Pres Impression

Happy New Year to all Ladies in Red,

It is the month of July, and it is the first month of the New Rotary Year.

We started this year with a happy disposition in spite of our situation of not hugging and kissing each other the way we used to do whenever we see each other.

Last Saturday, July 4, We had our first district project which we spear headed, the "Virtual Aero Dance".

The attendance of so many Rotarians from Visayas and Mindanao from our District 3860 made the event successful, especially with DG Riezl and PDG Mary Ann's participation.

They even suggested that we do it twice a month.

I would like to thank Sec Baby for coming up with that project.

The participation of the district members was overwhelming. It was fun and it was a good way of connecting with our fellow Rotarians. We opened an opportunity to see each other virtually and promoted the "End Polio" campaign.

In my personal experience, I have this grateful appreciation how you ladies in red work and participate in all our activities for the love and causes of Rotary in Service.

Thank you sisters

Rotarian Action Groups provide assistance and support to Rotary clubs in planning and implementing community development and humanitarian service projects.

Committed Rotarians, Rotarians' family members, and Rotaractors who have expertise and a passion for a particular type of service organize Rotarian Action Groups. Rotarian Action Groups are organized around the principal that our vocations give certain expertise to a particular community development or humanitarian service that can be used beyond their own club.

Each Rotarian Action Group functions independently of Rotary International, with its own rules, dues requirements, and administrative structure.

Rotarian Action Groups regularly collaborate and assist with obtaining funding with clubs and districts on service projects in their area of specialty and expertise. They provide opportunities for Rotarians to engage in meaningful service with like-minded Rotarians outside of their own country.

In order to receive official RI recognition a prospective group must secure the commitment of at least 25 prospective members representing at least 5 countries and 3 Rotary zones.

BENEFITS OF ROTARIAN ACTION GROUPS

- By joining a Rotarian Action Group, you can engage in meaningful service activities outside your own club, district, or country.
- By partnering with a Rotarian Action Group, your club or district gains the support of experts for planning and implementing a project.

TAKE ACTION: www.rotary.org/actiongroups

Contact a Rotary Action Group to:

- Get expert advice on planning and implementing service projects, including those funded by Rotary Foundation district and global grants
- Connect with potential project partners, both within and outside of Rotary
- Get help fundraising and obtaining resources for projects

Water & Sanitation Rotary Action Group

Example of Rotary Action Groups recent activity include:

- Rotarians for Family Health & Aids Prevention and Rotary club members for Nigeria, Kenya, and Uganda sponsored a three-day event to provide HIV testing and counseling for more than 138,000 people
- The Rotarian Action Group for Population Growth & Sustainable Development partnered with Rotary clubs in Germany, Austria, and Nigeria to reduce maternal death by 50% at 10 hospitals in northern Nigeria with a program to treat obstetric fistula, a serious birth injury.

You can learn significantly more by visiting www.rotary.org/actiongroups. If your club is interested in having the District Chair for Rotarian Action Groups visit or speak at your club, please contact Gerald Robinson @ grobie_47@yahoo.com or (817) 896-2744

RHINO or RINO

by Frank Deaver

Rotary Club of Tuscaloosa, Alabama USA

Have you ever been chased by a rhinoceros?

Even in such an unlikely possibility, it's not a race you would likely have won.

An adult rhino can weigh up to 5000 pounds, and can run as fast as 30 or 40 miles per hour.

The last thing you would want aimed at you is his pointed 18-inch horn, with all that weight and speed behind it.

It's an example, however, of the rhino's capability, once he is motivated to attack.

Rotarians in many clubs use a similar word but with slightly different spelling.

The term RINO is the acronym for Rotarian In Name Only, someone whose name is on the club roll but whose attendance and participation are minimal.

Many clubs have challenged their members with the rhetorical question, "Are you a member of Rotary [a RINO], or are you a Rotarian [a rhino]?"

Unfortunately, many clubs have some members who come for the meal, talk to a few people, and leave without becoming truly involved in the work of Rotary. In most clubs, there are at least some RINOS.

A Past District Governor confessed that for awhile after joining Rotary, he was just a member, but he said he truly became a Rotarian when he got involved in club service, and even more when he attended District Conferences and ultimately a Rotary International Convention. Then he became, you'll excuse the expression, a "rhino," charging into a service opportunity and throwing his full weight into attacking a challenge.

Most new Rotarians enter into membership as RINOs, and the club challenge is to promote them as quickly as possible to "rhino" status.

One club declares all members RINOs at the beginning of each Rotary Year, and they must earn the privilege of removing the RINO sticker from their name badge through such activities as greeter at meetings, committee service, sponsoring a new member, making up an absence, pledging support of the RI Foundation, etc.

Member recruitment and pre-induction orientation can usually identify if a prospective member is truly service oriented, or expects to be "just a member."

As one club president said, "We don't need members who just want their obituary to identify them as Rotarians."

When attracting new members to Rotary, he said, "Beware of the RINO complex."

But what of those who are already members of Rotary, but can only be defined as RINOs? Shouldn't a club have an ongoing plan to involve its members, involving them as "rhinos" instead of RINOs?

A constant reminder to members is on the website of the Los Altos (California) Rotary Club: "RINOs are not effective. RINOs are not involved. RINOs don't contribute. They come to lunch (occasionally) and think they are Rotarians.

But they are Rotarians in Name Only.

DON'T BE A RINO."

Today, the world's rhinoceros population is close to extinction. The World Conservation Union estimates that fewer than 15 percent remain, as compared to the 1970 count.

While conservations seek to halt that extinction, the Rotary challenge is quite the opposite. Ideally, every Rotary Club should reduce or eliminate the RINO population, converting members to "Rhinos."

NON-DENOMINATIONAL INVOCATIONS FOR ROTARY CLUB MEETINGS

Rotary is a non-discriminatory, non-political, and non-denomination organization. Rotary is comprised of members from a wide range of religious faiths, and for that reason Rotary International recommends non denominational meeting invocations that give no referral to beliefs of specific religion

CORE VALUES: SERVICE • FELLOWSHIP DIVERSITY • INTEGRITY • LEADERSHIP

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflect adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do

- Is it the TRUTH?
- Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY'S SIX AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most important, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in six areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

- Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
- Disease prevention and treatment
- Water and sanitation
- Maternal and child health
- Basic education and literacy
- Economic and community development
