Rotary  Invocation

Lord, we give thanks for the light you bring to humankind.
We give thanks for the light this Rotary Club has shed throughout its long history on so many others, both here at home and throughout the world.

We pray that strength and courage be abundantly given to all who work for the world of reason and understanding, that the good that lies in every heart may, day by day, be magnified, and that the true spirit of this meeting ... its joy, its beauty, its hope . . . and above all, its abiding faith . . . may live among us; that the blessing of peace be ours . . . the peace to build and grow, to live in harmony and sympathy with others, and to plan for the future with confidence. Amen.

Editor's Note

The holiday rush is something that we try to outsmart year after year, but with recession threateningly lurking behind every shopping corner, people are like looking at price tags first before the items.

With crowds rushing here, there and everywhere, our ability to hate the activity we love the most – shopping, is slowly mounting.

Everyone seems to be always in a rush – non-seasoned shoppers getting very aggressive, and professional shoppers trying to illegally catch the attention of sales ladies who they think know them, so that they should be served first... etc., and of course, there's that long line in the gift wrapping section where you stand for hours only to find out that those with Premier Shopper cards get to be served first... tsk, tsk, tsk., not to mention the cashier short changing the customers.

Given this sort of getting-on-your-nerve trips to the mall, gift-giving is no longer fun.

We tend to become this SANTAZILLA because we get annoyed at the slightest provocation (at least, I do!) creating unwanted attention when we raise our voices of complaints an octave higher. OMG

As we unpleasantly discover, Christmas is now celebrated with accompanying stress.

However, the joy of giving surpasses all of the above and we are at this age where it is better to give than to receive, so all that drama completely diminish once we see the faces of the recipients of our gifts.

They say Christmas is for kids, but then again, we all are kids at heart and the only difference being, kids appreciate gifts visually while we adults or rather some adults look at gifts as something coming from the heart.

Today's Rotary Christmas gift to our school kids from DIHO & Gotamco Day Care Center is our WASH Project. Together with our long time partner Davao City Water District, we hope that these kids will know the value of hygiene and sanitation.

Such a great gift Rotary can offer.

Nice day y'all !!

PresScoop

The election is over, the members of the Rotary Club of Waling-Waling Davao have spoken.

Congratulations to Director Ces Diaz for being elected as President Nominee and to all the new set of officers and members of the Board for Rotary Year 2020-2021 under the leadership of President-Elect Gigi Espiritu.

Those who were voted to office and called upon to serve should be proud that they have been entrusted to lead the club.

In celebration of World Aids Day, the joint activity of the Rotary Club of Waling-Waling Davao and Rotary Club of Sta. Ana in collaboration with Malayan Colleges Mindanao and Olympus Society of Davao on the HIV-AIDS Awareness Seminar last December 5, 2019 from 8AM-5PM was truly a successful event.

This was held at the activity area of Malayan Colleges Mindanao with the participation of its students.

There was a lecture in the morning with simultaneous free HIV-AIDS screening and testing of students conducted by the Olympus Society of Davao.

The speaker in the afternoon session, Patrick Albit, Assistant Regional Coordinator, Global Fund Project was definitely entertaining and captivating. He had everybody's attention especially the students, all to himself.

It was a no holds barred lecture on HIV-AIDS Awareness focusing on sexually transmitted infections (STI) that left every participant fascinated.

Hopefully everyone takes to heart all the learnings that one gets listening to the lecture.

On December 8, RCWWD participated in the celebration of Survivor's Day 2019 at the Waterfront Insular Hotel. It was a commemoration of the courage and bravery of the kids and their families as they went through the battle against cancer and also in remembrance of all those who did not make it to survive another day.

It was a fun-filled day for the children as they were regaled with the animated beat box presentation of Asia's Got Talent finalist Neil Llanes and the acrobatic performance for 30 minutes plus an array of games and prizes.

The celebration was capped with the inspirational message of Joven Ramirez who, at 5 years old, was diagnosed with leukemia.

Now cancer free for eleven years, she is back to school taking up Accountancy at Ateneo de Davao University, a living testament that there is indeed life after cancer and that if we give every child the chance to be treated for cancer, they can live their dreams.

On the same occasion, RCWWD turned over the check amounting to Two Hundred Eighty-Four Thousand (P 284,000.-) to House of Hope Foundation For Kids with Cancer, one of the three beneficiaries of the Kublai Fundraising Art Exhibit held last November 5-14, 2019 at Marco Polo Hotel.

On December 12, RCWWD in partnership with Davao City Water District will turnover 2 WASH Projects at DIHO Day Care Center in Ma-a and GOTAMCO Day Care Center in Agdao, Davao City.

Thanks to PP Malou Jacinto and Davao City Water District for choosing our club as partner in the fulfillment of your agency's Corporate Social Responsibility.

T. Yñiguez

Value of Rotary volunteering

A special report prepared for Rotary International by the Johns Hopkins Center for Civil Society Studies estimated the value of Rotary member volunteer hours at $850 million a year.

