The benefits of friendships

While developing and maintaining friendships takes time and effort, healthy friendships can:

- Improve your mood.
Spending time with happy and positive friends can elevate your mood and boost your outlook.
- Help you to reach your goals.
Whether you're trying to get fit, give up smoking, or otherwise improve your life, encouragement from a friend can really boost your willpower and increase your chances of success.
- Reduce your stress and depression.
Having an active social life can bolster your immune system and help reduce isolation, a major contributing factor to depression.
- Support you through tough times.
Even if it's just having someone to share your problems with, friends can help you cope with serious illness, the loss of a job or loved one, the breakup of a relationship, or any other challenges in life.
- Support you as you age.
As you age, retirement, illness, and the death of loved ones can often leave you isolated. Knowing there are people you can turn to for company and support can provide purpose as you age and serve as a buffer against depression, disability, hardship and loss.
- Boost your self-worth.
Friendship is a two-way street, and the "give" side of the give-and-take contributes to your own sense of self-worth. Being there for your friends makes you feel needed and adds purpose to your life.

PresScoop

The Rotary Club of Waling-Waling Davao celebrated Chinese New Year during the 24th Regular Meeting which was moved from the usual Thursday schedule to January 24, a Friday just in time to accommodate and welcome our new friends from the Rotary Club of Kounosu District 2770 Japan, Past President Kazuyosi Ogawa and International Service Chair Koichi Shinozaki.

The atmosphere was festive as the venue was bedecked with colourful decorations depicting all that is Chinese.

It was an unmistakably Chinese observance with Chinese dragon which symbolizes wisdom, power and wealth and is believed to bring good luck to people and tikoy also known as Niangāo which is made from glutinous rice mixed with lard, water and sugar. Its name comes from the Hokkien Chinese words 'ti' and 'ke' which together means "sweet cake." Tikoy is the symbol of the Lunar New Year.

What a way to go Marquise group for treating us once again to a lot of fun and excitement with games, raffles and prizes. BRAVO !!!

Thank you to the Rotary Club of Kounosu not only for connecting with us but also for donating some amount for the club's projects.

Hope the District Grant that you have envisioned for the club will come into fruition and the "partnership" that we have started will not just end here but will continue for years to come.

As the say "coming together is a beginning, staying together is progress and working together is success".

Incoming RI president announces 2020-21 presidential theme

by Ryan Hyland (www.rotary.org)

Rotary International President-elect Holger Knaack is encouraging Rotarians to seize the many opportunities Rotary offers to enrich their lives and the communities they serve.

Knaack, a member of the Rotary Club of Herzogtum Lauenburg-Mölln, Germany, revealed the 2020-21 presidential theme, Rotary Opens Opportunities, to incoming district governors at the Rotary International Assembly in San Diego, California, USA, on 20 January.

Rotary isn't just a club for people to join, but rather "an invitation to endless opportunities," said Knaack, who becomes president on 1 July. He emphasized that Rotary creates pathways for members to improve their lives and the lives of those they help through service projects.

"We believe that our acts of service, big and small, create opportunities for people who need our help," Knaack said. He added that Rotary creates leadership opportunities and gives members the chance to travel the world to put their service ideas into action and make lifelong connections. "Everything we do opens another opportunity for someone, somewhere," said Knaack.

Changing for the future

Knaack also urged members to embrace change so Rotary can expand and thrive. Rather than setting a specific target for increasing the number of members, Knaack said he's asking clubs and districts to think about how to grow in a sustainable and organic way. He wants clubs to focus on keeping current members engaged and adding new members who are the right fit for their club.

Knaack pointed to Rotary's Action Plan as a compass that can guide clubs as they evolve. He recommended that every club have a strategic plan meeting at least once a year. At that meeting, clubs should ask where they want to be in five years and how they can bring more value to their members.

Knaack also wants to see more women in leadership roles and see Rotaractors play an integral role in how new clubs are formed and run. He encouraged district leaders to create new club models and rethink what it means to be in Rotary, and allow young people to be the architects of these new clubs.

In stressing the need for Rotary members to embrace change, Knaack noted that time won't slow down for Rotary: "We will not let rapid change defeat us. We will capture this moment to grow Rotary, making it stronger, more adaptable, and even more aligned with our core values."

We will capture this moment to grow Rotary, making it stronger, more adaptable, and even more aligned with our core values.

