PRESIDENTS MESSAGE...

President Eugene Tan

Slowly, we are catching up with our regular meeting requirements... Welcome to our 7th Regular Meeting!

I am now on my 5th month as your servant leader of our beloved Rotary Club of Tacloban and fortunately by the guidance of the Great Almighty, the club is accomplishing some milestones and serving the community the best way we could do. I am mandated to lead this club for 1 year, and I have to make the most and best of myself in serving you my general membership and the public. Stewardship is not always an easy task every leader carry, but with the active participation and collaboration of the members, things are done on the right perspectives.

Allow me to share my views on STEWARDSHIP. In simple definition, it is a job of supervising or taking care of something such as an organization. Spiritually, stewardship is managing God's blessings God's ways for God's glory. The word STEWARDSHIP serves as my guiding principle in managing or leading an organization such as our Rotary Club of Tacloban. It is a process that involves balancing competing influences and demands. Here are some characteristics that identify good stewards: (Source: Jay Morris: The Wayward Journey)

1) Good stewards are committed to selfless service. They have no desire for power. They do not need to be in charge or exert control over others. They are responsible and accountable without any prompting or prodding.

2) Good stewards believe in sustainability. They understand that they are building value not for themselves but for their customers, members, shareholders or future generations.

3) Good stewards practice inclusiveness. They welcome all into the fold. No one is turned away. They always find a way to bring new blood into the organization.

4) Good stewards embrace innovation and change. They understand that while the organization's principles are unchanging, the means to achieving them are not. They welcome new ideas and fresh perspectives.

5) Good stewards are team players, and they're quick to give others credit. They work together to reach goals.

6) Good stewards believe in communication and being transparent. They gladly seek advice and feedback from their stakeholders.

7) Good stewards always acknowledge and thank the master they serve.

Hope this sharing of mine will benefit each one of you, because I believe every Rotarian is called to be STEWARDS.

Last Tuesday, I celebrated my Golden Birthday and I want to express my sincere appreciation to all the members who gave me a mañanita on the eve of my birthday and for the birthday wishes and greetings that I received through text, viber & messenger messages. I would like to thank Rachele, the wife of Secretary Jocal, that despite the short notice, accepted the challenge of accomodating me 450pcs of food packs. These food packs were offered to the pedicab drivers and homeless persons around the City and to the beneficiaries of Our Missionaries of Charity in Sagkahan. I was assisted by my beloved children, the PCCI-TLI and Pintados Foundation and my Rotary sponsor, PP Ed in the distribution. For Secretary Jocal, a hundred thanks are not enough for not failing me on my equally important requests and favors. This made my Golden celebration of life, more meaningful and memorable as I was able to warm the hearts of the less fortunate. Lastly, I thank Our Daddy God Jesus for the gift of life, family, friendships and love.

Transforming President

SECRETARYS MESSAGE...

Secretary Jonathan Calvara

Good day to all Fellow Rotarians,

"Love is not patronizing and charity isn't about pity, it is about love. Charity and love are the same -- with charity you give love, so don't just give money but reach out your hand instead."
— Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Over the past days, I have felt the generosity of a true Rotarian in our beloved Rotary Club of Tacloban.

First, we had the fund campaign for our "OPERATION BULIG" project wherein we raised money for the benefit of those who were victims on the onslaught of Typhoon Rolly. This happened during week 1 of November.

Second, after our Rotarization and 6th regular meeting last November 12, our baby Rotarians had pledged to The Rotary Foundation. I am guessing how their hearts was influenced in donating to the foundation. The following are:

1) The impact of Rotarization, how they were informed on what is Rotary. Thanks to PP Lito for the detailed presentation.

2) The message of our Guest Speaker, DILG R8 Dir. Karl Caesar Rimando. He did not discuss only about updates of his department but he rather spoke more of how Rotary molded his personality growth and development. The 4 Way Test was his guiding principle of every decision he makes being a public servant.

