Lord, we thank you that today You have allowed us to begin a new year.

Here in your presence, we make our resolutions for the days to come.

We resolve to be faithful and true to those who love us, and loyal to those who are our friends so that we may never bring distress to their hearts;
to live in forgiveness and in kindness, that we may go about ever doing good;
to live in goodness and purity, that we may resist temptation and may be a strength to others who are tempted;

to live in sympathy and gentleness, that we may bring comfort to the sorrowing, and understanding to the perplexed.

Grant that we may find the strength to keep these resolutions all this year.

Amen

Vocational Service

Helping people help themselves

Editor's Note

It's a brand new year ahead of us and let us think of good things to come.

We are halfway through this Rotary Year and for our club a grand celebration is about to happen — our 29th Charter Anniversary. One more year and RCWWD will be 30 years old.

How time flies when you are having fun.

January is celebrated as Rotary Vocational Month.

This is more than just a theme for the month, and we Rotarians are encouraged to make a commitment to offer vocational opportunities and enriched the lives of others.

I'm sure you have a story to tell about your experiences in your vocation as a Rotarian. Perhaps an experience that made an impact you can never forget, an unpleasant experience as a new member never quite knowing the relevance of your classification to Rotary service ... , a community project involvement that softened or softens your heart.

Whatever it is, this chapter of your life as a Rotarian is something you can proudly tell people because you know you are doing something good.

The last film I watched in HBO before 2020 ended was STARWARS...

The Rise of Skywalker.

The film's protagonist is Rey a reluctant Jedi to be who is in denial of her abilities to fight evil and do good in the world (COVID 19 scam !!)

The film reminds me of some members of RCWWD who are reluctant to lead the club in the future even if they have the capability to do so.

DENIAL ... ladies, do not deny yourselves, the club and our community of your ability to lead the club to do good in a small way but with a big impact.

Opportunity only knocks once, and you might live to regret it.

Happy New Year and may the FORCE BE WITH US !!!

Happy New Year everyone!

It is time we said goodbye to the year 2020.

I would like to recall the achievements of which many contributed to our sustained growth of the club. We had inducted 2 new members, opened a livelihood opportunity to our 4 RCC's. The "Rice for Life" project is an ongoing livelihood project we opened for them for an added income generating for the households of the RCC's members.

Due to the pandemic of COVID 19 some have lost their jobs and could hardly provide for their daily sustenance. We distributed School materials to 12 Day Care centers in Marilog and our RCWWD Tibungco and Duha Day Care Centers.

Just to name a few because there are a lot more projects that we have have accomplished. All this is not a big sacrifice because we have results, because we are successful, because all members are always by my side.

The secret of our club's success is our focus on people and values.

The support of the Past Presidents , directors and members help us achieve despite the COVID 19 crisis, help us achieve the goals for the RY 2020-2021.

I am happy to report to you that we already have accomplished 95% of our club goals for the Rotary year.

The ROTARACT Club of WalingWaling Davao had their first project for this year.

They distributed COVID kits to tricycle drivers, jeepney drivers and trisikad drivers at different locations here in the city. The kits consisted of 1 kilo rice, 1 kilo sugar, facemasks, face shields a a bottle of alcohol.

President Ana Bianca Espiritu together with her officers namely Valerie Avisado and Denisse Pascua covered the areas of Maa, Ecoland, Roxas Avenue, Bonifacio and Obrero.

I can see the dedication of these young ladies. They are the future members of RC Waling Waling Davao.

I am happy to announce that PP Janette Valderosa accepted to the position as President Elect for the RY 2021-2022. Congratulations to the new set of officers and directors namely, for

VP,- Dir Luchie Aportadera, for Treas Marbel Chua, Dir Leti Tai, Queen Amora, Chona Lamparas, Odessa Palma Gil , Dir Bai Zainal, Gina Espejo, Myrriam Tan, Dir Teri Fitzback, Dir Ces Diaz

I wish we continue sustaining our projects, I wish we always make steady progress, I wish all of us are healthy. It is time to rest and have fun.

May we all have a bright and prosperous 2021 New Year filled with good blessings!

Happy New Year!

PUBLIC IMAGE REPORT

On January 5, with all your help, we were able to distribute our covid kits around Davao, to local jeepney and tricycle drivers. It warmed our hearts to see the smiles on their faces because it showed how happy they were, no matter how simple the gift. It's important for us to remember that these people are out there putting themselves at risk not only so they can provide for their families, but also to be of service to those who are doing the same. We are so glad that we were able to show them our appreciation through these kits.

The concept of vocational service

The Object of Rotary is a philosophical statement of Rotary's purpose and the responsibilities of Rotarians. The concept of vocational service is rooted in the Second Object, which calls on Rotarians to encourage and foster":

- High ethical standards in business and professions*
- The recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations*
- The dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society*

As a Rotarian, how can you put these ideals into action? Consider these suggestions:

- ♥ Use your professional skills to serve a community.
- ♥ Practice your profession with integrity, and inspire others to behave ethically through your own words and actions.
- ♥ Help a young person achieve his or her career aspirations.
- ♥ Guide and encourage others in their professional development.

