Call to Order

Invocation

Heavenly Father,

We give you thanks and praise for gathering and gracing us with your presence here today. Thank you Lord, for keeping each and every one of us healthy and safe. We thank you for our families, friends, and loved ones, as well as our club – may we continue to be of service to one another, source of inspiration and motivation as we go through these trying times.

Lord, please give us all the strength and the wisdom to stand together and surpass these challenges as one. May you continue to guide us towards our noble purpose that we may continue to uphold our core values even in these times of crisis. Please clear our hearts and minds of anxiety and distress so that we can emerge as better individuals and remain to be a blessing to others.

Please bless our Charter Anniversary activity today so that we can achieve the objectives of this meeting. May you grace us with a strong sense of responsibility towards one another, to do the necessary, and be prudent and considerate in our actions. As one family with one goal and purpose, we ask you this, through the name of your Son Jesus Christ.

Amen

The Four-Way Test

The Four-Way Test

of the things we think, say or do.

- 1 Is it the truth?
- 2 Is it fair to all concerned?
- 3 Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
- 4 Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

RCCPC CREDO

We believe we are the Rotary Club composed of business persons and professionals who encourage and foster the ideals of service of Rotary International.

We believe we are the embodiment of a strong, vibrant and family-oriented club which puts to action the tenet of Rotary “One Profits Most Who Serves BEST”.

We believe in our cherished role to be the leading civic organization in delivery of community and vocational services, particularly in the area of maternal and child care, coupled with educational empowerment, to the marginalized sector of society.

As we commit ourselves to do all these, we humbly seek the aid of the Divine Providence.

Because We CARE!

Rotary Hymn

I. I want to be a Rotarian for the world,
Make the Rotary flag as the flag of peace
unfurled;
I shall serve my community,
Help achieve universal unity.
Through Rotary, I shall dedicate my all,
World understanding shall be my cherished goal.

II. With the Four Way Test
I'll pursue my quest
And if I, in a way help obtain
Peace in the world
I shall not have lived in vain.

III. I observe service above self,
Lend a hand to all who need my help;
I'll get my spouse to involve in Rotary
And in Rotary ways I will train my family.

IV. With the Four Way Test
We'll pursue our quest
And if we, in a way help obtain
Peace in the world
We shall not have lived in vain.

V. Build a bridge for tomorrow's youth,
Strengthened by nothing but the truth;
Let's join our hands, there's no reason we'll divide.
We shall all understand, why the good Lord is our guide.

VI. With the Four Way Test
We'll pursue our quest
And if I, in a way help obtain
Peace in the world
We shall not have lived in vain.

VII. Peace be achieved,
We shall not have lived in vain.

Welcome Address

Brief History of RCCPC

In the beginning were five men and one vision...

In a historic series of preparative meetings in May 1985, Felipe Casing, Antonio Elumir, Manny Granada, Jacinto Jamero and Rey Sanggalang envisioned the Port Center of Cebu as a vantage ground from where a band of noble men shall rise by the name of Rotary in a game of service to humanity.

What followed was a marathon dash in establishing a Rotary Club in the Cebu Port District to obtain a charter from then District 3860 Governor Jose "Joe" Lardizabal whose term was to conclude very soon. On the forefront was Pepe Casing, a Cebu Fuente Rotarian. It was in the special day of June 6, 1985 when a charter was granted to a club that was christened a most befitting name: The "ROTARY CLUB OF CEBU PORT CENTER".

The newfound organization that was once a nucleus of five visionaries became a club of 34 gentlemen who convened charter members in the middle of June 1985 to bear witness to the first set of officers. Antonio "Jun" Elumir, who was then the Phil. Ports Authority Officer, was the Charter President. With him at the helm was Manuel "Manny" Granada, the Charter Vice President. Jacinto "Boy" Jamero and "Rey" Sanggalang were the Charter Secretary and Charter Treasurer, respectively. These gentlemen who were the prime movers for the organization of our club were equally accorded those distinct and rare positions which can only happen once in a history of a club.

Pepe Casing was honored with the venerable title of "Godfather". The pioneering charter members, most of who are still with the RCCPC, instilled the club's love for sports – golf, bowling and tennis – in that order of popularity among its members. An incessant talk about these sports keeps alive the fellowship that follows its weekly meeting every Monday Evening. Do not be surprised if you hear other people mistakenly refer to RCCPC as the Rotary Club of Cebu "Sports Center".

Message

My Fellow Rotarians,

In the twilight years of a senior citizen we take comfort in the happy memories of our life. One of the happiest memory were my days with RCCPC whom we gave birth to. Just like a parent celebrating and nurturing their child, our pride grew year after year seeing RCCPC grow robust and strong achieving heights of accomplishments we as parents only dreamed of. We take so much pride in seeing the succeeding generations of Rotarians embracing, upholding and refining the standards and traditions we initiated.

Our message is Keep Up The Good Work.

If I shall be asked before the eternal gate, what were you on earth, my answer would be "I was a ROTARIAN with RCCPC".
