Editor's Note

Every induction of a Rotary leader prepares her/him for the duties and command responsibilities that come with the territory and as I observed from last week's activities, Pres Tess had proven her mettle... just looking chill and collected but actually feeling the exact opposite, and still managed to get things done.

Of course it helped that the PPs and some members were there for support.

It just proved that we always love our Incumbent regardless of who she is and will always be ready to go to the mud with her.

That is the RCWWD's recipe for success.

I am sure some members will agree with me that planning and actually executing a planned project is easier than entertaining would-be/prospective donors who one thinks can make or break the budget of a project,

This year's RC Narashino visit will (let us hope !) bring us more projects to our communities.... but then again every project we present to these generous friends of ours always touches their hearts and we make sure it also touches the hearts of our beneficiaries.

This equation always makes every project we present to them come to fruition.

We work hard and we also play hard.

Whenever the RC Narashino members come, we not only show them proudly where their donations went, but we always planned ahead (thank you PP Lorna) on where and how to entertain them and always with much success, that is maybe the reason why they keep on coming back every January.

We ❤️ RC Narashino !

Konnichiwa !

Over the weekend, we were joyfully excited to welcome 5 members of RC Narashino Japan, who arrived last January 17, 2020. The contingent proceeded to the Marco Polo Hotel for the much needed rest of RC Narashino members after long hours of delay due to the Taal volcano eruption.

The next morning, January 18, 2020, the group visited Matina Pangi and met with its RCC officers and members led by its president Carmen Badon for a possible funding for the upgrading and renovation of Matinal Pangi Multi purpose Center. Lunch followed at Jack's Ridge courtesy of Davao City Water District through PP Malou Jacinto. The visitors were treated to a meal of grilled tuna, kinilaw, sotanghon, to name a few.

In the evening, was the 28th Charter Anniversary "Tropical Party" of RCWWD held at the residence of Honorary Member Atty Tonying Llamas and PP Lorna. We were also honoured with the presence of Japan Consul General Yoshiaki Miwa and our ninong from RC East Davao PDG Reynaldo "Boy" Reyes and spouse Alice. Congratulatory messages of RC East Davao (RCWWD's sponsoring club) and RC Narashino President Hideho Iwano are printed in this week's BloomScoop issue .

RCWWD Honorary Member Ishii Yoshinori also delivered a congratulatory message which was translated to English by President-Elect Yoshino Haruhiko. Tokens from the club and members were then distributed to the 5 RC Narashino members. Honorary Member Ishii Yoshinori presented RC Narashino's "Omiyage" (gift) to RCWWD and another 3 envelopes coming from RC Narashino members: Mama Hisako Yoshikawa, PP Kobayashi Mitchishige & Yoshio Sugiyama to sustain the club projects.

My heartfelt thanks to the following Charter members: PPs Zony Reyes, Lorna Llamas, Remedios Calaguas, Rtns Luchie Aportadera & Corrie Cuison and all the Past Presidents who are still with us until now.

Special thanks to Honorary Member Nonoy Aquino for the lechon and Atty Tonying Llamas and spouse PP Lorna for hosting the send-off dinner the following day and PP Malou for the lunch at Jack's Ridge.

Also on January 19, 2020, a quick visit to San Rafael was made, to show RC Narashino the DUHA Day Care Center which was constructed using some of the money that they have donated before proceeding to Strawberry Hills in Kitao-tao, Bukidnon where we had lunch.

Despedida/Send-off party that evening was hosted by Honorary Member Atty Tonying Llamas and spouse PP Lorna. It was a night of fun games, good food and drinks. Before we parted, we sang the song "So Happy Together" popularized by the Turtles and Kenny Rogers' "Through the Years" which made some of us teary-eyed.

Seeing them off at the airport last Monday, January 20, 2020 concluded RC Narashino's visit.

The 28th Charter Anniversary Celebration of RCWWD was indeed a huge success !

To all the members of RC Narashino, allow me to say "DOMO ARIGATO GOZAIMASU" for the camaraderie and most especially for your generous support to RCWWD projects.

To our RCWWD members, thank you so much for putting up with me and despite the hectic schedule and heavy preparations, you still had the energy to show your best during this RC Narashino visit.

With this, I would like to offer a toast to all of you for the support and active participation in all our activities. KAMPAI !

