INVOCATION

Let us offer thanks for our food, blessings for one another and for absent friends
 Let us be a source of hope for those in need, and contentment for those who are lonely.
 Let us give gratitude for our opportunity to serve Rotary.
 Let the feelings of love, kindness, and a well-directed, yet gentle spirit always be reflected in our actions. AMEN.

ROTARY HYMN

I want to be a Rotarian for the world
 Make the Rotary flag, as the flag of peace unfurled
 I shall serve my community
 Help achieve universal unity
 Thru Rotary, I shall dedicate my all
 World understanding shall be my cherished goal

Refrain: With the Four Way Test
 I'll pursue my quest
 And if I, in a way, help obtain
 Peace in the world
 I shall have not lived in vain.

I observe Service Above Self
 Lend hand to all who need my help
 I'll get my spouse to involve in Rotary
 And in Rotary ways, I will train my family
 (Repeat Refrain – substitute "I" with "We")

Build a bridge for tomorrow's youth
 Strengthened by nothing but the truth
 Let's join our hands, there's no reason we'll divide
 We shall all understand, why the good Lord is our guide
 (Repeat Refrain – substitute "I" with "We")

CODA: Peace be achieved
 So we shall have not lived in vain.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Good evening fellow Rotarians.

Welcome to our 10th regular meeting.

One of the Rotary International order is to grow Rotary. Hence membership shall be given special emphasis in every club each Rotary year. We are challenged to retain the existing members and increase a number as possible.

Last Sept 07 a membership training seminar was held at Roadway located at JP Laurel bajada attended by four members of RC Sta. Ana with Public Image chair Cary Beatisula as one of the keynote speakers during the seminar. In response to that challenge of District 3860 I am equally excited to announce the induction of our new incoming member for our RC Sta. Ana Davao. Tonight, we welcome our new member CIDG Deputy Regional Head and Davao City Team Head Police Major Milgrace C. Driz

I would like to welcome the family and friends of our incoming member. Your presence tonight will be meaningful as you witness the induction of Police Major Milgrace C. Driz to become a vibrant member of Rotary club of Sta. Ana Davao. I am also optimistic as partners from legal department to mention A&R law firm expresses willingness to join our club. It is of great privilege to welcome a generation of young professional timely fits the age target of diverse member.

Last Wednesday September 04, 2019 we had a meaningful project the "Buhay Pahalagahan Komunidad Matulungan Krimen Hadlangan". This is in support to the crime prevention month of PNP which also connects to one of the areas of focus of Rotary which is "Crime Prevention". I just want to thank you all fellow Rotarians for your generosity in sharing your blessings during our activity at Davao City Jail, Maa. To the club members present that day I would like to say thank you so much for your support. Thank you to our government agency partner CIDG headed by Deputy Regional Head and Davao City Team Head Police Major Milgrace Driz and to our legal partners from A&R Law Firm with the presence of Atty. Jalika Mae Buenaventura and Atty. Aelan Arumpak Mamutuk.

It was a meaningful activity to us most especially we brought happiness to our recipient/ beneficiary through gift giving. That simple gift we offer will not totally help their needs, but the emotions and the feeling of acceptance will matter most.

Rotary connects us to people, to our communities and to people who need our help the most. Let us continue our services to our identified beneficiaries and may we invite more friends to become members in Rotary Club of Sta. Ana

Let us enjoy what we are doing and involve our family in creating one family in Rotary.

Truly I am very thankful for all your support.

President Philip C. Dumlao

A Look at the History of the Rotary Club of Sta. Ana Davao

Organization

The dawning of new day in the life of Rotary International in Davao unfolded when 36 prominent men – business executives, captains of industry and top professionals – led by Mr. Sebastian “Anggie” L. Angliongto met in February 1980 to form a rotary club to be named the Rotary Club of Sta. Ana (Davao), the Club for brevity.

Months preceding that historic meeting, Mr. Angliongto was tapped by the pillars of the Rotary Club of Central Davao (RCCD), namely PP Emilio “Miming” Palma Gil, PP Alfonso “Al” Lopez and PP Jose “Peping” Abella, to organize the new club. With his vast experience in developing and managing a world-renown civic group such as the Jaycee International (JCI), which he once served as the world’s executive vice president, Mr. Angliongto readily accepted the challenge.

Through the sponsoring and nurturing of RCCD, the Club was chartered on August 8, 1980 under the jurisdiction of Rotary International (RI) District 3860 with Club Identification No. 17130 issued by the RI.

Core of Charter Members

Mr. Angliongto’s stature in the business community and his known deep involvement in civic work led him to meet and develop friendship with the who’s who in the business sector. They were the very ones whom he had invited, including two prominent Dabawenyos who volunteered to join the Club and be among its core charter members.

Worthy of honor and remembrance in those glory days of the Club were the prominent personas present in that historic organizational meeting. They included Mr. Angliongto, Atty. Wilgefortes Escudero, Atty. Jose Sevilla, Mr. Edmundo N. Madrazo, Mr. Pedro Durano, Atty. Martin Suelto and John Y. Gaisano Jr., all seven of them past presidents of the Davao City Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Inc. (DCCCII), the sole organization of Davao City’s top businessmen, traders, industrialists and agriculturists. To this day, the Club enjoys the distinction of being the only club led by seven past presidents of the Davao City Chamber.

Mr. Henry Tek Seng Lim, owner of the NCCC Supermarket and known philanthropist, Mr. Dante Abaca, senior vice president of United Coconut Planters Bank and hotelier, and Mr. Roman J. Cuison Jr., a practicing lawyer and owner of the Cuison Hotel, were also part of the core group.

Also worth mentioning is the fact that Atty. Escudero and Atty. Sevilla had served as district governor and district deputy governor, respectively, of Lions Club International, before volunteering to join the Club.

The Club had elected Mr. “Anggie” Angliongto as Charter President and Atty. “Joe” Sevilla as Charter Secretary.

Later in the Club’s existence, two of its past presidents – PP “Mart” Suelto and PP Pedrito “Pedring” Salvador were elected members of the Davao City Council, the law-making body of the city.

In the span of 14 years from the Club’s chartering date, 12 of the charter members had the opportunity to lead the Club as Presidents.

Meeting Places

The venues of Club’s weekly meetings during the last 36 years were the following places:

1. Chicken’s Delight at Villa-Abrille St., every Saturday at noon time.
2. Cuison Hotel along J.P. Laurel Avenue in Bajada, every Saturday at noon time.
3. Hotel Maguindanao at Claro M. Recto Avenue, every Wednesday in the evening.
4. Grand Men Seng Hotel at Antonio Pichon Sr. Avenue (formerly Magallanes Avenue), every Wednesday in the evening.

As the checkered business history of Davao City would have it, the first three venues are now defunct, save for Grand Men Seng Hotel which has remained the meeting place to this very day.

Projects Undertaken

The Club has been the wellspring of meaningful community service projects. Among its award-winning projects is the medical and dental services conducted with regularity in the hinterlands with members of the indigenous tribes as beneficiaries and the scholarships granted to poor and deserving students.
