PRESIDENTS MESSAGE...

President Eugene Tan

Greetings my brothers in the Rotary Club of Tacloban.

Welcome to our 11th regular meeting.

The road of service is one lined with difficulties and trials. One must balance between personal commitments and social responsibilities. The trials start when one has to choose between the two. History and human experience have had these since time immemorial. Worry not for we are in good company. The most successful and the most accomplished has the same difficulties. Let us not forget, it is a matter of prioritizing and achieving balance between the two.

Not many have the opportunity to belong to such an honorable club. We are fortunate enough to have the confidence that our social commitment to the community is shared with those we share the same aim. Take for example giving food to the hungry. You can feed 10 people with your resource. Imagine what 20 of us can do if each can feed 10. Together we can feed 200 people. Pooling our resources creates impact where we can serve more and affect more lives.

Further, do not think that what we are doing is just for the less fortunate. Remember that what goes around, comes around. The very safety and security of our family, property and lives rest in the fact that our society functions well. Take in consideration a teen who has dropped out of school and has no support. In desperation, he might resort into a life of crime. It might not matter much to us but what if the crime committed was against your property, your family or your life? Then we would ask, could we have done something to help him?

So my brothers, do not think that your support, your effort and time spent with the Rotary Club of Tacloban is a waste. Ours is a vocation of love and service to our fellow and eventually to the future of our community and families.

With that, I am sincerely grateful for your commitment and service.

God bless us all!

Yours in Servant Leadership,

Rotarian Eugene A. Tan

SECRETARYS MESSAGE...

Secretary Jonathan Calvara

“Service to others is the rent you pay for your room here on Earth.” — Muhammad Ali

Maybe you have yourself this question: Why I am in in ROTARY? What keeps me to be in this prestigious organization? Ah, maybe because of Rotary International’s motto: “SERVICE ABOVE SELF”!

As Rotarians, our mission for the community is to provide service to others, promote integrity, and advance world understanding, goodwill, and peace through our fellowship of business, professional, and community leaders. These are stated in our Object of Rotary and is always recited at the beginning of every Rotary official functions or meetings. Every Rotary Club and every Rotarian assumes a responsibility to find ways to improve the quality of life for those in their communities and to serve the public interest.

Service is the very core of Rotary’s character. It promotes Rotary’s appeal and visibility in the community, and why Rotary continues to thrive. Rotarians recognize the importance of giving back to the community. As Rotarians we have the responsibility to find ways to improve the quality of life for those within our communities and to serve the public interest. When we are effective, we not only contribute to the greater good, but also promote Rotary’s positive image.

According to Wikipedia, community service is unpaid work performed by a person or group of people for the benefit and betterment of their community without any form of compensation. Community service can be distinct from volunteering, since it is not always performed on a voluntary basis and may be compulsory per situation.

In Rotary, we aligned our community service to the 7 Areas of Focus which are the following:

- 1) Peace and Conflict Prevention/Resolution
- 2) Disease Prevention and Treatment
- 3) Water and Sanitation
- 4) Maternal and Child Health
- 5) Basic Education and Literacy
- 6) Economic and Community Development
- 7) Supporting the Environment

Let me remind my fellow Rotarians, that on February 3, 2021 (Wednesday), we will be distributing trashcans to select barangays in the City. This project is in cooperation with Philippine Air Force – Tactical Operations Group 8. The project is in consonance with the 7th AOF, wherein cleanliness and orderliness promote a better environment.

God bless us all Rotarians!

Yours in Rotary Service,
Jocal

ROTARY INFORMATION...

PE Bobby Andrade

JANUARY IS ROTARY'S VOCATIONAL SERVICE MONTH

Vocational service can mean many things to many people. In Rotary, Vocational Service means holding ourselves and our businesses to the highest ethical standards. As the 4 way test instructs us, in all we think, say or do . . . Maintaining ethical standards is ever so important in today's society where we prefer to repeat inflammatory discourse rather than engage in discussion to understand opposing views and seek compromise. It is beholden upon us as leaders to set an example for young people and others.

