May we be ...

Generous in prosperity, and thankful in adversity;
fair in judgment, and guarded in speech;
a lamp unto those who walk in darkness and a home to the stranger;
eyes to the blind, and a guiding light unto the feet of the erring;
a breath of life to the body of humankind,
a dew to the soil of the human heart, and a fruit upon the tree of humility.

(@Beauty & Fashion)

JUST DON'T

Wear a multitude of clashing prints and patterns at the same time.

They will look like a punch in the eye.

Unless you are in a fashion runway

Pair a digital watch with a dressy outfit. If you don't own a dress watch just go for a bracelet.

Dress like a teenager if you could almost be the mom of one.

Never try to look like someone you are not, so act and dress your age.

Wear black underwear with a sheer white outfit. Not sexy.

Pair long jackets with long skirts. You will look bigger than you are.

Wear fake accessories. True connoisseurs will get it. And won't appreciate it.

Wear silver jewelry when your outfit has gold hardware, and vice-versa.

Go for leggings or pants with big prints. They will make your legs look heavier

Wear sky high heels or really tight skirts you cannot walk in.

Unless you want to entertain the onlookers

Wear festive sequins, rhinestones or lamé before 6 p.m.

Oh please no...

Pres Impression

Last Thursday was a very sentimental day for us. What a way to culminate the Basic Education and Literacy month, we opted to celebrate the 20 years anniversary of our RCWWD Tibungco Relocation Day Care Center and Teacher Beth's 20 years of service in the Day Care.

The video presentation prepared by PP Zony was so touching and brought back a lot of memories. It made a lot of us teary eyed. I would really say that the RCWWD Tibungco Day Care Center is our STAR project.

Teacher Beth was so happy that she received a brand new ACER Laptop from us to show our gratitude for her loyalty, dedication and compassion for the Day Care Center.

PP Zony donated too 11 reams of bond paper for her to use it for the modules she will need for her pupils.

The RCWWD Tibungco Day Care for the past 20 years have 1500 pupils.

In fact the 2 daughters of Teacher Beth who were pupils of the day care are now professionals.

One is an educator at Nikkei Jin Kai school and the other is a social worker at DSWD.

A lot of the former pupils of the day care are college graduates and some are homemakers. They have enrolled their children at the Day care.

I would like to thank PP Veg for recalling the history of how RCWWD Tibungco started. Setting up this Day Care was not an easy task. I would like to mention to that PP Lorna and PP Malou had a big role in making Teacher Beth a permanent teacher of the Day Care.

Thank you too PP Nen for the sentimental journey you shared when we planned, we built and we set up the Day Care. She recalled all our partners in setting up the day Care.

To mention them, they are RC Narashino, RC Escondido Sunrise, RC Escondido Sunset and RC Poway with the leadership of our former Honorary Member the late PP Bob England.

To our Past Presidents, thank you for your leadership in the growth and development of our RCWWD Tibungco Day Care Center.

We also had the MOA signing with DCWD for 2 handwashing facilities.

One for the Annex Building of Tibungco Day Care and the other would be at Sto Domingo Day Care at Sasa.

Thank you PP Vangie for preparing a very wonderful weekly magazine, our Bloomscoop.

To the September host group, Aquamarine, for a fulfilling month. Team leader PP Lorna, you did a great job.

To all RCWWD members who are always present during our Thursday meetings amid COVID 19, we have a high attendance rating.

Watashi wa ladies!

First in the agenda was the #MOA signing between Davao City Water District by General Manager Engr Edwin Regalado, RCWWD headed by Pres Gigi and in behalf of the Club, #SantoDomingoDayCare Center represented by Teacher Victoria Laurente and Tibungco Day Care Center represented by Teacher Elizabeth Arguilla. #DCWD will contribute P41,000 Forty One Thousand Pesos for the #handwashingFacilities intended for students and teachers, for the second RCWWD Tibungco Day Care Center, which used to be the Multipurpose Friendship Center in goals of better hygiene while monitoring, evaluating and maintaining of these resources. RCWWD is grateful to the 15 years of established trust and friendship between DCWD and RCWWD.

Second on the agenda was with Ms. Maria Luisa Bermuda, with her efforts and dedication, from City Social Welfare Development Office was presented a Certificate of partnership and appreciation from RCWWD.

