PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

JUDE A. DUARTE
President, RY 2025-2026

Dear Rotarians,

Good day to everyone as we continue through the month of February. I hope the past week has been manageable for all, and that each of you has found time to attend to both personal responsibilities and club matters.

For our regular meeting today, we will have Atty. Buenaventura Go Soco as our guest speaker. He is the former Director of the National Economic and Development Authority. He will share his perspective on current economic conditions and how development planning affects local communities. His experience in public service gives him a practical view of how policies translate into everyday realities. Members are encouraged to attend and take part in the discussion.

Please also take note of the upcoming area activity. On February 25, Areas 3B and 3C will hold a coastal clean up drive in Payapay, San Jose starting at 4:00 PM. Fellowship will follow at Payapay Park. This activity is part of the observance of the Rotary Foundation Anniversary. Members who are available are encouraged to attend and represent the club.

Next week will also be our fellowship night. Members are encouraged to invite proposed members so they can get to know the club in a relaxed setting. We will also observe the Chinese New Year during the gathering, and a lion dance group has been invited to perform.

Thank you for your continued participation in our meetings and activities. I look forward to seeing many of you today.

With Rotary regards,

JUDE A. DUARTE
President, Rotary Club of Tacloban

SECRETARY'S MESSAGE

ROMER S. SERNA
Secretary, RY 2025-2026

Hello Fellow Rotarians,

I would like to begin by thanking PE Neil for presiding over our meeting last week. He guided the discussion in a steady manner, and the agenda moved at a comfortable pace throughout the session.

The gathering also had a lighter feel because of the food that was prepared for the evening. Many members noticed that the dishes were different from what we usually serve. The change brought a pleasant surprise, and several shared that they enjoyed the variation. It created a relaxed setting that carried through the rest of the meeting.

After the formal portion ended, members stayed a little longer to talk while finishing their meals. The conversations were easygoing, and it was clear that people valued the chance to catch up in a simple way.

As we mark this week, I would also like to greet everyone a happy Valentine's Day. May the spirit of kindness and goodwill continue to guide our interactions within the club and in our daily lives.

Thank you to those who attended the meeting and remained engaged. Your steady participation helps keep our gatherings active and connected.

Yours in Rotary Service,

ROMER S. SERNA
Secretary, Rotary Club of Tacloban

ROTARY INFORMATION

NEIL M. SIA
President Elect/Vice President, RY 2025-2026

Rotary Peace Center at Symbiosis International University will train peace and development professionals from across Asia

Leaders of Rotary International and Symbiosis International University gathered in Pune, India, to inaugurate a new Rotary Peace Center at the university. Supported through The Rotary Foundation, the center will provide experienced peacebuilders from across Asia with one-year professional development certificate fellowships to study subjects such as conflict transformation, sustainable development, and social change.

"With India's rich diversity and complex social landscape, the peace center will offer unique opportunities for cultivating leaders who can navigate conflict with empathy and innovation," says Bharat S. Pandya, a trustee of The Rotary Foundation and member of the Rotary Club of Borivli, Maharashtra, India. "This center will nurture a new generation of leaders in Asia who are dedicated to strengthening dialogue, understanding, and sustainable peace."

The new center will host up to 40 Rotary Peace Fellows per year to earn a postgraduate diploma in peace and development studies. The program is designed for midcareer professionals with experience working in peace and development fields, including within governments, non-governmental and community organizations, educational institutions, media outlets, and international agencies.

Symbiosis International University's motto, Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam, or The World Is One Family, reflects a commitment to internationalism and cultural understanding that dates to its founding. Established in 1971 as a cultural exchange center for students from other countries (particularly Africa) who were experiencing discrimination, Symbiosis today has more than 55,000 students from at least 85 nations.

"The university has been focused on nurturing global citizens through quality education and cross-cultural sensitization as well as empowering thoughtful leaders — essentials for creating a harmonious world," says Anita Patankar, director of the Symbiosis Centre for International Education and executive director of the university's campus in Dubai, United Arab Emirates. "The Rotary Peace Center, with its unique academic program, joins the Symbiosis family in extending this vision."

Symbiosis already has a history of collaborating with nearby Rotary Districts 3131 and 3141, which will jointly welcome and support peace fellows during their time in India. The university hosts annual Rotary Youth Leadership Awards, and Rotary members organize professional development opportunities for teachers. The Rotary Foundation recently awarded a global grant for a project at the university hospital, which provides free medical services to the community.

"Symbiosis has consistently sought to build meaningful alliances that enrich learning and foster inclusive, knowledge-driven, and sustainable progress," says Vice Chancellor Ramakrishnan Raman. "Our collaboration with Rotary further reinforces this commitment, enabling new opportunities for scholarship, peacebuilding, and human development."

The peace center will be housed at the university's hilltop Lavale campus. Highlighting issues relevant to Asian countries, the curriculum will include many opportunities for the fellows to gain real-world experience through field visits outside of Pune as well as locally. Symbiosis has close relationships with more than 35 nearby villages, whose residents use its legal aid clinic and vocational training programs. The fellows will work with faculty members, other students, and village residents to learn about the villages, propose strategies for their development, and meet with local leaders for feedback.

This kind of practical learning is possible thanks to the ethic of social responsibility that Symbiosis and Rotary share, says Laura Descher, the Rotary Peace Centers program director.

With the opening of the new peace center, Rotary's eighth, The Rotary Foundation will be able to award up to 170 fully funded peace fellowships each year. More than 1,800 fellows have completed Rotary Peace Center programs around the world since 2002, going on to leadership roles in government agencies, NGOs, educational institutions, and international organizations. The first applications to attend the Symbiosis peace center are being accepted through 15 May 2026, and it will welcome its first group of fellows in early 2027.

By training leaders in the strategies and practices of peacebuilding, Rotary Peace Centers have a wide-ranging impact on the world that will be felt for years to come, says Rotary International President Francesco Arezzo.

"In this interconnected world, peace can no longer be viewed as an abstract ideal. It must be cultivated through institutions that combine knowledge, ethical leadership, and action," Arezzo says. "The Rotary Peace Center at Symbiosis International University reflects Rotary's commitment to nurturing leaders who understand and act with integrity toward a cause. The center will contribute not only to regional peacebuilding in Asia, but to a stronger global framework for shared responsibility."

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster

- 1. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- 2. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- 3. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- 4. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR WAY TEST OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1. Is it the TRUTH?
- 2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4. Will it build BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
