PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

JUDE A. DUARTE
President, RY 2025-2026

Warm greetings, Rotarians!

Merry Christmas to everyone. As we enter this season, I hope you and your families are finding small moments of rest and joy, even with the pace of the past several weeks. December always brings its own set of tasks, but it also creates spaces where we can pause and reconnect with the people around us. I wish our activities this month to reflect that balance. Let me share our updates for the coming days so we can prepare well.

The district-wide job fair on December 5, led by RC Kankabato, is coming up soon. Each club has been allotted two company slots. This event is part of the district challenge under the areas of focus, and it gives our community a practical avenue for support. If you know companies that can participate, please let us know. The more varied the opportunities offered, the more helpful the event becomes for those looking for work. Your suggestions or connections can make a real difference in how useful this fair turns out to be.

Our Christmas party is now scheduled on December 9. We moved it to avoid any overlap with other commitments and to make sure more of us can attend comfortably. After a year filled with projects and meetings, it gives us a chance to enjoy each other's company. It is also one of the few times we welcome everyone's families into our circle, which makes it feel even more special.

Please bring food to share. Variety always makes these gatherings enjoyable, and it is a tradition that never feels forced. We will have a 500-peso exchange gift as well. If you would like to add raffle items, feel free. These small contributions help make the celebration more engaging for everyone.

This will be our last meeting for the year. After December 9, I hope each of you can give your time to your families and personal traditions. The holidays can get busy, but they also offer the kind of pauses that we often miss during the rest of the year.

Thank you for staying committed throughout the past months. Your presence and assistance in different tasks made our club active and impactful this calendar year. I appreciate the work you do, both seen and unseen.

I look forward to ending the year together on a warm and hopeful note.

Moving forward in service,

JUDE A. DUARTE
President, Rotary Club of Tacloban

SECRETARY'S MESSAGE

ROMER S. SERNA
Secretary, RY 2025-2026

To Our Committed Rotarians,

We have reached December, and it feels a bit surprising how quickly the year has moved. The atmosphere is starting to shift as Christmas plans, school schedules, and year-end activities begin to fill our days. I hope you are easing into the season with a light spirit.

Our 14th regular meeting went smoothly. Since we had no guest speaker, the time was spent tying up loose ends for our Christmas party. It was nice to have a more relaxed meeting where everyone could focus on preparing for a gathering we all look forward to. December can be packed and a bit chaotic, so moments like that help us breathe a little.

The deworming flagship project is also underway. It began last December 3 at Tacloban City Night High School in Bagacay. This is a continuation of last year's efforts, and it stays true to why we started the project in the first place. Deworming directly supports students' health and readiness to learn. When children feel well, they attend school more consistently and participate with more confidence.

We will continue rolling out the activity in the next days, and your presence or assistance wherever possible is always welcome. Even small tasks help keep the work moving.

December brings a mix of busyness and excitement, and our club is right in the middle of it. Let's keep the energy steady and enjoy the season while staying involved in the activities that matter to us.

With our shared commitment to service,

ROMER S. SERNA
Secretary, Rotary Club of Tacloban

President Elect/Vice President, RY 2025-2026

Rotary International President Francesco Arezzo's December 2025 Message

This month's special issue of Rotary magazine is all about happiness, that most elemental of human yearnings. More than a feeling, though, this state of positive well-being, and the conditions necessary to create and sustain it, should be considered a universal right.

December also marks Rotary's Disease Prevention and Treatment Month, when we highlight our members' work to promote health and wellness, including mental wellness. Globally, nearly 1 in 7 people have a mental health disorder, according to a recent World Health Organization report. Yet only 9 percent of people with depression receive adequate treatment.

We are fortunate in Rotary to have a powerful way to support emotional well-being and happiness: friendship. The connections we build in Rotary can be a powerful force for change. I know this from personal experience.

When my fellow members first proposed that I become club president, I demurred. I had a stutter. I was terrified of speaking. But having club members who supported me and surrounded me with affection enabled me to face my fear, and I found a way to stand confidently before a crowd.

Today, I regularly address audiences — some numbering in the thousands — in a language that is not native to me. The Rotary members in my life helped me create lasting change within myself.

That fellowship gives us the courage and means to create lasting change in the world as well, and mental health services are in desperate need of improvement. The WHO reports that governments on average devote only 2 percent of their health budgets to mental health, and only 11 percent of that funding reaches community-based services. In some countries, only one trained mental health professional is available for every 100,000 people. The WHO has called for strategic and urgent action to close the gap.

Rotary can answer that call by championing mental health awareness in our clubs, working with local health systems, funding training for community health workers, and supporting initiatives that bring care to places where none exists. Even small investments in mental health yield enormous returns in productivity, public health, and happiness.

While we are creating lasting change in the world, we cannot forget to take care of each other. Past Rotary International President Gordon McInally wisely reminds us that we must go beyond asking, "How are you?" We owe it to each other to instead ask, "How are you really?"

As we transition to a new year filled with new possibilities, let us Unite for Good — for healing, friendship, and access to happiness.

Francesco Arezzo
President, Rotary International

Theme: The Magic of Rotary

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster

- 1. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- 2. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- 3. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- 4. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR WAY TEST OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1. Is it the TRUTH?
- 2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4. Will it build BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