The third and last, but not the least on the agenda was a tribute to teacher Elizabeth Arguilla, 20 years of joyful partnership, with a heart warming video flash back presentation created by PP Zony, which was presented by PP Veg and PP Nen.

Awarded by PP Malou and Pres Gigi to teacher Beth were a laptop, a gift card for school supplies and certificate, while PP Zony donated 11 rims of bond paper.

Teacher Beth commented and would like to thank RCWWD, a partner with dealing with the children. She shared "We started with struggles but we thank the Lord we overcame the struggles. Thankful for being regular on my employment. We have a lot of students who are successful teachers and successful graduates now. A divine providence given to me, before this I was praying for a day care center in that exact location where I can work, it is an answered prayer." we are thankful to the support, effort and love behind the success of Tibungco Day Care Center that we aim to keep going and growing for generations to come.

WHERE IS TIBUNGCO?

Tibungco is a barangay of Bunawan, Davao City. The Tibungco Resettlement Area was awarded in 1991 to 1322 urban poor squatters, including the garbage dwellers. There was lack of access to basic services like health, transportation, jobs, water and daycare center.

During a measles outbreak, the Rotary Club Of Waling-Waling, through the initiatives of PP Dra Ningning Maguinsay, conducted Immunization Campaign and other Mother and Children Projects in Smokey Mountain.

Way back in the 1990s, we became more than families.

In the desire to upgrade the dilapidated Multipurpose Bldg, RCWWD was advised to put on hold the intention because the residents were soon to be relocated to Tibungco by the City of Davao.

Meanwhile, in one of the World Community Service Project visitation of Rotarians from Rotary DISTRICT 2790, Chiba, Japan to Davao, they saw the misery of the residents in Smokey Mountain. Some of them cried!

They pledged to assist these urban poor after they have been transferred to Tibungco Resettlement Area.

FROM 2000, the RCWWD DAY CARE HAS ACCOMPLISHED THE FOLLOWING:

1. Graduates = about 1500 students
2. Average yearly enrollment = 75 students under 5 year old
3. Levels of education- Pre Kindergarten and Kindergarten
4. Full accreditation by the CITY SOCIAL SERVICES and DEVELOPMENT OFFICE
5. Full time teacher: Mrs. Elizabeth Arguillas

Caring for pets and serving humanity:

Caring for animals is a noble calling and when done well, can result in the undying gratitude of pets, as well as the human they belong to. The people who love and care for animals have some of the biggest hearts around.

Animals are such agreeable friends... they ask no questions, they pass no criticisms.

From 8:00 AM to 7:00 PM, a total of 110 (68 spayed, 42 castrated) dogs and cats were spayed and neutered.

We are grateful to all our colleagues in the veterinary profession, and all the surgeons who shared their time in making the activity very successful.

We thank Brgy. Captain Carlos A. Del Rosario for the venue and support and information dissemination leading to the huge turnout of pet owners to avail of the free procedure.

We are very happy and appreciate the presence of District Governor Riz Reyes.

Thank you Gov Riz for joining us in this activity.

Rotary and the Classification Principle

by Darrell Portz / RC Yellowknife Canada

Virtually all membership in Rotary is based upon a "classification".

Basically, a classification describes the distinct and recognized business or professional service that the Rotarian renders to society.

The principle of Rotary classification is somewhat more specific and precise.

In determining the classification of a Rotarian, it is necessary to look at the "principal or recognized business or professional activity of the firm, company, or institution" with which an active member is connected or "that which covers the active member's principal and recognized business or professional activity." It should be clearly understood that classifications are determined by activities or services to society rather than by the position held by a particular individual.

In other words, if a person is the president of a bank, he or she is not classified as "bank president" but under the classification "banking." The classification principle also permits businesses and industries to be separated into distinct functions such as manufacturing, distributing, retailing, and servicing

The classification principle is a necessary concept in assuring that each Rotary club represents a cross section of the business and professional service of the community

Rotary supports investments in people to create measurable and enduring economic improvement in their lives and communities.

Unemployment, underemployment, lack of economic opportunity, lack of appropriate training, and the absence of social safety nets lie at the core of poverty.

For the poor, labor is often the only asset available to improve well-being.

Creating productive employment opportunities is essential for reducing poverty and achieving sustainable economic and social development, and for providing income security and empowerment especially for women, people with disabilities, youth, and the extremely poor.

