PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE...

Greetings my brothers in the Rotary Club of Tacloban.

Welcome to our 16th regular meeting.

We are now more than half the leadership year. We have achieved so much in spite of the pandemic. Our oaths being fulfilled, I am proud that the club is made up of men who are with courage and the commitment to serve.

With that said, we know that most of us are risk of contracting the deadly virus. We could have decided to wait it out and let the virus meet its demise through the vaccine. Fortunately, we are Rotarians. Rotarians are men and women who hold significant influence and effect in the community. It's a greater sin to be doing nothing. Some of our brethren are having a hard time and for Rotarians to stay idly by is unacceptable.

The projects we have conducted is geared towards the elevation of the human condition and securing a better future for the community and the future generation. Amongst our goal is the advocacy for improved peace and order. Peace and order give us the opportunity to engage in our professions with the confidence that we are secured. The sense of security gives us the freedom to be entrepreneurs thereby creating opportunities to others such as employment, partnerships and other activities to serve the community.

Our partnership with the Philippine National Police is a natural one. Organizations with the aim of achieving peace are natural allies. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to PNP Regional Director 8, PBGen. Ronaldo F. De Jesus, for giving us his time to share with us. We look forward to other events that we can work together.

I pray that this event builds a stronger link between our organizations. We wish you the best and more power!

God bless us all!

Yours in Servant Leadership,

Rotarian Eugene A. Tan
Transforming President

SECRETARY'S MESSAGE...

"The general idea in life is that you should get at least eight hours of sleep per day, which gives you sixteen (16) hours of waking life." -16 Facts about Number 16

Welcome to our 16th regular meeting, the 36th week of Rotary transforming year. Considering the pandemic situation that we are in, our club is on its right pace in terms of conducting regular meetings. Our transforming President Eugene encourages physical meetings because this will further membership growth and foster camaraderie. As of last week a total of 19 new members has been inducted and most all of them are already Paul Harris Fellows which just shows their concern of extending service to humanity. That's what a True Rotarian is "SERVICE ABOVE SELF". Your generosity to the Rotary Foundation can never be equaled for those who do not have the opportunity to be a Rotarian.

Let me share with you the relevance of NUMBER 16. (Source: numerology-number-16)

The number 16 understands others because it understands itself (or tries to).

People with 16 popping up in their lives (or born on the sixteenth of a month) are in tune with the spiritual and the material worlds, though they tend to be more spiritual from time to time, sometimes teeter-tottering on the edge of delusion. They have active imaginations and enjoy their freedom of thought and being. It is likely that their spirituality will be used to bring wisdom to family-like relationships.

The number 16 denotes one who is both emotional and spiritual.

They are good at setting goals (and reaching them), and, because they are so analytical, they have great skills when it comes to researching and getting to the bottom of things. They are the people who find solutions for people who don't know where to look (or where to begin). When the number 16 is around, or popping up everywhere, it usually indicates something of a spiritual awakening.

In relationships, the number 16 indicates one who is romantic without adding too much drama to the pot. They enjoy their freedom and need it to function properly or they could withdraw emotionally.

Negatively speaking, 16s can be very demanding of themselves and, in turn, of other people. They want to help others understand themselves and become spiritually aware. They tend to be very anxious, sometimes becoming too nervous to stay in one job, one place, or one group of people for too long. They should also keep themselves grounded as they sometimes have the inclination to become lost in a fantasy world.

Yours in Rotary Service,
Joel

ROTARY INFORMATION...

Rotary International Presidents Message for March 2021

Dear Rotarians, Rotaractors, and friends,

As someone who knows firsthand the great leadership potential of Rotaractors, I always look forward to World Rotaract Week, which we are celebrating from 8 to 14 March. Rotaractors are the focus of all three of my presidential conferences this year, and I was proud when, two years ago, the Council on Legislation voted to elevate Rotaract by including Rotaract clubs as members of Rotary International. Before that, the Council had already made dual membership possible, and shortly after, the Board of Directors decided to do away with Rotaract's age limits.

