VOLUME °28 / ISSUE 10

O Father, give us the humility which realizes its ignorance, admits its mistakes, recognizes its need, welcomes advice, accepts rebuke.

Help us always to praise rather than to criticize, to sympathize rather than to discourage, to build rather than to destroy, and to think of people at their best rather than at their worst.

This we ask for thy name's sake.

Amen

One great Rotary bonding is when members go beyond the confines of club meetings and attend District functions like seminars or conventions or simply a community service activity.

Out of Davao City seminar destinations for instance give us the opportunity to have our usual fun chika along the way .. Not to mention the fact that we almost always have the most luxurious ride ever (thanks to PP Lorna, PP Malou & Dir Letty).

To those members who are always up for a long ride, you know what I am talking about.

Our talks would ranged from teleserye to Kathniel to Jadine to Anderson Cooper to Rotary — not necessarily in that order... mundane conversations but it helped one to get to know the other because our talks are mostly unfiltered.

I hope other members would take time to join other Rotary activities because the only way to really know someone is to spend time with her and in as much as the little pockets of time we give to Rotary each meeting, there is still nothing like long bonding hours together, travelling to another Rotary event.

Hope y'all can be there when the next opportunity comes.

IS OUR CLUB HEALTHY?

Let's all guard against the following unhealthy symptoms:

- ° malnutrition due to lack of commitment
- general debility due to lack of interest in participating in service projects,
- aging through loss of membership growth and vision:
- disease from carelessness in classification,
- apathy towards attendance, and
- Self above service.

Our 9th Regular Meeting last week was like no other. It was not only educational and informative, but it was invigorating, exhilarating and entertaining to borrow the words from PP Lorna .

Thanks to the members of the September Host group Radiant headed by its Team Leader PP Marivic for a well-thought out programme complete with Rotaquiz and Rotary Information on Basic Education and Literacy which is the Rotary theme for September.

Last September 7, VP/PE Gigi, PP/Club Sec Baby, Membership Director Ces, PP Lorna and I attended the Membership Seminar for Mindanao clubs held at Roadway Inn, in JP Laurel Ave. Davao City. The topics discussed were the following:

- Membership updates
- Rotary District 3860 Website 201
- ° Is you club membership fit & healthy
- Attracting new members
- Best practices to Rotarize members
- Crafting the Strategic Plan on club membership
- ° Getting the Host in Online Membership Training
- ° To post or not to Post

The seminar was well attended, the topics were interesting and the speakers were great.

This Saturday, September 14, Rotary clubs from Area 2A, 2B and 2C will have a joint district activity dubbed One Rotary, One District Mangrove Planting, Coastal Clean-up at 7:00 AM at Aboitiz Cleanergy Park, Punta Dumalag, Matina Aplaya.

I am asking you ladies to join in this noble undertaking as the importance of the Mangrove Ecosystem cannot be overemphasized enough, especially at this time where the effects of global warming are evidenced around the world.

Let us do our part even in our own small way.

September 2019

Ni hao, Rotarians!

I hope you are making plans for the upcoming Rotary International Convention. Rotarians who live near the Pacific Ocean are especially excited!

Next year's event is in beautiful Hawaii, and I know everyone is eager to make the journey to that island paradise.

So "give me five" by signing up right now for the Honolulu convention if you haven't already — and make a plan for how you are going to help The Rotary Foundation reach new heights in 2019.

We are transforming lives everywhere, and it's all because of you.

We remind you often about the importance of giving to the Annual Fund. These donations are making the world a better place, not just by helping to end polio now and forever. Your donations make every type of Rotary grant around the world possible.

But many of you don't know something just as important: Contributing to the Rotary Endowment ensures our future. I hope you will consider creating your own legacy by making a gift to the endowment.

The idea behind it is simple and very powerful. Rotary's Endowment supports Foundation programs today and into the future.

We have a goal of $2.025 billion by 2025.

We will reach that goal with your support. And once we do, amazing things will be possible. Just by drawing from the annual investment earnings, the Foundation will have about $100 million every year — year after year — for all kinds of life-changing and lifesaving projects. This will be an amazing accomplishment and will truly secure our Foundation long into the future.

This month, I want to give out two very special high-fives. The first goes to the Rotary Club of Taipei Roundtable. Members collected and donated $10,000 to End Polio Now during the installation ceremony for Club President Jeff Lin. Then, during a changeover ceremony a few days later, District 3750 in Korea inducted six new Arch Klumph Society members, bringing their total to eight. Congratulations for the outstanding job by new District Governor Yun Young-Jung!