Like education and health strategies, generating income and creating opportunities for a productive workforce and entrepreneurship are essential for reducing poverty.

Tremendous progress has been made to reduce global poverty.

According to the World Bank, 1.92 million people lived on less than $1.25 a day in 1990 compared to only 1 million in 2011.

In 2015, several Millennium Development Goal targets were met.

While substantial progress was made in many areas, pressing global needs still remain.

Rotary clubs all over the world work with communities to enhance economic and community development.

Every community has different needs and different opportunities to serve.

Avoid going into a community with ideas of what's needed.

It's easy to look around and decide what you think a community needs, especially if you live in it or near it.

Instead, listen to a variety of community members and hear their community's strengths, needs, and concerns directly.

You want to identify activities that respond to felt needs and generate a high level of enthusiasm from community members so that participation and ownership is ensured.

The Rotary Foundation enables Rotarians to invest in people by creating sustainable, measurable and long term economic improvements in their communities and livelihoods by :

- Building the capacity of entrepreneurs, community leaders, local organizations, and community networks to support economic development in impoverished communities;
- Developing opportunities for productive work;
- Supporting studies for career-minded professionals related to economic and community development

Adopt a village

Rotary members use a multifaceted and coordinated strategy to break the cycle of poverty in extremely impoverished communities.

Microloans

Entrepreneurs use microloans to become street vendors, rickshaw drivers, weavers, and tailors.

Agricultural opportunities

Entrepreneurs in rural communities can borrow money to buy livestock or plant crops, or get training in sustainable farming.

TAKE ACTION during Rotary Economic and Community Development Month

During October, designated by Rotary as Economic and Community Development Month, members spotlight one of Rotary's vital causes: growing local economies.

According to the United Nations, 836 million people still live in extreme poverty.

Unemployment and underemployment, along with a lack of economic opportunity, appropriate training, and social services, lie at the core of poverty.

Rotarians worldwide are determined to reduce poverty through projects that deliver equipment, vocational training, and work to strengthen local entrepreneurs and community leaders, particularly women, from impoverished communities.

Here is a couple of Rotary Showcase examples of members taking action to grow local economies and communities:

- The Rotary Club of Abuja, Nigeria, carried out three months of training for 30 internally displaced women, who were affected by terrorist groups in the region. The women were trained in sewing clothes, and at the end of the program, the best participants received sewing machines, tools, and other necessities. The club also helped the best participants find jobs in the sewing industry.

RC Abuja Life camp

- The Rotary Club of Addis Ababa West, Ethiopia, offered vocational training to local participants, who attended a workshop on marketable businesses and management training. Then, they chose further training in a single vocation, such as hairdressing, sewing, food preparation, and video and photo editing. Government offices and private institutions trained them for two to five months. Afterward, participants received start-up tools, equipment, and supplies to begin their own business ventures.

Empowering women in Honduras

by Vanessa Vegas, Regional Grants Officer at Rotary and Bonaventure Fandohan, Rotary's Economic and Community Development Area of Focus Manager (RY 2018 - 2019)

While the world has achieved progress towards economic gender equality and women's economic empowerment under the Millennium Development Goals, women and girls continue to suffer from economic inequalities in every part of the world.

Understanding that poverty often hits women hardest in developing and emerging countries, Rotarians in Honduras and Canada have partnered to bring more women into the workforce through skills development and networks creation

With the support of a local cooperating organization, Alternativas y Oportunidades, Rotarians have developed seven successful global grants and supported almost 1,000 trainees to develop new skills in sewing, craft making, baking and hairdressing, among others. They have also learned employment skills, resume writing, interviewing skills, as well as skills to create microenterprises, such as drawing up a detailed business plan and securing micro-financing.

Through the cooperating organization, the project has alliances with the Ministry of Labor and Social Development, the National Directorate of Social Intervention, the National Vocational Training Institute and the National Autonomous University of Honduras, as well as mothers groups in each of the landfill communities to ensure program relevance.

Most of the women who have graduated from previous Economic Opportunities Training programs supported by these global grants are now able to support their own children in school without external charitable assistance.

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflect adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do

- Is it the TRUTH?
- Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY'S SIX AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most important, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in six areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

- Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
- Disease prevention and treatment
- Water and sanitation
- Maternal and child health
- Basic education and literacy
- Economic and community development
