A Letter

FROM THE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

It's finally the last week of July, and there's only a few days left before August comes knocking on our door. Hopefully the heat wave ceases and the "colder" weather (as cold as it can get here in the Philippines) comes around without debilitating the Filipinos with heavy rains.

Already, we have done a number of projects so far, as well as recruited 2 members to join our club! It's exhilarating to have new members join the club, with myself being a new recruit who joined just last Rotary Year. I cannot wait to work with our new members.

Saying goodbye to a very dear tita and fellow Rotarian who was a Past President was also difficult for me. I worked with Tita Lisa last year as her occupational therapist. I saw her progress and maintenance as we worked together with her husband, Tito Ponchit, to aid with her quality of life. While I hate saying goodbyes, I prefer to say, "I'll see you again, soon."

With this, I'd rather say, "I'll see you again soon, July."

*Keep us O Lord from pettiness,
Let us be thoughtful in words and in deeds.
Help us put away pretense, encourage us to be swift with kind words, to grow calm and gentle.
Teach us never to ignore, never to hurt,
never to take each other for granted.
Engrave in our hearts charity and compassion.
Purify our minds and inspire us to be exemplary Rotarians in all that we think say or do,
AMEN.*

So long, farewell, auf Wiedersehn, goodbye..." This catchy tune from the Sound of Music is just one of many artistic reflections throughout the years on the ways we say goodbye.

Over the years, the use of goodbye has become more cursory in many cases, and few people are likely invoking the help of God when they say it. We also added countless other parting words to our language that people use instead.

This thought came to my mind as we bid our goodbyes to one of our former members, Past President Lisa Ponce-Enrile, who is moving to Manila for health reasons. Her present condition made us feel sad. I would like to remember her as someone who used to be full of energy and still is. She was very active. She was also a team player both in our club and at the District level. We're thankful for the gift of her friendship and for everything she has contributed to our club.

And to our host group, the Trailblazers, thank you for your creative minds. It felt like we were traveling again with your fun-filled games, plus the fact that you were so generous in giving prizes.

Let's continue to be the liveliest and friendliest group of women.

CORE VALUES: SERVICE • FELLOWSHIP

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflect adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do

- Is it the TRUTH?
- Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY'S SEVEN AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most important, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in six areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

- Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
- Disease prevention and treatment
- Water and sanitation
- Maternal and child health
- Basic education and literacy
- Economic and community development
- Supporting the Environment
