About the Cover

Growth, in any way, may assume various forms. It may be physical, numerical or statistical presentation of the extent of development of acts, or things we consider from its inception up to the time of final growth or development.

As members of Rotary Club of Tagum Golden LACES, taking into consideration the District Challenges laid down for Rotary Year 2020-2021, can growth be manifested while we enhance participant engagement? Will there be greater expansion of our reach? Can we increase our impact or public image? What could be the extent of our ability to adapt?

The extent of our growth will largely depend on the degree of commitment, determination and initiatives of every well-meaning Rotary Club members.

Addressing the District Challenge for Rotary Year 2020-2021 on Membership Development and Retention, our club, Rotary Club of Tagum Golden LACES will be inducting three (3) new members in our club. They are Cherryanne L. Angoy, Doreen Queen E. Labrador, and Ma. Martha B. Conde. This is going to be a blended (virtual and face to face) induction which will take place at Secret Lagoo, Liboganon, Tagum City on November 21, 2020 at 9:00 in the morning.

On this occasion, an invited speaker in the person of Dr. Nelson Magnaye will be speaking about Mental Health in the New Normal.

Having three (3) new members in our club is indeed a clear indicator of growth in our club's membership development.

Awesome and inspiring ladies, "Welcome to Rotary Club of Tagum Golden LACES!".

My warmest congratulations to all of us for our 28th anniversary as a club.

This celebration comes once a year but our daily and weekly efforts made this milestone possible. As Rotarians, we have imbibed the values of service above self and we do not get tired of sharing our time, treasures, and talents to the community. We owe so much to all our charter members and those Rotarians who have joined the club before. They have helped shape the club that we have now.

Amidst this pandemic, we celebrate. The celebration would not be a usual merriment and feast but a renewal of the club's vitality to remain steadfast despite the restrictions and challenges. Is there any celebration? Yes! There is still a feast where the Areas of Service and the Four Way Test are celebrated in our day to day lives as Rotarians.

Congratulations!

Rotary and Global Action Platform Collaborate for Social and Economic Development in the Philippines

Integrating social capital and financial capital development to create a new, sustainable regional economy for the Philippine indigenous people

Nashville, New York, Manila. The Rotary Club of Jefferson City West along with the Rotary Club of Butuan in the Philippines in cooperation with Global Action Platform have launched a major new international development initiative in the Philippines. The project is part of a comprehensive social-economic-environmental development project that will provide educational, leadership and economic development training for an initial 30,000 indigenous people. The project is the first stage in a long-term program to provide the same social development and training to about one million indigenous people in the coming years.

The initiative is designed to integrate education, understanding of economic strategy, and leadership development for the indigenous people into the commercial development of the natural assets of their region, thus combining social and financial capital development in a single, threaded process. The goal is to create a sustainable, inclusive market economy in which the indigenous people are stakeholders and beneficiaries, along with outside investors and business partners.

"All too often, the economic development of regions rich in natural assets, but with an impoverished local population, has left the local people in poverty and their lands degraded after development. We intend to build a robust, regenerative economy that sustains the well-being of both the people and the environment. We believe this project can demonstrate a new model of sustainable, shared value development at scale," notes Dr. Scott T. Massey, Chairman and CEO, Global Action Platform.

The two Rotary clubs, in their cooperation with Global Action Platform and a coalition of universities, NGOs, and agencies, are developing four integrated educational modules for the project. The four modules include teaching basic business principles and how to create land utilization plans for the region to help the indigenous people participate in strategy, as well as workforce. Second, the project provides training in basic workforce skills for an initial agri-business cluster dealing with timber, fiber, sugar, and coconut. Third, the initiative includes creation of a new K-12 curriculum that integrates the culture, language, and traditions of the indigenous people into contemporary knowledge and skills development to prepare the rising generations in the region for future work and fulfilling lives. Fourth, in collaboration with Clayton Christensen and Efosa Ojomo at the Christensen Institute, Harvard Business School, the program will create a new workshop for civic leadership designed to help tribal leaders understand the challenges, as well as the benefits of development. The leadership workshop will be based on Christensen and Ojomo's recent book The Prosperity Paradox. Moving a society from poverty, dependence, and non-consumption into prosperity, self-determination, and consumption is complex. Preserving and enriching personal and community ethical norms through such a transition is key to success and responsibility for that transition requires leadership. The leadership workshop will seek to address these needs.

"Our two Rotary clubs were eager to write a Rotary Global Grant when we became aware of the needs of the indigenous people. This Rotary Global Grant fits our area of focus called Economic and Community Development as well as touching on our Basic Education and Literacy area of focus. Funding this project fits two of Rotary's strategic initiatives which are to Expand our Reach and to Increase our Impact. We want to provide grants that partner with other organizations and will change economies and this is one that over time will do just that. With the financial help of seventeen Rotary districts and four Rotary clubs plus The Rotary Foundation matching these contributions from the World Fund, this grant was funded. We as Rotary clubs are excited to see this major innovation in development start with our help and participation, and we look forward to sharing this model with others in similar need in nations and regions around the world where Rotary works," says Rita Esterly, The Rotary Club of Jefferson City's Global Grants Chair.

ROTARY CLUB OF TAGUM GOLDEN LACES HISTORY

The names of 28 selected ladies were first floated by the Rotarians & Anns of RC Tagum North. Out of this number, 16 responded by attending the first organizational meeting held at Magnolia Kiosk along Quezon St., Tagum. Other ladies were later invited to the regular weekly meetings as prospective members of the club although their attendance along with some of those who were initially invited were irregular.
