Lord, in a world where many are lonely, we thank you for friendship and community; in a world where many are despairing, we thank you for hope.

In a world that many find meaningless, we thank you for faith.

May all our actions lead us to have peace of mind so that we may spread peace in the world and may our own friendliness help spread happiness to all we meet, and in so doing, encourage us to conduct our days in the true spirit of Rotary.

AMEN.

EDITOR'S NOTE

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY!

It's the month of "love," as many of us celebrate Valentine's Day. It's also timely that the Rotary theme of the month is "Peace and Conflict Prevention Month," which reminds us Rotarians to share and spread the love this season, preventing conflict and making peace with ourselves, our families, friends, and the community.

For this week's Bloomscoop, we have, as always, a DEI page (shared by PN/Dir. Vida Könst) to remind us all to be diverse, equal, and inclusive in our Rotary ways. We also have a progress report from our scholar, Jennife Borong, who is currently studying everything there is about water in The Netherlands. You go girl!

PP Evangeline Schwendener also shared a very nice and timely article on the "Seven Habits of a Proactive Rotarian."

I hope you all enjoy this issue.

Cheers!

Hello ladies in red and advanced Happy Valentine's day!

FEBRUARY being a "hearts" month means devoting FEB-IBIG for COMMUNITY SERVICE for IMAGINATIVE ROTARIANS like us.

We are going to be very busy as we anticipate and prepare for the ROTARY WEEK and the anticipated workshops and seminars starting this month and onwards.

Here is a list of activities that we are going to do for the month:

1. Rotary Week (February 20-26)
2. D3860 Rotary Film challenge (Febraury 28)
3. Pet-Sets in Butuan (February 17-18)

God bless us all as we continue to uphold our mission, SERVICE ABOVE SELF.

See you during our meeting and thank you once again for the relentless passion and dedication for our dear RCWWD.

13th Regular Meeting

Held at Kairo's Kitchen, Davao City, the Rotary Club of Waling-Waling Davao held their 13th regular meeting with updates on vocational projects (presented by Dir. Sylvia Austria via Zoom). Updates on Club membership were also presented by PP Lorna Llamas, who represented Dir. Sophiya Avisado.

The meeting was a productive one! Suggestions and guidance were provided by the past presidents for the improvement of RCWWD and for the Club's future plans.

8th ACOM Meeting

The month of February is very special in the Rotary calendar because it includes the anniversary of the first meeting of Rotary held on February 23, 1905. During this month, Rotary supports the Peace and Conflict Prevention / Resolution Month.

For the Rotary District 3860 Area 2, the 8th ACOM was held at Roadway Inn on February 1, 2023. District Governor Lilo Aliño was present and gave an inspirational and profound message to keep the eye on the ball as the Rotary Year concludes. The upcoming Rotary week was planned by Chair Malou Jacinto, the upcoming PETS-SETS 2023 was updated by IDT Archie Gamboa, and other matters were discussed by RCSAD/AG Vincent Edward Ang. The meeting was hosted by Area 2B. PDG Salvador Angala was also given a surprise birthday celebration. The program ended with a serenade for the ladies in time for Valentine's Day.

Secretary's Birds-Eye-View

Rotary Club of Narashino Visit The Arrival

RCWWD welcomed RC Narashino with enthusiastic and welcoming arms at the Davao International Airport.

It has been a long time since we last saw them, and it felt both nostalgic and neoteric as we met members of old and members of new.

After picking them up, we had dinner with them at Nonki Japanese Restaurant. Dinner was held fast for the men to have an early night in to rest after waiting hours for their flight due to flight delays.

Global Grant "Wash" Project Visit

RCWWD, together with RC Narashino, surveyed and visited 6 potential daycare centers in Marilog as part of "WASH" for our Global Grant.

These daycare centers were checked in the hopes of providing handwashing facilities for the children, targeting Disease Prevention and Treatment, as well as Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene, part of Rotary's 7 Areas of Focus.

This was also done with the help of the local government and the Davao City Water District.

31st Charter Anniversary: Renewing Friendship and Partnership with RC Narashino

Last January 21, 2023, was a night of celebration and fun as RCWWD celebrated their 31st Charter Anniversary, together with RC Narashino and guests.

After the official program, the night ended with dancing and singing as we rejoiced in the renewal of our friendship and partnership with RC Narashino.

It was definitely a night to remember.

Secretary's Birds-Eye-View

Rotary Club of Narashino Visit Global Grant Meeting

Last January 22, 2023, the Global Grant meeting was held at PP Lorna Llamas's residence in Eden. It was led by PAG/PP Gigi Espiritu and PP Zony Reyes from RCWWD and President Yugeta Kunio from RC Narashino. We thank PP Tadashi Kanda from RC Central for assisting us with the translations from Japanese to English and vice versa.

The Departure

RC Narashino left last January 23, 2023, after completing their duties here in Davao City with RCWWD. We also provided copies of the Bloomscoop Charter Anniversary issue as a token of remembrance of their trip here, care of Dir. Sylvia Austria.

Until we meet again.

Life During Wartime: A FRONTLINE REPORT

Written by Wen Huang

As the first anniversary of Russia's invasion of Ukraine approached, Rotary magazine's Wen Huang traveled to Europe to see firsthand how Rotary members are responding to this humanitarian crisis. In the first installment of his two-part report, Huang visits Poland en route to Ukraine.

