PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE...

President Eugene Tan

Greetings my brothers in the Rotary Club of Tacloban.

Welcome to our 13th regular meeting.

Kiong Hee Huat Tsai!

The New Year is a mark of both end and start of a year. This also means a sense of renewal. That the old is gone and the new is here. As we end the Year of the Rat with a community project, we are grateful with the past year, inspite of the pandemic, we have survived and had accomplished our RI Goals.

We face the Year of the Metal Ox with new spirits and commitment to serve others. Notably, we shall end the old year with a project dedicated to prolonging the lives of those who need it most, our most precious blood by the bloodletting activity at Robinson's Place Tacloban. Further, we close the year with our 13th regular meeting. Aptly, we end the year with our brothers, who we share our aim of service with.

With gratitude, I commend everyone who has made all considerable effort to make our Rotary Midyear bearable for all of us and our families. I look forward to your continued commitment in the coming year.

God bless us all!

Yours in Servant Leadership,

Rotarian Eugene A. Tan
Transforming President

SECRETARYS MESSAGE...

Secretary Jonathan Calvara

“A goal properly set is halfway reached.”– Zig Ziglar

Even though we started our Rotary Year (RY) late last year, the first thing that your Board of Officers through the leadership of President Eugene was to set club goals. This happened last July 23, 2020 in Luxury Suites Hotel and group meetings that time was discouraged due to COVID 19 protocols, but we take the risk of so the club will have clear directions on where to go despite the pandemic.

Herewith are our midyear club performance as of February, 11, 2021. (Gen. Source: R.I. Dashboard)

Club of Tacloban is the mother club and we should set example to the other A3B clubs and as to our performance, complacency is not our practice, we should not settle for less”. Nevertheless, your Board of Officers are grateful for your never-ending support and collaboration to our club. Let’s continue to soar high as we enter the Year of the Metal Ox.

TRUSTEE CHAIR'S MESSAGE FOR FEBRUARY 2021

Giving is more than an activity. It is a way of life and a beacon in the search for hope in troubled times. There is great turmoil today, but these are not unusual times, not in the span of human history. The wisdom of the ages is especially important to help us set our path and purpose.

Such wisdom comes from the 12th-century philosopher known as Maimonides. Born in Córdoba, Spain, he and his family went into exile in Morocco to escape religious persecution. As a young man, he mastered Aristotle, astronomy, and later medicine. After moving to Cairo, Maimonides became known as the city's greatest rabbi, producing tomes of commentary on the Torah, and he lived out his final days as a renowned doctor.

But his greatest gift to humanity captured his thoughts about giving itself. His Eight Levels of Charity is a masterpiece that teaches us about what giving means and what motivates us to do it.

The bottom rung of Maimonides' ladder is giving out of pity or grudgingly. The next step up is giving less than one should, but doing so cheerfully. Climb up to the fifth rung and you are giving before being asked. Further up the ladder is giving in a way that the receiver does not know who the giver is. The eighth and highest level of charity is to anticipate distress and giving to avoid or prevent it.

When we immunize children against polio, we are anticipating potential illness. We do so with other efforts, such as Rotary projects that reduce the incidence of malaria or cervical cancer.

When we teach someone a profession that enables them to earn a living, we apply the eighth step. From microfinance to education, The Rotary Foundation helps us give the gift of self-reliance.

All of this good work awaits us, as does the work of supporting newborns, cleaning water sources, recovering from the COVID-19 pandemic, and countless other efforts we lead.

I am proud to say that many Rotary members climb to the top of Maimonides' ladder. Many of them do so anonymously. Whoever they are and for whatever reason they share their gifts with the Foundation, I thank them.

As an organization, Rotary climbs that ladder as well. Every one of your donations helps us reach higher levels. As we climb this ladder as one, we gain a wider perspective. We see all those who need to be uplifted as well as the countless opportunities we have to help them in Rotary. And as we do so, we find our own meaning and purpose.

Some Insights about Chinese New Year 2021

Chinese New Year, also known as Lunar New Year or Spring Festival, is China's most important festival. It is time for families to be together and a week of an official public holiday.

Chinese New Year 2021 falls on Friday, February 12, 2021, beginning a year of the Ox. China's public holiday will be February 11–17, 2021.

Chinese New Year Dates

Chinese New Year falls on Friday, February 12 in 2021.

The date of the Chinese New Year is determined by the lunar calendar: the holiday falls on the second new moon after the winter solstice on December 21. Thus, each time the New Year in China falls on different dates of the usual Gregorian calendar, between January 21 and February 20.

The important dates during the period of Chinese New Year 2021:

Solar Date	Lunar Date	Title
February 4th, 2021	December 23rd	Little Year
February 11th, 2021	December 30th	Chinese New Year's Eve
February 12th, 2021	January 1st	Chinese New Year (Spring Festival)
February 26th, 2021	January 15th	Lantern Festival

Chinese New Year 2021 is a Year of the Ox

In popular Chinese astrology, Chinese New Year (Spring Festival) is important... For Chinese people, years begin at Chinese Lunar New Year, rather than January 1!

2021: A year of the Ox will start on February 12th.

2022: A year of the Tiger will start on February 1st.

Why is it called the Spring Festival?

Though being in winter for most of China, the Chinese New Year is popularly known as the Spring Festival in China. Because it starts from the Beginning of Spring (the first of the twenty-four terms in coordination with the changes of Nature) and marks the end of winter and the beginning of spring. The Spring Festival marks a new year on the lunar calendar and represents the desire for a new life.

Chinese New Year Greetings

One of the most famous traditional greetings for Chinese New Year is the Cantonese kung hei fat choi, literally 'greetings, become rich'. In Mandarin that's gongxi facai /gong-sshee faa-tseye/.

The Luckiest Things to Do at Chinese New Year

- Giving money/gifts in lucky numbers and lucky red packaging with lucky greetings.
- Eating lucky food like fish on New Year's Eve, especially carp or catfish with some left over for New Year's Day.
- Lighting lots of red firecrackers and fireworks to scare away evil and bring good luck.

The Unlucky Things to Do at Chinese New Year

- Having an accident, especially if it means hospital visits, crying, and breakages: all bad omens.
- Giving gifts with unlucky meanings, colors, words, or numbers, or even saying something inauspicious.
- Sweeping up on New Year's Day: don't "sweep all your luck away".

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The Development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1. Is it the TRUTH?*
- 2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?*
- 3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?*
- 4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?*