(posted: 6 December 2019 www.rotary.org)

That Rotary members log a lot of volunteer hours should come as no surprise to anyone familiar with the organization.

But a new report just released by Johns Hopkins University provides a powerful look at the impact of all those volunteer hours.

The special report prepared for Rotary International by the Johns Hopkins Center for Civil Society Studies found that Rotary members had volunteered a total of 5.8 million hours within a four-week survey period. Extrapolating those results over an entire year, the report gave a conservative estimate of nearly 47 million hours of volunteer effort generated by Rotary members in a typical year.

The report then analyzed the economic impact of all those hours and estimated the value conservatively at $850 million a year, if communities had to pay for the services that Rotary volunteers provide.

Rotary, with the help of Johns Hopkins University, is the first global service organization to conduct an empirical analysis of its volunteer's impact using an internationally sanctioned definition of volunteer work. The authors of the report noted in their conclusion that at each stop, the analysis had chosen the most conservative estimates.

"The lesson from this report is clear: volunteer service is not only a feel-good calling – it may provide one of the more powerful, and one of the more fulfilling, avenues through which to reach the ambitious United Nations Sustainable Development Goals," said Lester M. Salamon, director of the Johns Hopkins University Center for Civil Studies.

Rotary CEO and General Secretary John Hewko said "this is just the beginning of using the most innovative tools of measurement to capture and enhance our impact. As we better understand the vast contributions of volunteer work, we can mobilize this remarkable, but often undervalued, resource to better the world and thrive in the years to come."

Rotary Volunteers

Rotary Volunteers is one of Rotary International's structured programs which are designed to help clubs and districts achieve their service goals in their own communities and in communities abroad, fostering fellowship and goodwill in the process.

Rotary Volunteers Goals

- Encourage and facilitate participation in all types of volunteer activities
- Increase awareness of volunteer opportunities
- Help clubs and districts realize the benefits of using volunteers in their service projects, and assist in the identification of volunteers
- Improve quality of life worldwide through humanitarian service.
- Cultivate international understanding and goodwill

Recent Rotaract policy updates

The 2019 Council on Legislation amended the constitutional documents of Rotary International to include Rotaract clubs as a membership type. After this landmark decision in April, RI president Mark Maloney appointed the Elevate Rotaract Task Force, composed of Rotaractors and Rotarians, to recommend updates

Changes to the Code of Policies — effective 1 July 2020:

- Rotaract clubs will be able to establish a new club with or without a sponsor.
- Rotaract clubs will be able to choose other Rotaract clubs as their sponsors.
- Rotaract clubs will be open to all young adults at least 18 years old.
- Rotaract policies will be moved from Chapter V, "Programs," to a revised Chapter II, "Clubs."
- The Standard Rotaract Club Constitution and the Recommended Rotaract Club Bylaws will be amended to reflect these policy changes.
- Rotary districts are encouraged to include Rotaractors in every district committee.

Other key decisions:

- Rotaractors will pay per capita dues in the future, but the amount of dues and when we'll begin collecting them have not been determined.
- The RI president, the RI Board of Directors, and The Rotary Foundation Trustees should consider how Rotaractors might advise them on Rotaract matters.
- Rotary International has set goals for Rotaract to:
 - Increase the number of Rotaractors reported to Rotary by 100 percent by 2022
 - Increase the number of reported Rotaractors who join Rotary clubs by 20 percent by 2022
 - Increase the number of reported Rotaractors to 1 million by 2029

For several years, the Board, Trustees, committees, Rotarians, and Rotaractors around the world have been discussing how to elevate Rotaract and recognize Rotaract clubs as Rotary clubs' partners in service. Rotaractors have offered their ideas to the Board through RI's Rotaract Committee, at the annual Rotaract Preconvention, and through online surveys and focus groups — and it was time to take action.

Overwhelmingly, we heard that Rotaract was more than just a program and Rotaractors wanted more flexibility, more products and services, and more recognition from Rotary for the amazing work they're doing in their clubs, districts, and multidistricts.

After the 2019 Council on Legislation voted to officially recognize Rotaract clubs as a membership type, the President appointed the Elevate Rotaract Task Force to discuss how to update Rotaract policies to reflect this new status and create an inclusive, innovative, and flexible membership experience.

The changes to the Rotary Code of Policies don't take effect until 1 July 2020.

This gives you time to review and discuss the changes with your club and district. Of course, we know that changes take time to implement, and we encourage clubs and districts to develop plans to update their bylaws and incorporate these changes over time.

Starting 1 July 2020, the Rotary Code of Policies, in Chapter II, "Clubs," will have an updated Article 12 titled "Rotaract Clubs."

The policies related to Rotaract that are now in Chapter V, "Programs," under Article 41.040, will be removed as of 1 July 2020.

The Standard Rotaract Club Constitution will also be updated on 1 July 2020, and only the RI Board can amend it.

The Standard Rotaract Club Constitution automatically applies to all active Rotaract clubs.