Tuesday, 7:45 p.m., Warsaw

A glittering, guitar-shaped sign for a Hard Rock Cafe welcomes me when I step out of Warsaw Central Railway Station. I snap a photo and send it to a journalist friend whose wife used to collect Hard Rock Cafe T-shirts from former communist countries. She and other pop culture experts believe that there is a strong relationship between rock 'n' roll and the fall of communism in Eastern Europe. From my perspective, the sign is one example of a loud declaration of Poland's modern identity.

When I turn to take in the rest of Warsaw's central landscape, I am confronted by the Palace of Culture and Science, a hulking edifice that rises nearly 800 feet and remains the second-tallest building in Poland. Begun in 1952 and completed after Stalin's death, this Soviet-style high-rise that resembles the Empire State Building was a "gift" from Moscow to its unruly satellite. At night, the Poles light the building in hues of yellow and blue, Ukraine's national colors, in solidarity with their besieged neighbor. This symbol of Poland's communist past overlooks nearby shopping centers decked with Christmas lights and neon signs proclaiming Western fashion brands.

It is approaching 8 p.m., and though I am inspecting my surroundings outside the train station, my thoughts are focused on the days ahead. During my career as a journalist, I have covered international crises, violent revolutions, and natural disasters around the world. So I wanted to visit Ukraine to see for myself the conditions for millions of Ukrainians who have suffered and endured since Russia invaded in late February 2022.

From my home in Chicago, I followed news of the war closely. Working for Rotary, I received near-daily reports of members' efforts to assist Ukrainians, including those forced to flee to neighboring countries. At Rotary magazine, where I am the editor in chief, we held weekly video meetings early on with Ukrainian Rotary members, and in the first three months of the invasion, we watched as The Rotary Foundation collected $15 million to support initiatives helping people affected by the war. All this only increased my desire to experience firsthand the esprit de corps of the humanitarian army that has rushed to Ukraine's aid.

An unexpected opportunity to do just that came last fall as I vacationed in Berlin. Mykola Stebljanko, who publishes Rotariets, Rotary's regional magazine in Ukraine, invited me to visit Lviv, the largest city in western Ukraine.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion: What is It? Part XIV

Rotary

THE FOUR-WAY TEST
of the things we think, say or do

1 Is it the TRUTH ?	← This is a FACT	DIVERSITY is a FACT
2 Is it FAIR to all concerned?	← This is a CHOICE	EQUITY is your CHOICE
3 Will it build GOODWILL & BETTER FRIENDSHIPS ?	← This is an ACTION	INCLUSION is the ACTION
4 Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?	← This is a RESULT	BELONGING is the RESULT

Seven Habits of a Proactive Rotarian

Attendance

They always make it the point to attend as many Rotary meetings of their club and even other club, as is possible. They are aware that attending Rotary meeting is a very important part of being a Rotarian. Various club committees meeting are also an attraction to them, as well as district assemblies and conferences, local or international.

Fellowship

They enjoy meeting other Rotarians; they go out of their way to talk with other Rotarians who maybe stranger at first. Getting acquainted with as many Rotarians from other clubs and districts in even larger gatherings and assemblies is their constant goal and joy!

Vocation

Because vocation and classification are the bases of Rotary, they have respect for every vocation. They firmly believe that each vocation provides a cog in the wheel and each one has its importance, however insignificant it may appear by itself in comparison with others. They firmly subscribe to the view that each person should try to excel in whatever they do and try to help others to reach a higher level of efficiency in their work.

Discipline

They believe that no useful work maybe arrived at productively without discipline. Realizing that discipline, like charity, begins at home, they practice the same and where opportunity presents itself, enforce the same.

Time, Money, and Energy

As Rotarians with purpose, they earmark a certain amount of time, money and energy in being one. They also realize that they are part of a society where all of these are to be shared and properly balanced for their vocation, family and community.

Empathy

They put themselves in the position of the person, specially when the latter is in great difficulty. They know that mere sympathy is not enough. They feel the pain and experience the difficulties of others themselves. They also realize that what they are doing for the community is merely returning a very small part of what they have received from it. They know that it is only human to expect some kind of recognition for what they are doing they do not hanker after credit for it.

Image of Rotary

There may be moments when they feel that all is not right with Rotary. They may feel that there is 'politics' in Rotary. They know that there are some elements in Rotary who should not be there. They, however, look at the good aspects of Rotary. In public and outside Rotary, they always make it a point to project the best face of Rotary. They would not like to let the public image of Rotary get tarnished.

THE FOUR- WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY, AND DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise, and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST, the development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND, high ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD, the application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal and community life;

FOURTH, the advancement of international understanding, good will, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

CORE VALUES: SERVICE • FELLOWSHIP • DIVERSITY • INTEGRITY • LEADERSHIP

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life;
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect;
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world;
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

ROTARY'S SEVEN AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures, and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most importantly, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in seven areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

1. Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
2. Disease prevention and treatment
3. Water and sanitation
4. Maternal and child health
5. Basic education and literacy
6. Economic and community development
7. Supporting the environment