But we are only just embarking on our journey together. Partnering effectively doesn't happen by itself. It requires both sides to be open and to understand the value of cross-generational alliances. Louie De Real, a dual member of Rotaract and Rotary, explains. Joint virtual meetings have helped Rotaractors introduce Rotarians to new ideas and tools, pioneering unique ways for clubs to collaborate. In the case of pandemic and disaster response, Rotaract clubs used social media to coordinate efforts, drive information, and fundraise, while Rotary clubs used their networks and resources to amplify support, provide logistics, and bring the goods and services to communities.

Rotaractors' innovative virtual engagement and professional development activities inspired Rotarians to support and follow suit. The pandemic made Rotaract clubs realize that we can immediately connect and partner with Rotary clubs through virtual platforms. With constant collaboration, we realize that Rotary and Rotaract indeed complement each other — that we are part of a single organization with shared goals.

Both sides add value. Rotarians can be mentors and service partners to Rotaractors, while Rotaractors can demonstrate to Rotarians that difficult jobs can be simplified and limitations can be surpassed through digital approaches. This synergy motivates Rotaractors to become future Rotarians: I joined Rotary because Rotarians gave me memorable membership experiences through inspirational moments of collaboration. I needed to be a Rotarian to inspire Rotaractors the same way, now and in the future.

That same synergy leads Rotarians to realize that while Rotaractors may have a different culture, we all share a common vision of uniting people to take action. Rotaract's unique ways of doing things serve as inspiration for innovation, helping Rotary increase its ability to adapt to future challenges. Rotarians and Rotaractors will build the future together, so let's start today. I see no difference between a Rotary club and a Rotaract club, except perhaps for the average age!

Many Rotarians still view Rotaract as our youth organization, but I see it differently. For me, they are part of us, and they are like us. To be successful together, we need to have mutual respect — to see each other as equals.

Let's see Rotaractors for who they really are: students and young leaders, but also successful managers and entrepreneurs who are capable of planning, organizing, and managing a Rotary institute — including breakout sessions in five languages — as they did in Berlin in 2014.

As we take this journey together, let's remember the strengths of Rotary and Rotaract. And, as Louie says, let's get started right away in building the future together. In doing so, we open endless opportunities for our organization.

OUR GUEST SPEAKER FOR TONIGHT

PBGEN RONALDO F DE JESUS Regional Director, Police Regional Office 8

Our honored guest tonight is a living idiom of a man who happened to be born at the right time and at the right place. Coupled with an impressive background, it was not therefore surprising that he turned out to be an impressive leader.

His academic achievements are truly commendable as they mirror his great sense of commitment, hard-work, and passion. He is a proud member of the Philippine National Police Academy, TAGAPAGBUKLOD Class of 1989. Adding to the list of his academic accomplishments is his Master in Public Administration at the University of Santo Tomas which he completed in the year 2005.

The portfolio of Professional Development and Training of our guest today is exceptional and fascinating as each experience gives life to him being a man of accomplishments and expertise. He had undergone several profound trainings both here in the local field and abroad.

As a person, he is what we call the magic of accomplishment as manifested in the countless medals, awards, and commendation he has received in the course of his career.

Bold-spirited, he hurdle countless challenges in his professional career. He had been connected with various Police Regional Offices before serving in the PNP Anti-Cybercrime Group. Aspiring for realistic greater heights and daring for more sustainable progress, our guest today has performed an excellent post in the Directorate for Integrated Police Operations (DIPO) Eastern Mindanao.

And now, braving a new challenge and channeling his versatility and professionalism, he finally takes command of Police Regional Office 8 (PRO8) as the newly-installed Regional Director.

He is indeed a precious gem in the PNP Service considering all the excellent services he has rendered in the organization.

Ladies and gentlemen, today will be noted as one of those rare and wonderful moments because of our invited guest. His name truly echoes the essence of service, dedication, and excellence. With great pride, let me present to you an accomplished man who is admirable not only because of his wisdom but because of his vision, caring spirit, and an unconquerable principle, no less than- PBGEN RONALDO F DE JESUS.

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The Development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