3) And of course, our Baby Rotarians have a natural generous heart. We can reflect here on the quote above by Mother Theresa. God blesses our generosity a hundred folds when we give by heart.

Third, the new prospect member orientation we had in Baybay City last Sunday was also a manifestation of generosity of being a Rotarian. The Rotarians present share their golden time considering it was a Sunday, a Family Day. It was a gesture of generosity, physically, mentally and financially. Physical, for being present; mentally for imparting knowledge to the new prospects of What is ROTARY and TRF; and financially because we turned-over an amount of Php10,000.00 as a seed money or start-up fund for the proposed club extension in Baybay City.

Fourth, our ever active, hands-on and transforming President Eugene recently celebrated his Golden Birthday. In as much as he wanted a grand celebration, he opted not to because of our current pandemic situation. Rather, he and his children roamed around the City to distribute 450pcs of food packs to pedicab drivers and to the Missionaries of Charity located in Sagkahan. A moving kindness and generosity by Tan Family. It was very warming seeing some of the recipients wear their beautiful smile as they receive the food pack.

Yours in Rotary Service,

Jocal

ROTARY INFORMATION...

PE Bobby Andrade

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENTS MESSAGE FOR NOVEMBER

We all know Rotary's tremendous power to transform our communities and ourselves. However, in every community, people have been left out, and we have not made a strong enough effort to reach them. The RI Board of Directors is taking action to make Rotary more welcoming and diverse. We formed a task force to promote diversity, equity, and inclusion to help clubs attract new members regardless of gender, race, religion, age, or other factors. This will help us speed up the change we all want and need. The selection of Jennifer E. Jones as Rotary president for 2022-23 — the first woman to lead our organization — is another step in this direction. At the grassroots level, clubs drive inclusion and diversity. Alia Ali — who serves on the board of directors at the Big West Rotaract Multidistrict Information Organization and is a Rotary Youth Leadership Awards alumna and past president of the Rotaract Club of Surrey-Newton, British Columbia — offers her perspective.

I still remember the relief I felt as a RYLA participant four years ago. I had finally found my people: people who cared as much as I did. All over the world, Rotary has the same heart. We serve our communities and take action where others feel paralyzed by the size and scope of a problem.

Let's continue that spirit, especially when the conversation is difficult. Racism, prejudice, and discrimination take on different forms but exist in every country, in every city, and in every person. How do we root it out?

As a diversity, equity, and inclusion consultant, I help organizations create a culture that empowers and attracts everyone using the power of empathy. When we feel with others as if they were ourselves, we cannot hold prejudice in our hearts. When every child reminds you of your own child, when every woman or man reminds you of your mother or brother, you start seeing the world differently. We can apply The Four-Way Test through the lens of empathy. Are we building goodwill and friendship with everyone in our area, including women? Are things fair and beneficial to people of all ages? Who has to make choices that you don't have to make?

I made a heartbreaking choice between Rotary and my religion when a Rotary convention was held during Ramadan. I wondered: When we ask if this is fair and beneficial to all concerned, did that not include me as a Muslim? Would the convention ever be held over Easter? Only by asking difficult questions can we begin the work of creating a more inclusive and diverse Rotary.

We already connect so many people across the world. Imagine the possibilities when we bring even more people along for the ride. That's the future of Rotary I want to see: one where we are unstoppable in our service, relentless in our kindness, and intentional in the change we want to see.

Rotary has a big enough heart. If we open our door wider, we might find a lot of interesting people with new voices and new perspectives. We already have a variety of clubs offering different styles, cultures, and opportunities — and those who do not feel welcome in any particular club might be great candidates for new clubs created on different models. It's important that we make sure every new Rotary member is a good fit for their club. Rotary Opens Opportunities through diversity.

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The Development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1. Is it the TRUTH?*
- 2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?*
- 3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?*
- 4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?*
