Almighty God, we are joined here together in Your name to transfer our Club's leadership. We pray for the continuity of the past with the core values You have given us. As You have provided the seed of new life from the present we see that even in the death of life, new spirit, new life develops. The establishment of our Rotary Club as among the vast amalgam of a worldwide congregation of members serving mankind, provides the energy and way for us to thrive.

Where others see problems, Rotarians see opportunity to serve others. Where others see obstacles, Rotarians are energized by humanities needs for faith, hope, and charity.

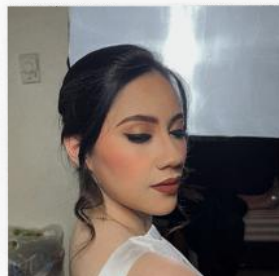

As the previous administrations of our Club provide the seed of new life in Rotary, we pray that our Club may flourish in the same joy You have provided for us from the past. We thank You, Almighty God, for continuity and the continuation of Rotary tradition, realizing that "Service Above Self" is serving You.

AMEN.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Welcome to the Rotary Year 2023-2024, Ladies in Red!

It is with great pleasure that I introduce a "revamping" of the Rotary Club of Waling-Waling Davao's Club Bulletin, Bloomscoop. It's not an "out with the old, in with the new" concept, but rather, coalescing the traditional with the contemporary.

With PP Evangeline Schwendener and APIC/PAG Maribel "Baby" Vilela as part of the Bloomscoop's Editorial Board, I know I have a strong and solid foundation to help bring together all that is needed to make wonderful and delightful reads for all our dearest readers out there.

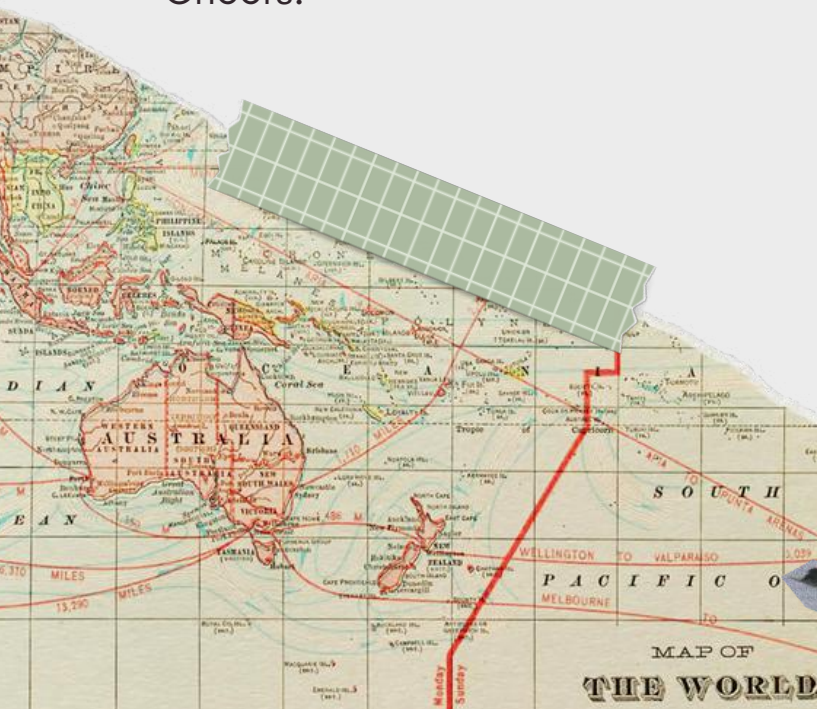

I'm excited to present to you our first issue for this Rotary Year. I hope you all enjoy it.

Cheers!

This year's theme, "Create Hope in the World," encapsulates the essence of our mission as Rotarians. We have witnessed the transformative power of hope, how it can uplift spirits, spark change, and bring light to the darkest corners. With resilience, we can overcome any obstacles we encounter and continue to serve our communities with unwavering dedication.

Our commitment to service is at the core of what we do. It drives us to go that extra mile and to make a difference in the lives of those who need it most. Let us reaffirm our commitment to Rotary's values and embrace the responsibility bestowed upon us as servant leaders.

Camaraderie is the lifeblood of our organization. Together, we form a network of compassionate individuals united by a common purpose. It is through camaraderie that we amplify our impact and create a ripple effect of positive change in the world. # SPEAKS

Gordon McInally Turns Ethos into Action

Written by Dave King | Photography by Monika Lozinska

A young bagpiper parades out of a hotel banquet room playing the familiar refrain of "Scotland the Brave." Behind him, carrying a plated ceremonial haggis and wearing blue, green, black, and yellow Gordon Modern tartan, is 2023-24 Rotary International President Gordon McInally.

