PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE...

Greetings my brothers in the Rotary Club of Tacloban!

Welcome to our 24th Regular Meeting of the finest Rotary Club in the country. As we embark in one of mankind's greatest challenge: The Immunization of millions. We as Rotarians, are given the moral responsibility to educate our community on the benefits of being immunized from the deadly virus, the Covid 19.

I have reiterated this in my previous messages. I cannot emphasize more clearly and strongly the need to do so. We cannot be complacent in this historic event. The most that will benefit from this is our community, ourselves and our family. I ask to continue the advocacy of educating our people.

As we gather for our 24th Regular meeting, we have achieved so much in the past few months. I credit these achievements to the unprecedented cooperation of the members of the Board of Directors and the membership. In the report presented by our Secretary, most of our commitments and obligations have been met and well over 100% accomplished. We are now waiting for our participation in the DisCon and other events that needs the expression of time.

I encourage all of you to continue your commitment to our organization and continue to be part of history. May you and your family be in the best of health.

God bless us all.

Yours in Servant Leadership,

Rotarian Eugene A. Tan
Transforming President

SECRETARY'S MESSAGE...

*"You will not attain righteousness till you spend in charity of the things you love."
[The Qur'an, Chapter 3, verse 92]*

Today we celebrate Muslim religious' tradition Eid al-Fitr. Philippines is predominantly known as a Christian country but it is a home to some 5 million Muslims, which makes the second largest demographic after Christians.

For Muslims, Ramadan is the holy month of fasting. In the Muslim calendar, Ramadan falls on the 9th month, which means that Eid al-Fitr falls on the 10th. Ramadan is a very special time for all Muslims as it's believed to be when God revealed the Quran to the Prophet Muhammad. To commemorate this in spirit, Muslims observe much self-restraint over the course of 30 days. It's often a time for introspection, communal prayer, and studying of or reading of the Quran.

After a month of self-restraint, it's no surprise that Eid al-Fitr, which marks the end of Ramadan, is a very celebratory occasion. It falls on the first day of Shawaal (the 10th month on the Muslim calendar) and is often commemorated with an exchange of gifts, a large meal together with loved ones, and much hugging. Perhaps one of the best ways people celebrate Eid al-Fitr is with plenty of dessert! Dates, cookies, and baklava are just some of the common food items chanced upon the dining table. There's also a very important tradition that Muslims observe, called zakat al-Fitr, which is to give to charity (another of the five pillars of Islam).

Excerpts from Ms. Rynanne Co (Philippine Tatler)

It is happy to note that in Rotary International, we have Muslim countries that has presence of Rotary Clubs. Namely they are Indonesia, Turkey, Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia, Egypt, Lebanon, Jordan, Bahrain, United Arab Emirates, Sudan, the new nation of South

Sudan. Among the very active is the Rotary Club of Ramallah, a Palestinian city located in the central West Bank of Israel, 15 km north of Jerusalem.

To our Muslim brothers, sisters and Rotarians, let us all join our hands to thank Allah for this wonderful day to pray, care, love, smile and celebrate with one another. Eid Mubarak!

Yours in Rotary Service,

Joel

PE Bobby Andrade

Trustee chair's message for May 2021

In the classic film Lawrence of Arabia, Peter O'Toole plays T.E. Lawrence, the British scholar, military officer, and author who helped Arab tribes in their struggle for independence against the Ottoman Empire.

Lawrence leads a group of Bedouin warriors through the desert for a surprise attack on the Ottoman port of Aqaba. As they reach the end of the desert, they discover that a soldier, Gasim, has fallen off his camel during the night. But it is morning, and the tribesmen, led by Sherif Ali, played in the movie by Omar Sharif, advise Lawrence that going back to find him would be futile, that Gasim would already be dead given the sandstorms and the scorching heat. "Gasim's time has come; it is written," one of the soldiers tells Lawrence.

But Lawrence does go back and finds Gasim near death, staggering in the dunes. When they return to camp, Ali offers Lawrence water. Before taking a drink, Lawrence looks at him and says: "Nothing is written." This unforgettable scene means more than just a quotable movie line; it represents a way of looking at the world. It is a challenge to fatalism — that we must accept a certain outcome because of the way it has always been. No, Lawrence says, history is not written, yet.

So it is with The Rotary Foundation. We have not yet emerged from the sandstorm of the COVID-19 pandemic and the economic fallout from it. We are still occupied by work to raise awareness, deliver critical personal protective equipment, and provide support for frontline workers.

We do not know the day when, standing beside our polio eradication partners, we will announce that for the second time in history, a disease has been eradicated. We do know that, because we have worked steadfastly for years, the end of that story will be written soon.

And thanks to a $15.5 million contribution from the Otto & Fran Walter Foundation, we are also adding a new chapter in the story of our expansion of the Rotary Peace Centers: Plans are underway to launch a new peace certificate center in the Middle East or North Africa.

Rotary is engaged in so many noble efforts; it is an ongoing story that inspires me even more than Lawrence of Arabia. We do not yet know the name of the baby whose life will be saved because of a maternal and child health grant from Rotary, or the name of the girl who will learn to read with our support. When will those grants start, and will your district — or you — be directly involved?

Nothing is written. We write it.

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST:

The Development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

THIRD:

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

SECOND:

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

FOURTH:

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
