A Letter from the Editor-in-Chief

Going into the month of November, The Rotary Foundation Month, we donate our money for the greater good. Whether people know about it or not doesn't matter; all that matters is what we have decided to do with our money. The good that we've done, whether we kept it a secret or not, is our own oath we make for ourselves. We choose what to do, and what not to do. Nobody has to know - only we know what "good" we've done in our lives, even people have tainted us as "bad" in their eyes.

I must be rambling, but for all I know, it's better to reap what we've sown. Choosing our path in our lives may not always be linear, but hey, at least we actually can. The free will is what sets us apart from other species, and I think that's something.

Club President

Tibungco is a part of Davao City, eighteen kilometers north of the city center. About an hour's drive from the city proper, Tibungco is home to several industries and a culturally diverse residential community.

Currently, it is home to about 1,350 families relocated by the city government of Davao, who granted homes and resettlement communities for them, away from dump sites and fire hazard areas. Some informal settlers and fire victims have also found a home in Tibungco.

The Rotary Community Corps Tibungco (RCCT), organized on January 31, 2002, was conceptualized by the Rotary Club of Waling-Waling Davao (RCWWD) to forge partnerships with the help of three matching grants from the Rotary Foundation (TRF). In consonance with the thrust of the three matching grants, the RCWWD established a daycare center in Tibungco with funds coming from the World Community Service (WCS). Since its inception, the daycare center has served 1,600 children in the community. The teachers learned the basics of early childhood and values education.

Tibungco, having a dense population, was also one of the many venues where the RCWWD campaigned for heightened awareness against polio and rabies. Conducted here, too, were several medical and pediatric health missions over the years with the help of volunteer doctors to lecture on the importance of clean and potable water and sanitation, alongside Rotary's Seven Areas of Focus.

It is with both humility and gratitude that today, our Club continues to have two daycare centers in Tibungco now and having 120 members part of the RCCT, who continue to make a difference in people's lives. The Rotary way.

TRF AWARDS CEREMONY

Several RCWWD members attended "The Rotary Foundation Awards Ceremony: Changing Lives Through Giving" last November 13, 2021, via Zoom. The TRF Awards recognize Rotarians and individuals who contribute to the Foundation and whose contributions transformed into service projects that changed lives both close to home and all over the world. The Rotary Foundation helps Rotarians advance world understanding, goodwill, and peace by improving health, providing quality education, improving the environment, and alleviating poverty. The District Event was attended by more than 134 Rotarians from the different Rotary clubs in District 3860.

CORE VALUES: SERVICE • FELLOWSHIP DIVERSITY • INTEGRITY • LEADERSHIP

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflect adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do

- Is it the TRUTH?
- Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY'S SEVEN AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most important, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in six areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

- Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
- Disease prevention and treatment
- Water and sanitation
- Maternal and child health
- Basic education and literacy
- Economic and community development
- Supporting the Environment
