SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD:

The application of ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH:

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

Filled with the same spirit of camaraderie and dedication that characterized our recent Rotary Week activities. I want to take a moment to express my deepest gratitude to each of you for your active participation and unwavering commitment to our club's mission of service above self.

Throughout Rotary Week, your enthusiasm, energy, and passion were palpable, driving the success of our various projects and initiatives. From community service projects in the recent flooding and awareness campaign, your tireless efforts truly made a difference in the lives of those we serve. Together, we demonstrated the power of Rotary to effect positive change and create lasting impact in our community.

With this in mind, I urge each of you to mark your calendars and prioritize your attendance at upcoming district and Rotary International events. These gatherings offer invaluable opportunities for networking, collaboration and learning, enabling us to further enhance our skills, expand our horizons, and strengthen our bonds with fellow Rotarians.

As we reflect on the successes of Rotary Week, I am reminded of the importance of our collective engagement in the broader Rotary movement. It is through our active participation in district and Rotary International activities that we amplify our impact and advance the ideals of Rotary on a global scale.

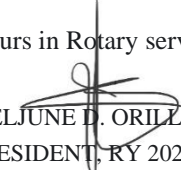

Moreover, by actively engaging in district and international activities, we demonstrate our solidarity with the broader Rotary community and reaffirm our commitment to Rotary's mission of promoting peace, fighting disease, providing clean water, saving mothers and children, supporting education, and growing local economies.

Your presence and support at these events not only contribute to their success but also serve as a testament to our club's dedication to service and our shared values as Rotarians. Whether it's attending training seminars participating in service projects, or representing our club at Rotary conferences, your involvement makes a meaningful difference and helps to further elevate the profile and impact of Rotary Club of Sta. Ana Davao.

I want also to express my sincere appreciation for your ongoing commitment to Rotary and our club. Your passion, dedication, and generosity in updating our dues and giving to those who are in need are the driving forces behind our collective success, and I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to serve alongside each you.

Let us continue to embrace the spirit of Rotary, both locally and globally, as we work together to build a better world for all. Thank you for your unwavering support, and I look forward to seeing you at the upcoming district and Rotary International activities.

Yours in Rotary service,

MELJUNE D. ORILLOSA
