PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Pres. Marco Nardo

The Rotary International District 3860 Philippines will be organizing the District Conference 2024 in Davao this coming May 3-4, 2024. I highly recommend that the members of the Rotary Club of Tacloban join in the conference so you can be updated with the initiatives of the Club.

Being part in the Club means we have a thirst for growth and learning. We must continue to educate ourselves and be open to making connections with other Clubs to reinforce our network and relationships across other clubs.

Soon our term will end, but I know that our commitment to creating hope will not end.

Let's continue to create hope in the world!

MARCO NARDO

President, RY 2023-2024

SECRETARY'S MESSAGE

Sec. Jude A. Duarte

No man is an island. Such is true for us Rotarians. We need to sharpen our strength through benchmarking best practices from other Clubs, learning and unlearning things for the growth of the Clubs, meeting old friends and making new ones --- this is what we can gain from joining the DisCon Davao 2024.

We encourage the members of the Rotary Club of Tacloban to register and join the conference on May 3-4, 2024. This conference will provide many opportunities for learning and networking. With this conference, we can widen our horizons and create more opportunities for spreading hope in our communities.

Commitment to learning is a testament to our goal of a better world.

JUDE A. DUARTE

Secretary, RY 2023-2024

ROTARY INFORMATION

PE Jose Antonio D. Reyna

Rotary International Presidential message for February 2024

I am enthused and encouraged by your embrace of mental health initiatives throughout the Rotary world. More than 1,000 of you have responded so far to an ongoing survey by the Rotary Action Group on Mental Health Initiatives, offering your feedback on what Rotary can do to improve the personal well-being of members.

The top suggestions are illuminating. Rotary members are asking for more fellowship, camaraderie, conversation, cohesiveness, and connection. They also want more recognition, validation, and integration. They are seeking more service opportunities, and they want more wellness activities, including mental health speakers, awareness efforts, and education.

Our members not only appreciate the greater focus on mental health, but they also believe that making more of the Rotary experience will materially improve their lives. I find it interesting that members are not asking anything dramatically new of their club — rather they want more of what we do best. For example, connection can be improved during meetings simply by assigning seating once each month to encourage people to speak with someone new.

Here are some great ways that we can help achieve these results and make Rotary more appealing to those considering membership. First, we need to acknowledge the importance of increasing belonging in our clubs and to encourage Rotary members to make the most of every opportunity for new and stronger connections. Public health experts worldwide are concerned about increasing levels of loneliness — the U.S. surgeon general has even declared it an epidemic. Mental health experts agree that finding groups and clubs around common hobbies and interests is a strong way to create greater connectedness. This is what Rotary is all about. We need to make sure all of our members are fully engaged and that our communities are better aware of this inherent strength.

Second, if your club has found new ways to build connection, please share your stories with us at mindhealth@rotary.org so we can make them more broadly known within the Rotary world. Your good ideas might inspire others. Post your service project stories on Rotary Showcase.

And finally, I encourage you to share feedback from surveys like this with your club and bring forward your own ideas to improve your club experience and meet your peers' expectations. The journey we have begun is about more than mental health. It is about taking advantage of the full strength of our wonderful organization and helping all members feel that they are part of a community that cares deeply about their personal well-being.

Everything you do to strengthen connections in Rotary, with each other and the people we serve, also helps improve mental health. And everything we do to improve mental health helps strengthen those connections. Let's continue this virtuous cycle.

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- 1 The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- 2 High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- 3 The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- 4 The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1 IS IT THE TRUTH?
- 2 IS IT FAIR TO ALL CONCERNED?
- 3 WILL IT BUILD GOODWILL AND BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4 WILL IT BE BENEFICIAL TO ALL CONCERNED?
