How To Look Good In Every Photo

Reflect on when you plan on taking pictures or having them taken of you. If you are attending an event, think of the type of attire you plan to wear along with how you are going to wear your hair. Preparing for photos ahead of time will allow you to view yourself beforehand and feel comfortable when taking the pictures.

Favor the left side of your face. A US study conducted by Wake Forest University has revealed that the left side of the face is more attractive than the right, apparently due to the fact that this side of the face shows more emotion. To capture the perfect profile picture, look or angle your face slightly to the right to reveal your 'best' side. This can also help to give the illusion of a slimmer face for those with rounder faces.

Find colors that work for you by trying on outfits and various colors in front of a mirror. Choose a color that highlights your favorite features and makes you feel confident -- whether it goes with your eyes or your body's curves. Stick with bright, solid colors to keep the focus on your face, rather than your clothing. Avoid wearing excessive amounts of jewelry or cluttering on your accessories before taking a photo as this will distract from your face. Stay away from mixing and matching patterns or overly bright intricate designs that may be distracting in photos.

Choose your makeup carefully. For the perfect photo-ready appearance, make sure you avoid light reflective or mineral foundations containing high amounts of titanium dioxide (a reflective pigment). Although these foundations are great for an everyday luminous look, the flash of a camera can quickly transform your dewy complexion to a ghostly white one as the white light reflects back from the camera.

Drink plenty of water to stay hydrated and to keep your skin looking healthy. Washing and exfoliating your skin each night will help your skin have a fresh glow in photos. Get enough sleep each night to keep your eyes from having bags or underlining circles. Avoid drinking too much caffeine or having an excess of alcohol in your diet to keep your skin healthy and vibrant.

Practice various smiles in a mirror to find a look that feels comfortable and looks natural on you. Use a body mirror to practice different poses by standing straight with your shoulders arched back (ideal posture) to give yourself a strong and confident presence. Pose like a pro. If you're posing for a full body shot, try the classic celeb pose of turning your body three quarters of the way towards the camera, with one shoulder closer to the camera and one foot in front of the other. This will make you body appear slimmer than if you were facing the camera face on. Try keeping your back straight with your shoulders back and your stomach in (just try not to suck it in too much.) Look away from the lens. Nobody wants glaring red or half-shut eyes ruining an otherwise great photo, so make sure you avoid this by focusing your eyes just slightly above or below the lens, or look at the face of the photographer.

Looking directly at the lens causes light to flash off the retina, leading to the red eye effect. Looking slightly away from the camera will also reduce the risk of those mid-blink shots. Remember to relax and think "natural" when smiling and sharing expression on camera.

AUGUST is Membership Month

Impact starts with our members - people like you who want to be part of making the world a better place. At club meetings in communities across the globe, our members come together to strengthen their connections to friends and neighbors and their commitment to improving lives.

Benefits of Rotary Membership

Friendship ~ In an increasingly complex world, Rotary provides one of the most basic human needs; the need for friendship & fellowship.

It is one of two reasons Rotary began in 1905.

Business Development ~ The second original reason for Rotary's beginning is business development. Everyone needs to network.

Rotary consists of a cross section of every business community. It's members come from all walks of life. Rotarians help each other and collectively help others.

Personal Growth & Development ~ Membership in Rotary continues one's growth & education in human relations & personal development.

Leadership Development ~ Rotary is an organization of leaders & successful people. Serving in Rotary is like a college education. Leadership: - learning how to motivate, influence, and lead leaders.

Continuing Education ~ Each week at Rotary there is a program designed to keep one informed about what is going on in the community, nation and world. Each meeting provides an opportunity to listen to different speakers and a variety of timely topics.

Fun ~ Rotary is fun, a lot of fun. Each meeting is fun. Social activities are fun. The service is fun.

Public Speaking Skills ~ Many individuals who join Rotary were afraid to speak in public. Rotary develops confidence and skills in public communications and the opportunity to practice and perfect these skills.

Citizenship in the World ~ Every Rotarian wears a pin that says "Rotary International". There are a few places on the globe that do not have a Rotary Club. Every Rotarian is welcome - even encouraged - to attend any of the over 34,000 clubs over 200 nations and geographic regions. This means instant friends in both one's own community and in the world community.

Entertainment ~ Every Rotary club and district has parties and activities that provide diversions in one's business life. Rotary holds conferences, assemblies, and institutes that provide entertainment in addition to Rotary information, education and service.