Tonight, we are pleased to be visited by 3 members from the Rotary Club of Konosu , Japan. Please help me welcome Past President Kazuyoshi Ogawa. President-Elect Yasushi Kitagawa and International Service Chair Koichi Shinozaki.

May this evening's meeting be a fruitful one!

THE ROTARY CLUB OF NARASHINO

Mabuhay fellow members of RCWWD.

I am Hideho Iwano, President of RC Narashino.

I represent all Narashino members who want to express my appreciation for your kindness and hospitality because every year, you are so warm to our members who visit Davao City.

This year, I cannot visit you but in the future, I will.

Around the time, I feel the sense by watching Facebook of your members. I learn many things of RCWWD's powerful and voluntary activities.

This year's visitation, I expect two big purposes. One is our relationship will be more strong and effective. Another one is working together several years.

Now we need good result.

I hope our relationship will be growing and evolving each club more than now.

Thank you

CELEBRATING VOCATION

Break the sound barrier (as a teacher for the deaf)

Jean Irwin Hatfield, Rotary Club of Folsom, California

When I decided to become a teacher for the deaf, I enrolled in a program at Fresno State. We started with 80 candidates, but by graduation we were down to 13. That's how intense the program was.

People don't realize the linguistic challenges of deaf students, especially the trouble they have learning to read.

Why is that?

Because reading is a sound/symbol system.

You don't read with your eyes but with your ears.

This is why blind students, for instance, read at the same level as their sighted peers, while deaf students might graduate from high school reading at a fourth-grade level.

When I started out, 38 years ago, teachers dealt with this problem using workarounds, trying to figure out how to get information to deaf students in ways that didn't involve reading. Then I heard about a professor in England, David Wood, who was doing groundbreaking work with the deaf. He was studying artificial intelligence, and he fed a computer all the rules of English and programmed it to generate language. But the language that came out was very strange. He passed it around to his colleagues and someone said, 'That's deaf language!' And he had this epiphany: A computer is deaf! A computer has no ear for language. So he realized that he would have to study how deaf people process language if he wanted to understand how computers process language. That's how he came to form the Learning Sciences Research Institute at the University of Nottingham.

I was at a party talking about all this when a Rotarian overheard me and said, "You know, we have a program that sends teachers overseas to continue their education." I received an Ambassadorial Scholarship worth $26,000, more than I was earning at the time. The problem was Professor Wood. He told me, "We don't train teachers of the deaf." So the Rotarians sent another Rotarian who worked in the university's engineering department to talk to him, and he finally allowed me to come over and help with the research. The technique that Professor Wood focused on, story retelling, had been in the educational toolbox for a long time. It's based on a crucial insight, one that educators tend to overlook, which is that students develop language intrinsically. How we talk to ourselves in our own heads is really more important than the communication between two people.

We didn't work with grammar books. Instead, we would have students read the same story over and over, then have them retell that story.

The kids were confused at first, because they were so used to being with speech therapists and specialists who talked for them.

But Professor Wood was very strict.

You said nothing. You let the uncomfortable silence go. Eventually the kids would realize you were going to let them keep talking, and you could see the wheels turning. They would start to correct themselves.

It was amazing to watch them have that moment.

Now, education is never quick. It's not like microwaving something. You have to be patient and consistent.

But with my students, I started seeing things in writing and reading that I had never seen from deaf children before. And once I saw that, there was no going back.

I realized that I could choose particular stories that would help with whatever clause structures that student was struggling to master.

I also figured out that stories with a lot of repeated dialogue were crucial, because when my students repeated the dialogue, you hear the music come into their voices and out would come these perfect sentences.

After using this method for several years, my graduating students went from reading at a fourth-grade level to a 10th-grade level, and some of them were exceeding that. Some graduated from college.

I just went back into teaching after being retired for eight years. Once again the kids have very low reading levels, so I'm starting all over again.

I speak at reading conferences, and I always get letters from teachers who tell me, "Oh, my gosh. What a game changer this method has been!"

So when I tell Rotarians how much the scholarship has meant, I'm not just blowing air up their skirts.

It's amazing how much the lives of these kids have been changed just by giving one year of education to one teacher of the deaf.

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflect adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do

- Is it the TRUTH?
- Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY'S SIX AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most important, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in six areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

- Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
- Disease prevention and treatment
- Water and sanitation
- Maternal and child health
- Basic education and literacy
- Economic and community development