The generosity of Rotarians continues to give my life great joy and purpose, and I hope it does for you as well.

SUPPORTING EDUCATION

Nelson Mandela said. 'Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.'

It's in this context that The Rotary Foundation's focus on basic education and literacy needs to be seen. Our two daughters have been fortunate to receive a good education, and we wish to contribute in our own small way towards educating those less fortunate. We're hopeful that as educated girls, the mothers of tomorrow, they will ensure education for their own children and create an environment that fosters peace and love.

We firmly believe that little by little, through the 'weapon' of education, those empowered by Rotary will help the human race find a way to coexist peacefully and preserve our beautiful planet for future generations."

UCATION & LITE

In celebration of Basic Education Month, we recognize Dir Elsie Libron. She was a teacher & principal for more than 30 years in various public elementary schools. Thank you Dir Elsie !!!

soon to be!!

Rotary Information

Illiteracy lies at the root of poverty, ranking as one of the prime impediments to earning a living wage. An estimated one billion people -- three fifths of them women -- do not have the literacy and numeracy skills needed to hold a job or get a better one. Helping people learn these skills and become self-sufficient is one of the most critical tools for fighting poverty.

Because girls do not have access to education in many parts of the world, providing women with literacy skills can have far-reaching positive effects.

A mother who can read will teach her children to read, helping to break the cycle of poverty for her family.

Although 98 percent of the world's illiterate live in developing countries, more than one-third of the adults in industrialized countries cannot read well enough to decipher prescriptions or fill out employment forms'

Rotary's Response

In 1985, Rotary International declared basic literacy to be a fundamental pre-condition to the development of peace. Rotarians are urged to address a range of literacy issues including primary education, vocational education, teacher training and adult education.

Many Rotary club members promote what is termed "lighthouse" literacy projects – which utilize the Concentrated Language Encounter method (CLE) – those that can be replicated easily, thereby increasing the scope of their impact.

Early Childhood Literacy and Primary Education

Early literacy training is critical to the success of a child's later education.
Rotarians work with children, parents, and educators to encourage and build reading skills at an early age. In 2004, Rotary clubs in Brazil established Educafé, a primary school for the children of coffee farmers in a remote part of Bahia State. Previously, 80 percent of local children had not attended school or received regular meals. The school provides education, meals, uniforms, transportation, books, supplies, and preventive health care for nearly 80 children.

Adult Literacy Programs

Many adults in both the developed and developing world lack the skills they need to hold a job or perform basic tasks required by everyday life. The hardships caused by illiteracy, from the difficulty in finding employment to the constant pressure to cover it up, often lead to a host of other problems.

In Turkey, nearly 10,000 adults – 95 percent of whom are Kurdish Turkish women – have participated in Rotary's CLE programs, where they acquire basic literacy skills and vocational training.

Similarly, Rotary members in Egypt have managed a CLE program that has provided nearly 5,000 students with basic literacy skills, reproductive health education, and sewing instruction.

Rotary a lift

Literacy and Women

Because girls do not have access to education in many parts of the world, the illiteracy rate among women exceeds that of men.

Studies of illiteracy rates in low-income countries have shown a 20 percent difference between the genders.

In 2008 the New Zabuli Education Center, a free year-round school located 30 miles outside of Kabul, Afghanistan, opened for girls who were not educated under the Taliban.

Funded and organized by a United States Rotary club, the center has enrolled 200 children, ages 4-15, and classes for adult women are planned.

In Jalalabad, the Rotary Club of La Jolla Golden Triangle, San Diego, Calif. USA, has supported numerous educational initiatives for girls and young women, from elementary school through the university level for over a decade.

BASIC EDUCATION AND LITERACY PROJECT STRATEGIES

When you teach somebody how to read, they have that for a lifetime. It ripples through the community, one by one.

Mark Wilson Rotary Club member

ASSESSING THE COMMUNITY

Determining your community's needs and resources is an important starting point for any community project. Work with local stakeholders to complete a thorough community assessment.

By including the community and local subject matter experts from the start, you will not only identify the most appropriate project but also ensure support and sustainability for your endeavors.

Key stakeholders in a basic education and literacy project should include school administrators, teachers, school staff, parents of students, students, and local community members.

Members of the ministry or department of education (local and national) are also key stakeholders.

When conducting an assessment, ask open-ended questions to invite answers beyond yes and no.