The Development of Social Skills ~ Every week and at various events and functions Rotary develops one's personality, social skills and people skills. Rotary is for people who like people

Vocational Skills ~ Every Rotarian is expected to take part in the growth and development of his or her own profession or vocation; to serve on committees and to teach youth about one's job or vocation. Rotary helps to make one a better doctor, lawyer, teacher, etc.

The Development of Ethics ~ Rotarians practice a 4 Way Test that governs one's ethical standards. Rotarians are expected to be ethical in business and personal relations.

Cultural Awareness ~ Around the world, practically every religion, country, culture, race, creed, political persuasion, language, color and ethnic identity is found in Rotary. It is a cross section of the world's most prominent citizens from every background. Rotarians become aware of their cultures and learn to love and work with people everywhere. They become better citizens of their countries in the process.

Family Programs ~ Rotary provides one of the worlds largest youth exchange programs; high school and college clubs for future Rotarians; opportunities for spouse involvement; and a host of activities designed to help family members in growth and the development of family values.

The absence of an "Official Creed" ~ Rotary has no secret handshake, no secret policy, no official creed, no secret meetings or rituals. It is an open society of men and women who simply believe in helping others.

The Opportunity to Serve ~ Rotary is a service club. It's business is mankind. Its product is service. Rotarians provide community service to both local and international communities. This is perhaps the best reason for becoming a Rotarian: the chance to do something else and to sense the self-fulfilment that comes in the process and return of that satisfaction to one's own life. It is richly rewarding.

TIBUNGCO : PARTNERS IN CREATING POSITIVE AND LASTING CHANGE

Ma. Corazon B. Reyes
Past President
zonyreyes@yahoo.com

BACKGROUND:

In the late 1990s, Davao City Urban Planning and Development assigned Tibungco Relocation Area as the resettlement site of the homeless and squatters. They were longtime informal settlers living with their entire family under the bridge, alongside the highway, or the city garbage dumping site.

As they found new hope in a new environment, the physical, psycho-social, economic and political challenges of a new community also faced new trials to these marginalized society of about 1700 population, and still growing.

OBJECTIVES :

Sensitive to these needs, the Rotary club of Waling-waling Davao (RCWWD) took their shoes and walked their talk....

Coordinating and collaborating with the local group TRHAI (Tibungco Relocation Housing Association Inc), community health diagnosis showed the need to help the very vulnerable sector – the children. Three Matching Grants were implemented within a span of 5 years which provided immunization, fresh milk feeding and nutrition counseling to all children under one year old. For the improvement of economic status, another Matching grant was provided with "No Interest Microlending" for small entrepreneurs.

But the most sustainable MATCHING GRANT project is the RCWWD BASIC LITERACY through Day Care Center service for children between 4-6 years old under the program of the Davao City Social Service Development, a government agency partner in service for 16 years. The building which was constructed through the help of World Community Service District 2790 and RC Narashino, Chiba, Japan is a testimony of the strong relationship with international partners. Their delegates come annually every January to visit the children and express their enthusiasm to continue their support. Their presence provide a sense of pride and joy to the community as they experience the concern of Rotarians from overseas.

The day care has an average of 70 enrollees.
(Level 1 and level 2 in two different sessions)

Annually, the Rotarians commit their support to enhance education in a holistic approach.

Every year, the Barangay officials headed, City Health officers, Nutrition Counsellors, Social Workers, Dental Assn. of Davao through the diligence of Dr. Gigi Espiritu, Veterinarians of Davao City through the courtesy of Dr. D. Vilela, Bureau of Plant Industry, and other organizations support this RCWWD Day Care Center.

VALUES OF THIS PROGRAM

◦ Literacy amongst the formative years

The focal beneficiary of this laudable project of the RCWWD is the Literacy Development of the children under 6 years old in the Day Care Center of Tibungco. It is without a doubt that the long term effect of good education for this young sector of the society can bring positive change and lifetime benefit not just to themselves but to the entire community and the nation at large.

Case in point is a graduate of Ateneo de Davao University, Ms. Arguilla, who traces her beginnings from this small day care as a level 1 student. She is now pursuing her dreams, once thought might be an unreachable star.

◦ Hope for the youth

Truth is witnessed every day in this resettlement and relocation of former urban squatters. Children who are growing up in an environment where the reality of hardship doesn't go away can be frustrating. However, those who are given the hope and opportunity to develop their fullest academic potential through quality Day Care service and who are well loved and given as much in emotional support by their families will surely develop the character that will bring lasting change.

