PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE...

Greetings my brothers in the Rotary Club of Tacloban.

Welcome to our 14th regular meeting.

This week marks the start of the Catholic season of Lent. Notwithstanding our diversity in faiths, we all acknowledge that Jesus Christ is the best example of selfless service to our brethren. Our Rotary is committed to service and the ultimate goal of world peace, a dream we all share with Christ.

The dedication and commitment of our Board and the members resulted in our being able to achieve more than a hundred percent in all our goals for the year, save for those we are still waiting for specific dates of achievement. The continued support given to the club has given us unprecedented results member participation. We acknowledge the senior members being for being active in teaching the newbies the ropes in the club. This is clear in the meetings we are conducting when we see that the seniors are present. We also acknowledge the active participation of our new members which can also be seen in their attendance and participation in the meetings and projects. With that, in behalf of your Board of Officers, I extend my gratitude. The Club is thriving.

As we reflect on the events of the past week, let us be steadfast in our vocation to serve others. Let the life of Christ in leadership and service, be our guide in the conduct of our businesses and lives. With that, I pray for you more power, health and happiness.

God bless us all!

Yours in Servant Leadership,

Rotarian Eugene A. Tan
Transforming President

SECRETARY'S MESSAGE...

"There is no exercise better for the heart than reaching down and lifting people up." – John Holmes

Last week, our Rotary Club of Tacloban in collaboration with Philippine National Police-R8 and with the partnerships of D.O.H., E.V.R.M.C., National Voluntary Blood Services Program-EV and PAF-TOG8, we conducted a community "bloodletting" service project at Robinson's North. A total of 23,850cc of blood were collected among 53 volunteer qualified donors. The project was chaired by Rotarian Peter Justin. I and Dir. Millan were among the successful donors. It was my first time to donate and I feel accomplished having in mind that at least by my action, I hope I can save somehow someone's life.

With this undertaking, I researched on what are the benefits of donating blood as part of our health routine, and this was the top 8:

1. Free health checkup and pathology test
2. Reduce the risk of heart and liver diseases
3. Lower the risk of cancer
4. Develop new blood cells
5. Maintain your body weight
6. Lower cholesterol level
7. Improve your mental wellbeing
8. Save lives

Donating blood can be the highest form of humanitarian act. Without blood donation, patients can't undergo surgeries, recover from illnesses, or just function on a daily basis. You may not be able to help cure someone from life-threatening diseases like cancer, but you can definitely help someone stay alive when you donate blood.

As a rotarian, we have the motto "Service Above Self", and doing the act of donating blood is one of a great service above our own self.

Please don't forget to attend via zoom our webinar with Feng Shui Coach, Johnson Chua. Herewith are the details:

- *February 19, 2021; 8:00PM
- *Meeting ID: 864 4858 6025
- *Passcode: RCT

God bless us all Rotarians!

Yours in Rotary Service,
Joel

PEACEBUILDING CAN BE A MATTER OF NETWORKS

Randall Butler is the chair of the peacebuilding committee of a club nearing two centuries of dedication to fostering peace.

“I’ve been in conflict resolution my whole career,” says Randy Butler, the founder and CEO of the Institute for Sustainable Peace. A former trial lawyer, Butler abandoned the courtroom to focus on using mediation to resolve disputes and training others in the use of mediation. “I’d found my passion,” he says.

In 2018, he led a workshop to “build the skills necessary to overcome the polarization we are experiencing in the United States.” When Butler reached out to the peacebuilding committee at the Rotary Club of Boulder, he met Gary Kahn, who asked him: “Why are you not a member of Rotary?”

Attending a meeting of the Boulder club, he says, “it was amazing to look at all these people around the room — the district attorney; medical professionals and successful businesspeople; college professors — and realize that here was a club that had brought all these individuals together and that they make a real difference in what they’re doing.”

It was Butler’s Rotary epiphany. “I suddenly saw this network forming all over the world: people who knew how to get things done and knew people they could get things done with.”

Today he’s the chair of the peacebuilding committee of the 101-year-old club, which has dedicated its second century to fostering peace. “We remind our club members that all of our projects that help to build Positive Peace involve collaborations at the community level, even across traditional divides,” he says, noting that they look forward to using the vast Rotary network to build even more “bridges of understanding.”

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The Development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
