PRESIDENTS MESSAGE...

President Eugene Tan

Greetings my brothers in the Rotary Club of Tacloban.

Welcome to our 9th regular meeting.

The season of Advent is a season of preparation. We look forward to this part of the year to celebrate the birth of Christ. The days before His birth is the time where we meditate on ourselves if we are ready to receive Him.

As Rotarians, there is no one else that would serve as the best example for servant-leadership but Christ Himself. He has shown true leadership when his name and teaching become the very moral foundation of all civilization to date. From all works of life: religion, gender and race. Our Lord's teachings of serving others made it possible for society to flourish. Through serving others, we are able to lead better.

His ultimate sacrifice of death was not a hindrance for His message and it has withstood time. "Love others, as you love yourself." This quote enables leaders to be in touch with their people. Leaders are respected and loved when they show empathy with their charge. Loving others means loving with fairness and justice. One must be firm but gentle. Strict but understanding. Telling them their mistakes and yet with the heart to teach them the truth.

We Rotarians share the same goal with our Lord Saviour, we always seek peace as one of the 7 Area of Focus. Let the advent season this year be one that is fruitful and lead you to be at peace with yourself, others and the Almighty God.

Yours in Servant Leadership,

Rotarian Eugene A. Tan
Transforming President

SECRETARYS MESSAGE...

Secretary Jonathan Calvara

A Pleasant Day to all Fellow Rotarians,

“We cannot live only for ourselves. A thousand fibers connect us with our fellow men; and among those fibers, as sympathetic threads, our actions run as causes, and they come back to us as effects..” — Herman Melville

The inspirational quote above reminds us how Rotary brotherhood and sisterhood works as being a rotarian.

I have joined many prestigious organizations and Rotary International as a global society spells a difference in serving the less fortunate community. Last week, we had a The Rotary Foundation (TRF) seminar and we gained knowledge of why we should donate or give to the foundation. As stated during the seminar, the mission of The Rotary Foundation (TRF) of Rotary International is to enable Rotarians to advance world understanding, goodwill, and peace through the improvement of health, the support of education, and the alleviation of poverty. After my 3 years as an active member of our club, I clearly understand now how the TRF works. With the amount that we donate (little as it maybe), we touch the hearts of millions of mankind worldwide. To our new members, my 2 hand salute for your commitment to share your blessings to the foundation. As the saying goes, “it is better to give than to receive”. God bless every Rotarian’s generous heart.

The brotherhood and sisterhood of Rotary International is somehow strengthen because we share the ideals and principles of our motto “SERVICE ABOVE SELF”. With the The Rotary Foundation (TRF), it transforms our gifts into service projects that change lives both close to home and around the world.

ROTARY INFORMATION...

Rotary International Presidents Message for December 2020

As I look back on 2020, I reflect on how our lives have changed. The global COVID-19 pandemic brought pain and loss to many of us. And for almost all of us, our daily lives, family time, and work also changed this year. But we've made it to the end of this difficult year, not on our own but by reaching out to one another, as we always do in Rotary. With each passing year, I become prouder of our organization.

I will choose to remember 2020 as a year of great change and strength for us; Rotary didn't stop, despite the pandemic. We removed obstacles, found new ways to connect, and embraced new approaches to service, such as online projects and virtual fundraising. I have invited two Rotarians to share their stories about how Rotary grew stronger this year.

When the pandemic shut everything down, our emerging e-club was already providing digital service, including internationally. Fourteen U.S. women and I, members of multiple Rotary clubs, were using WhatsApp to mentor women entrepreneurs in rural Costa Rica, helping them to grow their ecotourism business, RETUS Tours [the subject of the magazine's May cover story, "Nature & Nurture"]. The project has grown, with 30 Rotarians now providing consulting and help with the RETUS website and social media. Most importantly, we continue building relationships and empowering these women to transform their own lives, and we are doing it online. I've even helped one of the women, Rosa, prepare a presentation in English for an online international conference. While our engagement with the Costa Rican women still requires some hands-on activity, the most transformative impacts haven't had to be in person.

— Liza Larson, Rotary E-Club Engage and Rotary Club of Plano East, Texas

I was president of my club when COVID-19 hit, and many members didn't yet have Zoom. Only 10 of our 53 members participated in the first Zoom meeting during the pandemic. I thought that reaching out and getting guest speakers from around the world to engage our members would help. Many Rotary leaders, a Rotary Peace Fellow, and even RI President Holger Knaack visited virtually and spoke to our club. Meeting attendance improved, while we reduced running costs by cutting out meals. Some members who worked outside our city and had missed our meetings even rejoined us. Registering our online meetings on My Rotary enhanced contacts with clubs across the world, and the joint meeting addressed by Holger attracted more than 300 visitors. We also raised more funds as members and visitors contributed to our projects. To continue being flexible for all, we are now offering hybrid meetings. For me, 2020 has been the best year in Rotary as I've made many new friends.

— Blessing Michael, Rotary Club of Port Harcourt North, Nigeria

These stories should give us all reasons to be optimistic about Rotary in the year ahead. We are not just surviving; we are gaining strength. We are discovering how resilient our organization truly is. We are seeing for ourselves how Rotary Opens Opportunities — even during pandemics — to grow, connect, and engage our members and the communities we serve.

From our home in Ratzeburg to yours, Susanne and I would like to bid you and your family the warmest of season's greetings. We can't wait to see the good things that 2021 will bring.

OUR GUEST SPEAKER FOR TONIGHT

Major General Pio Q. Diñoso III Brigade Commander, 301st Infantry Brigade

Maj. Gen. Pio Q. Diñoso III is a graduate of the Philippine Military Academy “Maringal” Class of 1988, holds a Master’s Degree both in Business Administration and in Human Resource Management. He was also able to accomplish the Asia Pacific Program for Senior Military Officers Course in Singapore and a Senior Executive Course on National Security from the National Defense College of the Philippines.

Prior to his assumption as the The Philippine Army’s new 8th Infantry “Storm Trooper” Division Commander, Maj. Gen. Diñoso III mainly led field units in Visayas, particularly by serving as Brigade Commander of 301st Infantry Brigade and as the Battalion Commander of 79th Infantry Battalion, both under the 3rd Infantry Division.

Storm Troopers’ efforts in sustaining peace in Samar and Leyte resulted to several CPP-NPA Terrorist personalities’ neutralization, recovery of enemy firearms and war materiel, and secured stability and development for the communities of the Eastern Visayas Region.

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The Development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