◦ Cooperation and Participation for Community Development

To achieve the fullest potential of every young person needs a lot of support, starting from a well nurturing family, a day care center where curriculum for comprehensive and holistic child development is well emphasized, a community where social respect is encouraged. There is active participation both from the local agencies and non-government agencies in supplementing the aspirations of many who do not have access to basic services.

In Tibungco Relocation Area, the Rotary Club of Waling waling Davao Day Care will stay.

It is a privilege to care and share.

Membership Engagement: The Key to Retention

Developed for Rotary District 6510 Assembly, April 23, 2016
by Membership Development Chairs, Deborah Frey & Mike Russel

Rotary club members are part of a diverse group of professional leaders working to address various community and international service needs. Through community service and other means, Rotary club members help promote peace and understanding throughout the world. Our members are our most important asset. They are the force that allows Rotary to carry out its many humanitarian efforts and achieve its mission.

Why join Rotary ?

Each Rotary club strives for a membership that is an up to date and progressive representation of its community's business, vocation and professional interests. Membership in Rotary offers a number of benefits including:

- Effecting change within the community
- Developing leadership skills
- Gaining an understanding of and having an impact on international humanitarian issues.
- Developing relationships with community and business leadership.

Rotarians are business and professional leaders who take an active role in their communities while greatly enriching their personal and professional lives. A Rotary club should contain a diverse group of professional leaders from the community that the club serves.

Rotary membership is by invitation only.

An important distinction between Rotary and other organizations is that membership in Rotary is by invitation. Rotary clubs invite individuals to join and become members.

Membership is vital to a Rotary club's operations and community service activities. A primary goal of the club is to continually expand the club with committed members who have the interest and ability to get involved in service and humanitarian projects.

Rotary club membership carries with it certain responsibilities.

- Members are expected to attend weekly programs of the club. Opportunities to make up attendance include attending the regular meeting of another Rotary club, attending various other Rotary meetings, or attending a club service project authorized by the club board of directors.
- Members are required to pay annual dues to their clubs, their districts, and to Rotary International.
 - Members are expected to participate in local or international activities or projects of the Rotary club.

THE CLASSIFICATION PRINCIPLE

Classifications: professional representation

Rotary uses a classification system to establish and maintain a vibrant cross-section or representation of the community's business, vocational, and professional interests among members and to develop a pool of resources and expertise to successfully implement service projects.

This system is based on the founders' paradigm of choosing cross-representation of each business, profession, and institution within a community.

A classification describes either the principal business or the professional service of the organization that the Rotarian works for or the Rotarian's own activity within the organization.

Some examples of classifications include: high schools, universities, eye surgery, banking, pharmaceutical retailing, petroleum-distribution, and insurance agency.

Connecting the World

The theme for this Rotary Year aptly defines the role of Rotarians in today's modern world of technology where most people meet in space called the internet described scribed as the information highway.

Connecting is merely reaching out to people we are targeting to help make positive changes in their lives. Since our presence is felt worldwide, thus the scope is as vast. We want to remain significant therefore, we make the connection.

The goal of connectivity has been achieved worldwide with the aid of technology using various social media and other e-commerce platforms.

It has been a popular tool to reach out to people of various cultures in order to get the information across and take action

We are very fortunate to have been aided with modern communication otherwise we are not able to successfully reach out to other Rotarians worldwide in real time. This is very crucial to our cause of delivering prompt service to as many communities that needed our assistance. This gives us the opportunity of connecting the world through the various projects we are implementing.

The rotary.org which is a dedicated website serving as a window for Rotarians and other interested parties to see what projects we do and what other stakeholders could participate in under Rotary Ideas is very useful.

The exchanges derived from the group posts will allow Rotarians from other countries to learn from each other's experiences.

All these are courtesy of modern technology that changes the way we connect with people of various cultures.

We have not only achieved a more efficient communication to aid us in connecting the world but we have also managed to avail of faster means of traveling.

We are now more connected because we can actually be in many places around the world by availing various air and land transportation. We can better manage our time and resources in ways we know that is efficient.

Rotarians are more capable of delivering better service because of the modern day convenience.

We are definitely grateful for these developments and therefore we are more accomplished in terms of achieving our goals.

The engagements we do with various communities are enhanced because we can communicate with them in more ways than one. Much of these efforts are directed towards monitoring projects for sustainability

These are exactly my own appreciation of Rotary's goal for this year.

There may be more sublime meaning to this theme but my discernment was mainly focused on the precept of connectivity based on how we have achieved it through modern technology, because it changes the way we live in many ways.

As Rotarians, it changes the way we think, learn and connect. Create positive changes in order for us to strengthen the many ways that Rotary Connects the World.