It's Burns Night, celebrated every January with folk music, drams of Scotch whisky, enthusiastic renditions of the songs and poems of Scotland's greatest poet, Robert Burns, and, of course, haggis with neeps and tatties (turnips and potatoes). It is quintessentially Scottish, and McInally is in his element with friends as he marks the occasion in Galashiels, a town in Scottish Borders close to his home in Yetholm.

Heather McInally, his wife of 42 years, is wearing a sash of tartan — checks of green, light blue, and dark red — created for the 1997 Rotary International Convention in Glasgow. A classically trained former professional opera singer and music teacher, she belts out songs by Burns learned from childhood.

Contented wi' little, and cantie wi' mair / Whene'er I forgather wi' Sorrow and Care / I gie them a skelp as they're creeping alang / Wi' a cog o' gude swats and an auld Scottish sang.

Now the haggis is something else.

It is made of a sheep's pluck — the heart, liver, and lungs — minced with onions, oatmeal, suet, salt, pepper, and other spices, mixed with stock and then, originally, boiled in the animal's cleaned stomach. It sounds like a culinary nightmare, but on their travels the McInallys have been spreading word of haggis's appeal throughout the Rotary community.

Heather McInally explains how, on their visits to the States, they have sourced local supplies of haggis and even warmed up the Scottish delicacy in their hotel room microwave. "The smell of haggis lingered in the room the entire week," she recalls. "We served it to other RI Board members while in Chicago.

Everyone seems to love it, even though they were not quite sure what they were eating."

Rotary Protocol & Decorum

Every Rotary Club has to organize many functions and meetings.

There is certain protocol to be observed to recognize dignitaries, to show them love and respect of the organization.

A proper observance of protocol enhances the prestige of the concerned and also brings decorum to the function.

Below are certain hints as to how one can observe this protocol :

- All Rotary meetings hosted by a club (including Seminars, RYLA, etc.) and/or a regular meeting of the Club should be presided over by the President of the Club. The meeting will be called to order by him /her and not by the Master of Ceremonies or such other functionary.
- A Rotary meeting hosted by District or District Committee will be presided over by the servicing District Governor. [They] will call the meeting to order.
- Whilst calling the meeting to order, the gavel is first gently banged on the table and then the Presiding Officer says, "This meeting is called to order."
- Similarly whilst adjourning the meeting the Presiding Officer announces, "This meeting is adjourned" and thereafter gently bangs the gavel on the table.
- The protocol to be observed in order of precedence for greetings is as under:

As a general rule,

- Present functionary will precede past, and past will precede future.
- Serving District Governor, Past District Governors starting from senior most, DGN, serving President, District Officers, Past Presidents, President-Elect and so on.
- If the Mayor or the first citizen of the town is present in a Rotary meeting, they should be invited to the Presidential Table (if any) and should be recognized first.
- Once protocol is observed in a meeting initially, the subsequent speakers need not repeat the protocol but get down to business by addressing "Fellow Rotarians and Guests."
- This will help save time and not to say the least, avoid possible foul up of protocol.
- Whichever may be The Rotary meeting, hosted either by the Club or by the District, the serving Governor, if present and as the Chief Guest, will speak last.
- After the speech of the Governor, there should be no further speeches or for that matter summing of the speech.
- The only item on the agenda will be acknowledgements and a vote of thanks.
- During the official visit of the Governor to the clubs, there should be no additional Chief Guest, the Governor being the only one.
- Clubs are discouraged to have more than one chief guest at the installation function or such other Rotary function or during Governors Official Visit.

THE FOUR- WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY, AND DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise, and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST, the development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND, high ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD, the application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal and community life;

FOURTH, the advancement of international understanding, good will, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

CORE VALUES: SERVICE • FELLOWSHIP • DIVERSITY • INTEGRITY • LEADERSHIP

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life;
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect;
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world;
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

ROTARY'S SEVEN AREAS OF FOCUS

For more than 100 years, Rotarians have joined together from all continents, cultures, and industries to take action in our communities and around the world. With a commitment to achieving lasting change, we work together to empower youth, enhance health, promote peace, and most importantly, advance the community.

While Rotarians can serve in countless ways, Rotary has focused its efforts in seven areas, which reflect some of the most critical and widespread humanitarian needs:

1. Peace and conflict prevention/resolution
2. Disease prevention and treatment
3. Water and sanitation
4. Maternal and child health
5. Basic education and literacy
6. Economic and community development
7. Supporting the environment