The Recommended Rotaract Club Bylaws will also be updated at the same time, and clubs are encouraged to customize them to meet their needs.

Dear current and incoming Rotary club officers:

This is a friendly reminder to confirm your club membership and officer information in Rotary's database by 1 January 2020. We will use this information to generate your January 2020 club invoice.

It is important that your club's member information is up-to-date, because Rotary cannot change the club invoice after it has been generated or accept membership updates with your payment.

As a current club officer, you can ensure that your club invoice will be correct by checking the accuracy of the information in Rotary's database

Here is how:

Sign in to My Rotary and choose Manage, then Club & District Administration, Club Administration, and Club & Member Data.

Report all new or terminated members and 2019-20 club officers no later than 1 January 2020.

Members with admission dates of 1 January 2020 or before will be counted for the January 2020 club invoice.

Members with termination dates of 1 January 2020 or before will not be counted for the January 2020 club invoice.

Please note that incoming club officers can view data in My Rotary, but cannot make changes.

The 1 January 2020 due date also applies to clubs that use local country or district databases connected to RI, such as Club Collaborator, ClubCommunicator, DACdb, ClubRunner, RIBI Data Management Software, Harmony and SEMDA, to update membership.

Please make updates in your local database and then sign-in to My Rotary to verify the information there. Your club invoice is generated based on membership information recorded in Rotary's database, not your club's local database, so it is important to make sure Rotary has the latest information.

If you are unable to update your member information online, you can submit the Member Data Form in one of three ways:

- Scan and email it to data@rotary.org
- Fax it to +1-847-556-2207
- Mail it to your local Rotary office or fiscal agent early enough that it will arrive by 1 January 2020

In addition, any changes to subscriptions to The Rotarian (in English) should be reported to data@rotary.org prior to 1 January 2020.

For more information about the club invoice, including how-to guides and answers to frequently asked questions, go to My Rotary's Club Administration pages. For help with membership questions, contact: data@rotary.org.

Sincerely,

Thomas Woods

-- Funny Christmas Stories

(from funny Christmas stories.com)

What To Give An Optimist And A Pessimist

A family had twin boys whose only resemblance to each other was their looks.

If one felt it was too hot, the other thought it was too cold. If one said the TV was too loud, the other claimed the volume needed to be turned up. Opposite in every way, one was an eternal optimist, the other a doom and gloom pessimist

Just to see what would happen, at Christmas time their father loaded the pessimist's room with every imaginable toy and game. The optimist's room he loaded with horse manure.

That night the father passed by the pessimist's room and found him sitting amid his new gifts crying bitterly.

"Why are you crying?" the father asked.

"Because my friends will be jealous, I'll have to read all these instructions before I can do anything with this stuff, I'll constantly need batteries, and my toys will eventually get broken." answered the pessimist twin

Passing the optimist twin's room, the father found him dancing for joy in the pile of manure.

"What are you so happy about?" he asked.

To which his optimist twin replied,

"There's got to be a pony in here somewhere!"

It was coming up to Christmas and Sammy asked his mum if he could have a new bike. So, she told him that the best idea would be to write to Santa Claus.

But John, having just played a vital role in the school nativity play, said he would prefer to write to the baby Jesus. John went to his room and wrote '

Dear Jesus, I have been a very good boy and would like to have a bike for Christmas.'

But he wasn't very happy when he read it over.

So he decided to try again and this time he wrote 'Dear Jesus, I'm a good boy most of the time and would like a bike for Christmas.' He read it back and wasn't happy with that one either.

He tried a third version. 'Dear Jesus, I could be a good boy if I tried hard and especially if I had a new bike.' He read that one too, but he still wasn't satisfied.

So, he decided to go out for a walk while he thought about a better approach.

After a short time he passed a house with a small statue of the Virgin Mary in the front garden.

He crept in, stuffed the statue under his coat, hurried home and hid it under the bed.

Then he wrote this letter. 'Dear Jesus, If you want to see your mother again, you'd better send me a new bike.'

Stocking stuffers

One Christmas my husband put an assortment of beauty products in my stocking. I tried one of the facial masks, and was about to wash it off when my eight-year-old son, Callum, walked in.

I explained to him that it was a present from his dad and it would make me beautiful.

He patiently waited by my side as I rinsed and patted my face dry.

"Well, what do you think?" I asked.

"Oh, Mom, it didn't work!" Callum replied.

—Lynn Thibodeau, Ajax, Ont.

Misheard lyrics

When my niece was a student, her class of six-year-olds sang "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing" at a Christmas concert. The line "God and sinners reconciled" was a tricky one for this age group.

One little boy, with a voice that completely drowned out the rest of the choir, happily belted out, "God and sinners dressed in style!"

CORE VALUES: SERVICE • FELLOWSHIP DIVERSITY • INTEGRITY • LEADERSHIP

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflect adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do

- Is it the TRUTH?
- Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY'S SIX AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most important, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in six areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

- Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
- Disease prevention and treatment
- Water and sanitation
- Maternal and child health
- Basic education and literacy
- Economic and community development