What a Rotary club can do with even a little bit of money

By Joi Burton, member of the Rotary Club of North Garland County, Arkansas, USA
www.rotary.org

I have always had a dream of going to Africa. Soon after I joined Rotary in 1991, I noticed an article in The Rotarian that a Rotary club from Eugene, Oregon, was going to Kenya to work on some projects. They were inviting people to go with them, and when I contacted them they accepted my offer. We visited several Rotary projects and a Rotary Club in Nairobi. That was the beginning of a long and productive relationship between my club at the time, Arlington South, Texas, and the people of Kenya that demonstrated the impact even a small club can have through the magic that is Rotary.

I enjoyed the Kenyan people so much I decided I wanted to go back and live with them for a few weeks.

A fellow Rotarian introduced me to his friend from Bondo, Kenya. The friend said if I was willing to go to her village, she would make the arrangements and have a relative, Moses, pick me up at Nairobi airport, and that I could stay in her house.

Before I went, the Rotary Club of Arlington South gave me $500 to do a project in her village. It took a day's drive from Nairobi to reach the village. We arrived at night and were met by all of the villagers, each with a lantern. This was an area with a few houses, several huts, a school, and a church, but no electricity, no water and several miles from the nearest road.

The next day I told Moses I had "a little bit of money" from my club and asked if there was something they needed. They told us they needed concrete to replace the floors in the school, as the children were getting their uniforms dirty from having to sit on the floor all day. Moses and I went to the nearest town and purchased gravel, sand, and cement. After it was delivered, the villagers completed the floors in all the rooms.

Each weekend, Moses would come from Nairobi to see if I needed anything.

The second week I again let Moses know I still had "a little bit of money" and asked if there was something else they needed. They wanted glass to replace windows of the school, all of which had been broken. We bought large plates of glass. They were able to cut and fit all the windows of the school.

Bondo primary school, teachers and students.

Joi Burton takes a drink from a new well during a trip to Kenya. A grant project between District 5790 and Homa Bay, Kenya, provided the well.

The third week, Moses informed me the villagers wanted some metal paint to paint the tin roof of the school as it had rusted.

Having some of that "little bit of money" left, we purchased paint and brushes and they were able to make ladders with sticks and rope and painted the roof.

On the last week I approached Moses to let him know I still "had a little bit of money" and asked what they needed. They said they needed books for the school. They had only a few. We were able to go to a larger city, an overnight trip, to purchase some text books. We were able to purchase one teacher textbook and one student textbook of every subject for every grade kindergarten to eighth grade. With our last few dollars we purchased two cases of chalk. We had the back of the pickup truck completely filled with school books. What a wonderful time the students and teachers had as we drove up into the school yard. We later learned they were completely out of chalk.

This experience built the foundation for other efforts. The Texas club and Rotarians in the district went on to put together other grant projects to benefit the people of Kenya including two grants that provided wells for drinking water with the Homa Bay club. Several members made their own visits to Kenya after that initial outlay of $500.

What a difference one small, 30-member Rotary club can make with "a little bit of money."

Every new year people around the world will make resolutions to live happier, more meaningful, more productive lives in 2019. Perhaps they want to get involved and give back to their community. Maybe they want to improve the world on a larger scale. Or they might be hoping to make new friends or professional connections.

Is your club following up with prospective members?

Every January, we see a sharp increase in inquiries about joining Rotary. Prospective members tell us about themselves and what they want in a Rotary club through rotary.org/join. Rotary staff screens these inquiries and sends them to district leaders, who then match the prospective members, or leads, with clubs that might meet their needs.

It's up to clubs to make sure that these people in their communities who want to make a difference hear back from Rotary. Learn how you can follow up on your membership leads to find great new Rotarians.

What first impression does your club give?

Is your club welcoming to guests?
How do you promote it?

How additional revenue will improve your membership experience

The 2016 Council on Legislation raised dues by $4 to meet members' growing need for improved products and services.

Thanks to this increased support, we've provided tools that allow members to expand their clubs and better serve their communities.

Both Rotary.org and Rotary Club Central were completely redesigned in 2017. They are now faster, easier to navigate, and accessible on mobile devices — important for busy members who are always going somewhere. We wanted to make your interactions with Rotary better, too.

To that end, we've improved our member support, expanded automation efforts, and kept up with changing security and privacy requirements.

You can expect even more enhancements in the future.

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflect adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do

- Is it the TRUTH?
- Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, and community life;

ROTARY'S SIX AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most important, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in six areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

- Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
- Disease prevention and treatment
- Water and sanitation
- Maternal and child health
- Basic education and literacy
- Economic and community development
