Heavenly Father ,
we place our work and ourselves
into your hands.

Anoint our creativity, our ideas,
our energy so that even the smallest task
may bring You honor.

When we are challenged, guide us,
when we are weary , energize us.

May the work that we do and the way that we do it, bring hope, life and courage to all with whom we serve ,

Amen

Editor's Note

Celebrations have always been a part of our Filipino culture.

Even a mundane activity of settling into a new home would not be complete without popping a bubbly or two to toast for the new address.

The saying, "You can take a Filipino out of the Philippines but you can never take the Philippines out of a Filipino" is significantly manifested in all parts of the globe where Filipinos live.

Just recently or maybe this has been going on for years already, some have began celebrating Thanksgiving – an American tradition of commemorating the coming of the pilgrims to America, but some celebrate it anyway here in the Philippines, maybe just to be thankful for the bounties we received.

So what does Thanksgiving mean to you ? to us ?

Rotarians have so many things to be thankful for

We are especially thankful for our families and RCWWD friends.

We are thankful for our #FRONTLINERS - the first frontier to this mean virus called COVID 19, our military personnel who are serving our country 24/7

to protect our freedom #TASK FORCE DAVAO

We are thankful for the opportunity to serve our communities through our various projects

We are so thankful that we are given the opportunity to help eradicate polio from the face of the earth.

We are thankful for The Rotary Foundation that makes it possible for us to Do Good in our community and in the World.

SNIPPET

In Shakespeare's time, mattresses were secured on bed frames by ropes ..

when you pulled on the ropes the mattress tightened, making the bed firmer to sleep on.

Hence the phrase,
"Goodnight, sleep tight."

Good Day Waling Waling Ladies

Last week we just had our fellowship meeting.

I would like to thank Rotarian Alex Konst and ROTARCT President Bianca Espiritu for preparing the virtual games for us.

It really was a fun day.

Thank you too to the Teal group and PP Remie for preparing the prizes for the winners that day.

Last November 24, PP/VP Marivic Jimenez and myself had a meeting at her garden with Mrs Laline D Cabaljog the executive director of Field of Dreams Children's Home.

It is a facility that accepts children who were abandoned, neglected, orphaned and homeless boys.

PP/VP Marivic will celebrate her birthday together with the December celebrants at the facility to share her blessings with them.

Since the pandemic started they have a shortage on food especially rice.

They do not have much problem with viands because they grow their own vegetables.

On Dec 1, we will be visiting the facility to bring snacks for the children.

with Mrs Lalaine Cabaljog Executive Director of Fields of Dream Childrens Home

On Dec 3 we will be having our Governor's visit.

Let us all be present to show how strong our club is even if we do our weekly meetings virtually.

Thank you and see you all on Dec 3.

This was a good day for fun and fellowship all thanks to our Rtn Alex Konst for facilitating the mood breaker.

Together we had fun, learned new things and some won prizes. A truly fantastic way to spend the Thursday afternoon.

We also celebrated PP Remie's birthday and grateful for her dedication to Rotary.

Club Secretary Baby thanked the generous sponsors who kept on supporting the HOH Pamalengke Project. Your generosity will go a long way.

President Gigi was appreciative of everyone's groundwork and commitment to Rotary.

ROTARY COMMUNITY CORPS

CHANGING THE WORLD
THROUGH SERVICE PROJECTS

A Rotary Community Corps is a group of people who share our commitment to changing the world through service projects.

Rotary Community Corps members plan and carry out projects in their communities and support local Rotary club projects but are not members of a Rotary club.

What's involved?

By joining or organizing an Rotary Community Corps, you can make a tremendous impact in your community.

How do I join an Rotary Community Corps

Rotary Community Corps can exist anywhere a local Rotary club sponsors one. You can find an Rotary Community Corps in your area by contacting your local Rotary club.

How do I form an Rotary Community Corps?

You can form an Rotary Community Corps anywhere community members are interested in working with Rotary. Here are some guidelines:

- Work with other local residents to identify the community's greatest needs using an assessment form.
- Work with a local Rotary club to outline how you will work together.
- Recruit Rotary Community Corps members. Start with a core group of members. Community organizations and nongovernmental agencies are good places to recruit.

Why Rotary Community Corps?

"Rotary Community Corps are local. They are part of the community and help mobilize the community. They ensure that local needs are met.

And most significantly, a Rotary Community Corps has a vested interest in its own success. Their members have to live with the results of their work; their commitments are the basis for sustainability.

Rotary grant projects that establish Rotary Community Corps help to ensure that the project's impact lives on in the community long after Rotary's direct support ends."

5 reasons to give to The Rotary Foundation

When you make a donation to The Rotary Foundation, you are helping Rotary members make a difference in the lives of millions of people around the world. Here are five reasons to make Rotary your charity of choice :

1. Accountability

Our accountability and transparency have earned The Rotary Foundation 12 straight years of four-star ratings — the highest possible — from independent evaluator Charity Navigator. More than 90% of Foundation funds are spent directly on programs. No high administrative costs dilute your gift.

2. Impact

We partner with other organizations to increase our impact and make your donations work even harder. When you give to PolioPlus, for example, you have the satisfaction of knowing that every $1 Rotary commits to polio eradication is matched by $2 from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. Thanks to this partnership, all donations to end polio (up to $50 million per year) are tripled, providing critical funding toward creating a polio-free world.

3. A record of success

Rotary unites leaders who have the skills and resources to tackle some of the world's most difficult problems and deliver sustainable, long-lasting results. For decades, Rotary has been a leader in the battle against polio and with the help of our partners in the Global Polio Eradication Initiative, we have reduced cases by 99.9% since 1988.

The infrastructure developed to facilitate both immunizations and eradication is being used to fight and protect against other diseases as well.

For example, the method known as contact tracing was critical to containing an Ebola outbreak in Nigeria in 2014.

4. Global reach

Our 1.2 million members span the globe, uniting people who have a common desire to serve others. From teaching children to read in Ecuador to a microcredit program in Indonesia, Rotary members identify local problems and use Rotary's vast network and the resources of The Rotary Foundation to take action in their communities.

5. Bringing about peace

Peace holds a unique status in Rotary.

We approach peace not as an abstract concept, but as a living, dynamic expression of human development. As a humanitarian service organization, it is both a cornerstone of our mission, and one of our six areas of focus – one of the main ways in which our members make their mark on the world.

Each year, the Rotary Peace Centers train some of the world's most dedicated professionals to resolve conflicts and promote national and international cooperation. Rotary Peace Fellows study in a two-year master's degree program or a professional certificate program at Rotary's partner universities. Rotary members themselves also address the underlying causes of conflict, including poverty, inequality, ethnic tension, lack of access to education, and unequal distribution of resources.

Our collaboration with the Institute for Economics and Peace is providing free, self-guided training to individuals who want to be peace builders in their communities.

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflect adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do

- Is it the TRUTH?
- Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY'S SIX AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most important, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in six areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

- Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
- Disease prevention and treatment
- Water and sanitation
- Maternal and child health
- Basic education and literacy
- Economic and community development
