THIRD:

The application of ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH:

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Fellow Rotarians, Good evening! Last weekend the TRF and Membership Seminar for Mindanao was held at the SotoGrande Davao Hotel. Six of us registered, namely, AG Ed Ang, PDS Cary Beatisula, CSC Art Galendez, Membership Director Boy Batohanon, PND Mel Ambone and myself. I have been a Rotarian for more than ten years and I must say, attending these training programs keep me updated with Rotary International's latest trends and strategies as these keep changing over the time. I do hope that our next generation of leaders especially the elected future presidents, will strive to attend Rotary's training to prepare themselves for the future.

October is Rotary's busiest month. Rotary Day of Service: Pink October will start with a motorcade which will end at the Waterfront hotel. A forum on breast cancer awareness will follow, with around six breast cancer survivors who will share their stories. By 5 pm the Pink Zumba will commence. Everybody, including your families, are invited to join this fund-raising event. This will happen on Sunday, October 16th. Lastly, to celebrate World Polio Day, let us participate in Patak Polio on October 19th, Wednesday. Our club has been assigned at the Talomo Health Center in GSIS. I do hope RC Sta. Ana Davao will actively participate in the upcoming service activities. See you all!