If you do any of these things, you are performing vocational service. And if vocational service motivates and energizes you, then you're in the right place, because vocational service is the very essence of Rotary.

It is what sets Rotary apart from other service organizations.

Classification

What first brought you to Rotary?

In all likelihood, someone identified you as a prospective Rotarian because you are a respected member of your business or professional field — in Rotary parlance, your "classification."

Each Rotary club's membership represents a cross-section of its community's business and professional population, which ensures diversity in experiences and perspectives. Classification and vocational service go hand in hand. Just as Rotarians represent their vocations in Rotary, so do they represent Rotary in their vocations.

Integrity and ethics

Promoting integrity through ethical behavior is an essential part of what it means to be a Rotarian.

Two standards developed by Rotarians —

The Four-Way Test and the Rotary Code of Conduct provide a road map for ethical behavior in the workplace and other areas of life.

The Four-Way Test

The Four-Way Test was conceived in 1932 by businessman Herbert J. Taylor, a member of the Rotary Club of Chicago who served as Rotary International president in 1954-55.

Having taken on the task of saving a company from bankruptcy, Taylor developed the test as an ethical guide to follow in all business matters.

The company's survival was credited to this simple philosophy.

Adopted by Rotary International in 1934, The Four-Way Test remains an essential standard against which Rotarians measure ethical behavior.

It has been translated into dozens of languages and promoted by Rotarians worldwide

Rotary Code of Conduct

The Rotary Code of Conduct (formerly known as the Declaration of Rotarians in Businesses and Professions) provides a framework for ethical behavior that all Rotarians can use, together with The Four-Way Test, in their business and professional activities.

Advancing high ethical standards in the workplace

As leaders in their businesses and professions, Rotarians can advance high ethical standards by setting a positive example among employees, associates, and the community in general.

All types of work-related interaction offer an opportunity to encourage ethical behavior.

Here are a few specific ways that Rotarians can integrate ethics into their daily work life:

- Discuss and emphasize honesty, accountability, fairness, integrity, and respect when hiring and training employees.
- Praise and encourage the exemplary behavior of your colleagues.
- Demonstrate your personal commitment to high ethical standards in relations with customers, vendors, and business associates, treating each business interaction with care and consideration.

Vocational Service focuses on:

- Adherence to and promotion of the highest ethical standards in all occupations, including fair treatment of employers, employees, associates, competitors, and the public.
- The recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, not just those that are pursued by Rotarians.
- The contribution of your vocational talents to solving the problems of society and meeting the needs of the community.

During January, Rotarians are encouraged to focus on this important avenue of Rotary service. Discussions on vocational service can lead to projects that not only develop the ethical consciousness and vocational skills of Rotarians but also the talents within their communities.

Vocational Service Month is an opportunity to begin year-long vocational service activities, ranging from Rotary

► Take Action

- Host a classification talk at your next club meeting. These presentations give members the chance to learn the inner workings of jobs other than their own and can plant the seeds for professional networking opportunities. The talks also are useful for introducing guests and prospective members to your club.
- Organize tours of members' workplaces. Members who find public speaking difficult might prefer to conduct a workplace tour rather than give a classification talk. If logistics can be worked out, schedule an occasional meeting in a member's place of employment.
- Join or form a Rotary Fellowship related to your vocation. Rotary Fellowships are international associations of Rotarians, Rotarians' spouses, and Rotaractors who share a recreational or vocational interest. There are vocational fellowships for doctors, law enforcement officers, editors, and members of other professions.
- Volunteer for a service project that uses your vocational skills. Think about the skills that make you successful in your profession: Maybe you are trained in some branch of science or medicine, are handy with tools or mechanical things, know how to start a business, have expertise managing finances, or can influence others through public speaking or writing. Use your unique set of talents to make a difference in your community.
- Have your club dedicate time to discuss the importance of The Four- Way Test and the Rotary Code of Conduct. In particular, be sure to educate new members and prospective members on the importance of these documents as guiding principles for Rotary's commitment to integrity.
- Organize a workshop on ethics in the workplace and invite local non- Rotarian business leaders to attend. To help participants build practical problem-solving skills, consider including an open discussion exploring how to deal with examples of ethical dilemmas.
- Give ethics awards to businesses or professionals who demonstrate high ethical standards in their treatment of employees, customers, and the communities in which they work
- Sponsor an essay or speech contest for young people. Many clubs hold local or regional competitions for junior or senior high school students to address the theme " What The Four-Way Test means to me " These contests are an effective way to get young people engaged with the concepts of ethics and integrity.

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflect adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do

- Is it the TRUTH?
- Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY'S SIX AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most important, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in six areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

- Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
- Disease prevention and treatment
- Water and sanitation
- Maternal and child health
- Basic education and literacy
- Economic and community development
