JUST DON'T

- Wear a multitude of clashing prints and patterns at the same time. They will look like a punch in the eye. Unless you are in a fashion runway
- Pair a digital watch with a dressy outfit. If you don't own a dress watch just go for a bracelet.
- Dress like a teenager if you could almost be the mom of one. Never try to look like someone you are not, so act and dress your age.
- Wear black underwear with a sheer white outfit. Not sexy.
- Pair long jackets with long skirts. You will look bigger than you are.
- Wear fake accessories. True connoisseurs will get it. And won't appreciate it.
- Wear silver jewelry when your outfit has gold hardware, and vice-versa.
- Go for leggings or pants with big prints. They will make your legs look heavier

- Wear sky high heels or really tight skirts you cannot walk in. Unless you want to entertain the onlookers

- Wear festive sequins, rhinestones or lamé before 6 p.m. Oh please no...

The celebration of Breast Cancer Awareness Month through the ONE ROTARY ONE DISTRICT PINK OCTOBER 2019 was a huge success.

Thanks to the RC Downtown Davao for leading this activity with the participation of Rotary clubs in Area 2. The launch of this event last October 14 at the flag raising ceremony of Davao City Hall employees was well attended by many Rotarians including 11 members from RCWWD wherein a motorcade around the city followed.

In the same occasion, the champion presidents turned over to the City Health Officer, Dr. Josephine Villafuerte the posters on Polio Awareness Campaign to be distributed to the Barangay Health Centers and some schools in Davao City.

Last October 17's two activities at Abreeza Mall, the Health Forum on Breast Cancer Awareness with guest celebrity speaker Ms. Bibeth Orteza and the Pink Zumba which followed that evening were both a big hit.

And lest we forget... thank you PE Gigi for the lunch at Chika-an and former member Sangita Chotrani who was in town, for treating us at Italianis on that same day.

Another activity undertaken last Saturday October 19 was the "Sabayang Patak Kontra Polio" in celebration of World Polio Day.

With the re-emergence of this deadly disease, Rotary's campaign in collaboration with government agencies to put a stop to this has intensified now more than ever.

Thank you Past Presidents Zony, Vangie, Marivic and Baby for accompanying me last Sunday, October 20 to a breakfast fellowship meeting with Rotary Club of East Davao, GIFU NAKA Rotary club of Japan led by President Tetsuya Ohashi and Secretary Yoshitaka Yakugawa as well as Jo Alindajao of Integrated Primary Health Care (IPHC DMSF)

Today, let us recognize and appreciate our members who have invited members to the club past and present.

Also, Please be reminded of our upcoming activities this November: Kublai Milan Art Exhibit on November 5-14 with opening & Ribbon Cutting on November 5, Governor's visit on November 11 and Governo'r Night on November 15.

Please mark your calendar and be counted.

May this afternoon's meeting be a happy and a lively one and relieve us of the bit of shock we had experienced brought about by the recent 6,3 magnitude earthquake.

May God help and protect us all !

4 Ways to Empower your Community

by Rotary Service & Engagement (www.rotary.org)

The United Nations reports 470 million jobs are needed globally for new entrants to the labor market between 2016 and 2030.

Unemployment, underemployment, lack of economic opportunity, lack of appropriate training, and the absence of social safety nets lie at the core of poverty. For the poor, labor is often the only option to improve well-being.

Creating productive employment opportunities is essential for reducing poverty and achieving sustainable economic and social development, and for providing income security and empowerment especially for women, people with disabilities, youth, and the extremely poor.

Rotary clubs all over the world work with communities to advance local economies.

Every community has different needs and different opportunities for service.

High-impact projects begin with a community assessment with active involvement and commitment from community members.

If your assessment reveals economic and community development needs, they likely fall into one or more of the following categories:

- Youth unemployment
- Obstacles to entrepreneurship
- Barriers to agricultural opportunities and livelihood
- Lack of resources to address extreme poverty

Adelante Foundation microcredit client Dona Ninfa (center) sells vegetables at the market in La Esperanza, Honduras. The Adelante Foundation's microcredit program, which offers women loans and business

Below are four ways you can take action to address these needs.

