PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

JUDE A. DUARTE
President, RY 2025-2026

Warm greetings, fellow Rotarians,

Please be reminded that we will not have a fellowship meeting next week to make way for DISCON 2026. Many members will be attending the conference, and preparations are already ongoing for the event. We hope those who registered will have a productive and enjoyable time during the conference in Cebu.

At the same time, I know incoming President Neil Sia has also been busy preparing for the next Rotary year. Planning for an incoming term takes time and a lot of coordination. Good luck, PE Neil, as you prepare for your year as president. The club is here to support you along the way.

One thing I have learned during my term is the value of involving officers early in the preparation of projects and club activities. Work becomes lighter when responsibilities are shared properly, and members also become more familiar with how activities are organized from start to finish. It also allows officers to contribute their own ideas and approaches during planning.

Only one month remains before my term comes to a close. The months passed quietly at first, then suddenly the calendar became full before we even realized it. Along the way, the club went through different situations that required patience and flexibility. Even during busy periods, Rotarians still found ways to stay connected with Rotary. Some attended activities whenever they could, while others helped prepare details that many people never get to see. Looking back, those shared efforts gave stability to the club throughout the year.

As we move into the final stretch of this Rotary year, I hope we can continue supporting one another and finish the remaining activities on a positive note. I look forward to seeing many of you again after DISCON.

Yours in Rotary,

JUDE A. DUARTE
President, Rotary Club of Tacloban

SECRETARY'S MESSAGE

ROMER S. SERNA
Secretary, RY 2025-2026

To all fellow Rotarians,

Last week's regular meeting had fewer members present because many also had prior appointments and responsibilities to attend to. That happens from time to time, especially during busy weeks when schedules suddenly overlap. Even so, the meeting still pushed through, and the discussions continued with the members who were able to make time. For sure, even those who were absent still carried Rotary in their thoughts.

There are weeks when attendance becomes challenging because other commitments demand attention first. That is part of life outside the club. Still, it is always appreciated when members check in or ask about what happened during the meeting afterward. Those small gestures show that the connection to the club remains present even during busy periods.

One thing I noticed over the years is that Rotary moves differently from other organizations. There are seasons when meetings are full and lively, and there are also quieter weeks where attendance becomes smaller. Yet the club continues because members remain connected in different ways. Some contribute through attendance. Others help through coordination, preparation, or support behind the scenes. Every Rotary year goes through that natural rhythm.

As we move closer to the end of the Rotary year, there are still upcoming activities that need participation and support from the members. I hope more of us can join whenever schedules allow. Sometimes, even a short appearance during a meeting or activity already brings good energy to the group. Familiar faces around the table always make gatherings feel lighter.

To the members who attended last week, thank you for making time despite your own schedules. The conversations may have come from a smaller group, but the meeting still carried the same spirit of fellowship and cooperation that we value in the club.

Looking forward to seeing everyone again in the coming meetings and activities.

In Rotary fellowship,

ROMER S. SERNA
Secretary, Rotary Club of Tacloban

NEIL M. SIA
President Elect/Vice President, RY 2025-2026

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster

- 1. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- 2. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- 3. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- 4. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR WAY TEST OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1. Is it the TRUTH?
- 2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4. Will it build BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