If not Rotarians, then who will set the example? As former Ambassador Andrew Young told us at the Rotary International Convention in Atlanta, "Rotary is the glue that holds civil society together." Be sticky!

Vocational service also means appreciating the various trades and professions, and how each can contribute to making our communities stronger. Think about some of the service projects you have helped organize. Do you do it alone? No! You call in for help. You get an accountant or banker to help with finances, you have sales and marketing people help promote the events, you have trades people help set up and build, and many more experts help in all different ways. But appreciating the differing vocations is not just about bringing in talent to help with projects, it is also about training our youth on the value of various vocations and helping them choose one where they can shine!

Vocational service also means networking and doing business with other Rotarian. Before Rotary became the leading service organization in the world, it started as a business networking organization. There is something special about meeting someone through service and then doing business with them. The confidence you have in their abilities to treat you right and get the job done is unparalleled. Think of new way you can get to know what your fellow Rotarians do in their businesses, and consider doing business with them.

A few other ideas to help promote vocational service:

Introduce a "mini-classification talk" series in which members can give a five-minute talk on their vocations.

Present a vocational award to someone in the community who has exemplified outstanding professional achievement while maintaining high ethical standards. Promote the presentation within the community, and consider making it an annual event.

Invite local experts to present on the vocational needs of the community and develop projects in response to those needs. Possible projects could focus on developing character, providing career information to youth, mentoring small businesses, or organizing workshops that provide employees with new skills.

Sponsor a Rotary Means Business networking event for your communities.

ROTARY INFORMATION...

Rotary and the coronavirus impact: Frequently Asked Questions

COVID-19 VACCINATIONS

Q: Will Rotary have a role to play in COVID-19 vaccinations?

A: Yes. Rotary will tap into its decades of experience in bringing polio to the brink of eradication, to highlight the power and efficacy of vaccines. Rotary's tenacity, strategic partnerships, and innovation can all support the effort to protect communities from COVID-19.

Rotary and its partners at the Global Polio Eradication Initiative (GPEI) recently announced that it is ready to support vaccine introduction and delivery. The group is also committed to equitable distribution of the COVID-19 vaccine and lending its support to ensure that all communities have equal access to vaccines.

More information and resources will soon be available for clubs and districts.

Q: Are the RI Board of Directors and Foundation Trustees taking action in regards to vaccines?

A: Yes, they are. At a recent joint session, the RI Board and Trustees created a joint task force that will develop and execute a plan to encourage Rotary and Rotaract clubs to support vaccinations.

Q: How can Rotary and Rotaractors get involved?

A: There are several ways members can get involved. Members can enhance community education on COVID-19 vaccinations by sharing information from local and regional health authorities and supporting their efforts. They should contact local health departments to determine where assistance is most needed. Moreover, members can connect with local health officials, including World Health Organization and UNICEF where applicable, to advocate for and support their efforts to ensure all communities receive equal access to the vaccine.

Q: What about vaccine misinformation and hesitancy? Are there ways to combat this?

A: Yes. Rotary is asking members to disseminate accurate, fact-based information as provided by local health agencies. It's important to spread the word that vaccines work by using #vaccineswork in their social media postings. Highlight Rotary's work on polio as a key example.

Members can invite medical professionals or local health officials to speak at club meetings. Try to also engage with local media, for example writing letters to the editor, in support of local efforts and vaccine safety and efficacy—using Rotary's success in polio eradication as a proof point.

Q: COVID-19 is still spreading around the world. What should members do to help stop the spread?

A: Members need to continue to participate in projects that support mask wearing, social distancing, proper hygiene practices, and donations of personal protection equipment.

More importantly, members should lead by example, by wearing masks and practicing social distancing. Share images online that reflect these lifesaving behaviors. Get vaccinated. When the time arrives for you to receive the vaccine, share your experience online.

Q: How can I share my efforts?

A: Let the Rotary world know what your club or district is doing to support COVID-19 vaccine introduction efforts by posting your initiatives and projects on Rotary Showcase.

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The Development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1. Is it the TRUTH?*
- 2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?*
- 3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?*
- 4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?*
