless volunteer hours to protect nearly 3 billion children from this paralyzing disease.

About Gordon McNally: McNally a graduate of dental surgery at the University of Dundee, owned and operated his own dental practice in Edinburgh. He was the chair of the East of Scotland branch of the British Paedodontic Society and has also served in other charitable organizations including as an ambassador for Bipolar UK and as a patron of the UK-based nonprofit Hope and Homes for Children.

A member of Rotary since 1984, McNally has been president and vice president of Rotary International in Great Britain and Ireland. McNally and his wife, Heather, are Major Donors and Benefactors of The Rotary Foundation. They are also members of the Bequest Society.

About Rotary: Rotary brings together a global network of volunteer leaders dedicated to tackling the world's most pressing humanitarian challenges. Rotary connects 1.4 million members of more than 46,000 Rotary clubs in almost every country in the world. Their work improves lives at both the local and international levels, from helping families in need in their own communities to working toward a polio-free world.

President's Message

Ester T. Gahol

Club President

This Rotary year's theme "Create hope for the world" is a beautiful theme for me because it gives me a reason to want to accomplish the things that we haven't accomplished yet as a people, community, city and a country. The saying that goes "Habang may buhay, may pag asa (as long as there is life, there is hope.)"

I will ask you, what are these things? What don't we have yet that you hope that we do? So many things I can think of that maybe as Rotarians we can push the envelope and try to make things better for everyone.

To do these ideas of hope that we can make a difference is to have committees to help us get ideas on accomplishing these hopes. I will assign each committee a scheduled meeting to hear about your great ideas.

Since we have only 2 hours for our meeting, I would like us to start at exactly 12: 30 pm and finish at 2 pm. I will try to have a speaker lined up for every meeting because we have a committee that handles that. Isn't that right Rudy Abellana and Jacob Chua?

I do have one hope my fellow Rotarians, that you will help me fulfill the goals I set forth in My Rotary Club Central and you will perform your duties as an officer, director and committee member. I am only good as my members, so please let's be hand in hand in this endeavor.

ROTARY HYMN

*I want to be a Rotarian for the world
 Make the Rotary flag as the flag of peace unfurled
 I shall serve my community
 Help achieve universal unity.*

*Through Rotary I shall dedicate my all
 World understanding shall be my cherished goal
 With the 4-Way Test, I'll pursue my quest
 And if I, in a way, help obtain peace in the world
 I shall not have lived in vain*

*I observe service above self
 Lend a hand to all who need my help
 I'll get my spouse to involve in Rotary
 And in Rotary ways I will train my family*

*With the 4-Way Test, we'll pursue our quest
 And if we, in a way, help obtain peace in the world
 We shall not have lived in vain*

*Build a bridge for tomorrow's youth
 Strengthened by nothing but the truth
 Let's join our hands, there's no reason we'll divide
 We shall all understand why the good Lord is our guide*

*With the 4-Way Test we'll pursue our quest
 And if I, in a way help obtain
 Peace in the world
 We shall not have lived in vain
 Peace be achieved we shall not have lived in vain.*