- Provide skills/ leadership training and job network to youth
Skills and leadership development is an important component of youth employment and poverty reduction. Youth leadership development can contribute to lifting individuals out of poverty by improving access to work, increasing productivity, and fostering sustainable economic growth.
- Provide microloans and financial literacy training to women entrepreneurs
Through microloans, millions of struggling individuals with no credit history, collateral, or steady income can get access to basic financial services. These small, low-interest loans provide seed money to start, sustain, or expand an income-generating business venture.
- Identify local barrier barriers to agricultural opportunities/livelihood
According to the United Nations, in 2013, an estimated 842 million people worldwide suffered from chronic hunger and 98% of them lived in developing regions. Successful agricultural projects result from thorough community assessments and lead to increased and more secure income from agriculture. Identifying local barriers and assets, along with appropriate intervention plans, can help communities sustain and accelerate agricultural growth. Community involvement is crucial for sustainable change.
- Adopt-a-village
Adopt-a-village projects address extreme poverty holistically in communities that lack the resources to meet basic human needs. With active involvement from the community, these projects invest in the leadership skills of community members in one location to implement a multifaceted but coordinated strategy in that community. The ultimate project goal should be to increase self-sufficiency of individuals and families and help them revitalize their community by alleviating extreme poverty. A successful adopt-a-village initiative will result in a community-created plan to continue local development and improve lives beyond the project.

Rotary and the Classification Principle

by Darrell Portz / RC Yellowknife Canada

Virtually all membership in Rotary is based upon a "classification".

Basically, a classification describes the distinct and recognized business or professional service that the Rotarian renders to society.

The principle of Rotary classification is somewhat more specific and precise.

In determining the classification of a Rotarian, it is necessary to look at the "principal or recognized business or professional activity of the firm, company, or institution" with which an active member is connected or "that which covers the active member's principal and recognized business or professional activity." It should be clearly understood that classifications are determined by activities or services to society rather than by the position held by a particular individual.

In other words, if a person is the president of a bank, he or she is not classified as "bank president" but under the classification "banking." The classification principle also permits businesses and industries to be separated into distinct functions such as manufacturing, distributing, retailing, and servicing

The classification principle is a necessary concept in assuring that each Rotary club represents a cross section of the business and professional service of the community

Seven Habits of Highly Effective Rotarians – by Dr. Jagdish Bhat, D-3140, India

1: ATTENDANCE

Effective Rotarians always try to attend their club meetings or make up at other clubs as much as possible. They are aware that regular attendance is an important part of their membership commitment and do not miss a chance to attend. They participate on committees which they are members of, plus in others if invited. They are keen to attend all club events and district functions. They participate in the District Assembly and District Conference each year, and have attended a recent Rotary International Convention.

2: FELLOWSHIP

Effective Rotarians enjoy meeting other members and often feel that fellowship is as important to Rotary as the actual business part of a meeting. They go out of their way to talk to those whom they do not know and believe that a stranger is just a friend they have not met yet. Outside of Rotary, they also enjoy meeting people and getting acquainted with them. At large Rotary gatherings they make an effort to meet others, rather than just fraternizing with friends from their own club

3: VOCATION

Effective Rotarians respect every vocation and understand how the classification system is the basis of Rotary. They firmly believe that each vocation provides a cog in the wheel and is important, however insignificant it may appear. They firmly believe each member should try to excel in their job and they try to support and help others to reach their full potential

4: DISCIPLINE

Effective Rotarians understand the value of self-discipline and know that productive accomplishments are hard to achieve without it. They realize that both inner and outer discipline must be maintained in a proper balance and can enforce both disciplines when and where required.

5: TIME, MONEY, AND ENERGY

Effective Rotarians know they have a purpose in Rotary and fully realize they must earmark a certain amount of time, money and energy to maintain this commitment. They also realize these three things should be shared in proper balance between their family, vocation and community.

6: EMPATHY

Effective Rotarians put themselves in the position of the other person, especially if that person is in difficulty. They know that mere sympathy may not be enough, can be empathetic and feel compassion for the difficulties of others. They believe that what they are doing for their community is merely returning a small part of what they have already received from it. While they may appreciate recognition for their efforts they do not hanker for it.

7: IMAGE OF ROTARY

Effective Rotarians may sometimes feel that all is not right with Rotary or there are too many "Politics". They know some elements in Rotary need improvement but rather than be negative they use a positive approach to help rectify things. They maintain a positive attitude and portray a good image of Rotary, both inside and outside the organization

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflect adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do

- Is it the TRUTH?
- Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY'S SIX AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most important, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in six areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

- Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
- Disease prevention and treatment
- Water and sanitation
- Maternal and child health
- Basic education and literacy
- Economic and community development