Focus on identifying opportunities for skill building with the community, not just on materials that may be

For example, you might ask teachers "What skills you would like to develop?" or

"What are your goals for your students? How can we help you achieve them?"

You might ask parents ...

"What kind of job would you like your children to have as an adult? What skills or education will they need to achieve that goal?"

Avoid going into a community or school with an idea of what's needed. It's easy to look around and decide what you think a community needs, especially if you live in it or near it. Instead, listen to a variety of community stakeholders and hear their needs and concerns directly.

REMEMBER:

If your club wants to do a global grant, you will need to scale up your project beyond providing materials.

Global grants do not support projects that consist exclusively of equipment purchases.

Consider working with the community to identify other activities that will help to meet their educational goals in addition to providing resources

Don't forget about the students! Ask them questions like,

"What do you like about your school?" or "Tell me about your dreams for your school."

Students like being involved and meeting visitors. Most important, they're the ones who will benefit the most from a good project.

Understanding what they like and don't like is essential to the success of your project.

Finally, remember to take stock of the community's assets, not just their needs.

Communities are often able to meet their own needs without the help of outsiders.

Sometimes all it takes is facilitating a discussion or bringing together different stakeholders to set things in motion.

Ask community members if they know people with specific skill sets or other organizations that are working with the community to address the challenges they've identified. Knowing this can help you avoid duplicating efforts and allow you to focus on the issues they wouldn't be able to address without your help.

If this is your first literacy project, consider simple, short-term goals.

Once you've achieved these goals, build on your success by expanding the scope of your efforts to ensure long-term sustainability.

My Perspective

IPP Marilou Baarde malou64@gmail.com

The opportunity to serve communities will never be endless as there are countless of people needing basic services.

Our local government in Davao City has been keen in partnering with various organizations like Rotary in implementing programs intended to alleviate poverty in the City not to mention projects that cater to education, disease prevention and treatment, skills training, economic development, peace and conflict prevention, water and sanitation, maternal and child care and youth engagement among others.

Indeed, we never run out of possibilities to render service that accounts 100% of our work as Rotarians. We make good of our mission to be change makers that create a difference in many people's lives. It is a real joy to impart knowledge and skills that allow people to improve their capabilities in order to increase their chances of having a better life. As we always say, "we change lives, one step at a time".

Making our projects successful is the most challenging aspect of our mission.

We can only hope to improve on the process of project formulation and implementation in order to strengthen our undertakings.

This can be derived from good leadership, effective and efficient communication lines for which valuable information is shared constantly, equitable distribution of resources across the global networks of Rotary and most importantly, accountability.

To safeguard losses and failures, we need to constantly review our policies and regulations. And since we are a service organization, we should not politicize our process. Respect to other people's ideas and opinions should be exercised at all times. We may have the hierarchy just like in any organization but we should always remember that the work we do is voluntary and everyone is considered valuable in every aspect.

The membership base should be strengthened by all means. In order for us to do our work efficiently so service can be provided, we have to grow as an organization and not regress.

The challenges we face is always directed in maintaining and sustaining members.

We may be inclined to do service within the six areas of focus but sometimes we forget the very basic need of growing our membership.

We probably should start within ourselves and to offer service of empathy, understanding and sharing of knowledge and experiences to new and tenured members of our club.

We should be more inclusive rather than exclusive. The opportunity for service should start within our own circle. We should look beyond the concept of "service above self" because we cannot give what we do not have.

The amount of time we dedicate to serving humanity should also include our very own members. Service is such a profound vocabulary that we should understand to be applied also within our organization to help members improve in its delivery.

Service should be given with the purest of intention and the absence of greed makes it more rewarding. We should do away with ego and self-centeredness and not to do service for ourselves, for our own happiness, peace and wellness.

Please don't get me wrong, I am not an idealist but rather a hopeful member of Rotary.

My own experience and objectivity brings about the thoughts written in this article.

I may be perceptive but I care so much for Rotary and what its advocates.

Just like any member, I am a believer! Gandhiji always held the service in high regard and in his own words, "I am endeavoring to see God through service of humanity; for I know that God is neither in heaven, nor down below, but in everyone." ~

CORE VALUES: SERVICE • FELLOWSHIP DIVERSITY • INTEGRITY • LEADERSHIP ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

- Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
- Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations 2. with respect
- Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
- Avoid behavior that reflect adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do

- Is it the TRUTH?
- Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service:

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY'S SIX AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most important, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in six areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

- Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
- Disease prevention and treatment
- Water and sanitation
- Maternal and child health
- Basic education and literacy
- Economic and community development
